The Charleston Convention.

Since our last issue there have been very exciting times at Charleston. The work of the body has been the manufacture of a platform, which job was comtoo true, and its motives plainly seen, when our pleted on Monday last. The Convention adopted the minority report of Mr. Samuels, of Iowa, re-affirming the Cincinnati Platform and the Dred Scott-Decision, and endorsing several additional features of importance. The report was not adopted without a considerable display of angry under a false pretense that the constables were discussion; but was finally carried almost unanimously. The platform as adopted averse to making any attempt at getting in .-
