Make your Home Beautiful. Make your home beautiful—bring to it flowers. Plant them around you to bud and to bloom; Let them give life to your loneliest hours, Let them bring light to enliven your gloom; Make your own world—one that never has sorrowed— Of music, and sunshine, and glad summer air, A home world, whose forehead care never has furrowed And whose cheek of bright beauty shall ever be fair. Make your home beautiful weave round its portal

Wreaths of the jasmine, and delicate sprays Of red-fruited woodbine with joy immortal, That blesses and brightens wherever it strays. lather the blossoms, too—one little flower, Varied verbena, or sweet mignonette,

Still may bring bloom to your desolate bower-Still may be something to love and to pot. That heard up the sunshine with exquisite art; Perchance they may pour, as your darkest day closes, That soft summer sunshine down into your heart; If you can do so oh! make it an Edin Of heauty and gladness—remember tis wise, "Twill teach you to long for that home you are needing,

That heaven of beauty beyond the blue skies! Make your home beautiful sure 'tis a duty-Call up your little ones, teach them to walk Hand in hand with the wandering Angel of Beauty, Encourage their spirits with nature to talk. Gather them round you, and let them be learning Lessons that drop from the delicate wings Of the bird and the butterfly—ever returning

To Him who has made all these beautiful things. Make home a hive, where all beautiful feelings Cluster like bees and their honey-dow bring; Make it a temple of holy revealings, And love its bright Angel with "shadowing wing." Then shall it be when afar on life's billows Wherever your tempest-tossed children are flung, They will long for the shade of the home "weeping wil-

THE RAIN CONCERT. Millions of tiny drops Are falling all around: They're dancing on the house tops, They're hiding in the ground.

They are fairy-like musicians. With anything for keys, Beating tune upon the windows, Keeping time upon the trees. A light and airy treble They play upon the stream.

And the melody enchants us Like the music of a dream. A deeper bass is sounding When they're dropping into caves: With u tenor from the zephyrs,

And an alto from the waves. Oh, tis a stream of music, And Robin "don't intrude." If, when the rain is weary, He drops an interlude

It seems as if the warbling Of the birds in all the bowers, Had been gathered into ruin-drops And was coming down in showers.

Luna Island-Little Luna-from across the stream, looks, with her stunted cedars weighed down and covered with this frost work, like a heard of white elephants; but when you go over to it, and walk in under, as you can, you are really in a grotto of diamonds-the bright sun shining down and giving an appearance of splendor not elsewhere to be found. The eddies have clogged and cemented the cakes of ice that came down over the falls, and a bridge is formed for foot passengers, and seemingly strong enough to bear a horse. Of this, as there is nothing to pay for crossing and looking, (a wonder of the Niagara's wonder) numbers hourly take advantage. Standing on mid river and looking upward, the scene is imposingly grand and beautiful. With a pole I measured throu h the different fissures to ascertain
