If the sentiments of those holding the meeting are not agreeable to us, we should stay away. No party: even did or ever will make anything by annoying their opponents while holding meetings. On the contrary, it engenders bad feeling between the members of different parties, creating a coolness between friends, which, when the excitement of the campaign is over, must be regretted by all. There is reason in all things, and if men would but set in accordance with their better judgments rather than obey the diotates of their excitable natures, which is too often mistaken for seal for their party, they would do their party as much, if not more good,

POLITICAL MERTINGS. These seem to be the order of the day in this locality, and it is a question whether the thing is not being "run into the ground." We like to see men exhibit seal in the cause of their party, but attending meetings two or three evenings in each week, and hearing the same story told over every time, is calculated to make it rather stale, and cool their be published in the Altoona Tribune:

The Bell and Everett party held a meeting at Bell's Mills, on Thursday evening last, which was attended by the Club of this place, who chartered an excursion train for the occasion. Addresses were delivered by Es. Hammond, Esq.;

PERPARING FOR THE SEASON.—Happening in at Mr. Shoemaker's establishment, at the Post Office, a few days since, we noticed he was receiving a car load of stoves, of all descriptions, with which to supply the inhabitants of this locality who are in need of an article of this kind. His stock embraces wood and coal cook stoves of numerous patierns, large and small egg stoves, plain and famy parior stoves of all kinds, and in test as great, variety as can be found in city establishments. Call and examine them.

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., Dec. 21st, 1859. Paor. Wood:—Thee wife please accept a line to inform thee that the hair on my head all fell off over twenty years ago, caused by a complicated chronic disease, attended with an eruption on the head. A continual course of suffering have not been able to obtain stuff for caps, neither have been able to do them up, in consequence of which my head has suffered extremely from cold. This induced me to pay Briggs & Hodges almost the last cent I had on earth for a two dollar bottle of thy Hair Restorative about the first of Au-gust last. I have faithfully followed the directions and the shall spot is now covered with hair thick and black, though short, it is coming in all over my head. Feeling confident that another largs bottle would restore it entirely and permanently, I feel auxious to persevere in its use, and being destitute of means to purchase any more. I would ask thee If thee wouldst not be willing to send me agents for a bottle, and receive to thyself the scripture de-claration—"the reward is to those that are kind to the wi-dow and the fatherless."

Thy friend,

LMONIER. Noble Co., Ind., Feb. 5th, 1859. Prop. O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir:—In the latter part of the year 1852, while attending the State and National Law School of the State of New York, my hair, from a cause unknown to me, commenced falling off very rapidity, so that in the short space of six months, the whole upper part of my scalp was almost entirely bereft of its covering, and much of the remaining portion upon the side and back part my head shortly after became gray, so that you will not State of Indiana, my more casual acquaintances were not so much at a loss to discover the cause of the change in my appearance, as my more intimate acquaintunces were to ecognize me at al I at once made application to the most skillful physicians in the country, but, receiving from them no assurance that my hair could again be restored, I was forced to become reconciled to my fate, until, fortunately, in the latter part of the year 1857, your Restorative was recommended o me by a druggist, as being the most reliable Hair Restorative in use. I tried one bottle, and found to my great satisfaction that it was producing the desired effect. Since that time I have used seven dollars' worth of your Rostor ative, and as a result, have a rich coat of very soft black hair, which no money can buy.

As a mark of my gratitude for your labor and skill in the production of so wonderful an article, 1 have recommonded its use to many of my friends and acquaintances, who, I am happy to inform you, are using it with like effect.

Very respectfully, yours,

A. M. LATTA,

Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

Depot, 444 Broadway, and sold by all dealers throughout the world.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds, 14 a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent, more in proportion than the small, refalls for two dollars a bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 percent, more in proportion and retails for $3 a bottle.
