ALTOONA, PA.

Some six month since, a lady named Effic Carstang, of St. Louis, brought an action for breach of promise against Mr. Shaw, a rich gentleman of that place, and the jury awarded her a verdict of $100. 000, Mr. Shaw's counsel immediately moved for a new trial, for the reason that he had not time to summon witnesses and prove many things which had a bearing upon the case and which would give it a different aspect. The motion was granted, and the second trial, which lasted some three weeks, and has just been concluded, has been lost by Miss Effic, but what is far worse, she has lost her character also. Without character or case, its innovation upon the well settled practice of she is now cast off by the world, with only the State, there are other objections arising from Messrs. Benj. Page, jr., & Co., Pittsburg, Pa.: I have been afflicted with the Chronic Rheumatism, unable to walk for six years, and have used all the external and internal remedies, both from Doctors and Quacks; also all the patent medicines recommended for that disease; also spent six months at the Hot Springs in Arkansas, all to no purpose. As the old saying is that drowning men catch at straws, I was recommended to try your Bitter, and must onfess that it is the only remedy which has given me relief. I am now on my third bottle. I am so much better. although not able to walk, I was able to attend church last Sunday, for the first time in six years. My general ealth is also much improved. My appetite never was better. My object in writing you (as my recourses are nearly exhausted by my long confinement) is to know if I can obtain it for less than one dollar per Bottle, which price I have to pay for it here. I consider Boerhave's Holland litters the most valuable remedy for my complaint that was ever offered to the public.

The cattle suffer greatly from the heat in the stables, occasioned by the masses of snow rest
