THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1860.

Where parties are unknown to us, our rule for advertising is to require payment in advance, or a guarantee from known persons.

S. M. PETTINGILL & CO.,

Advertising Agents, 119 Nassau street, New York, and 10 State street, Boston.

The Tyrone Star, of this week, calls the Tribune a Republican paper, and says we devoted two columns of our last issue to the defence of Carl Schurz.

BOOK AND NEWSPAPER TRADE ON RAILROADS.—In England the railroad cars are divided off into compartments, each of which contains seats for eight or ten passengers.

PARTICULARS OF WALKER'S CAPTURE.—It appears, from intelligence brought by the Empire City, that Walker and his men were captured on the 23d inst.

RAILWAY MANAGEMENT.—The N. Y. World, in commenting upon the recently discovered peculations of some of the employees of the Pennsylvania Railroad, says it discloses another of those risks of loss, to which this class of security is liable.

Among the killed, we regret to notice the name of John DeArmit, formerly of Hollidaysburg, who was universally respected and esteemed by all who knew him.

AN AMERICAN CATHOLIC CHURCH.—The Brothers Jonathan says there has recently been organized in Richmond, Virginia, a society of "Independent American Catholics."

From a column of "Religious Notices" which we find in the New York Tribune of Saturday last, we extract the following.

The Philadelphia Inquirer mentions four styles of counterfeiting coin. It is estimated that fully ten per cent. of all the apparent gold coin in circulation is bogus.

A NEW IDEA.—A vote on the Presidential question is now taken every evening, at the Pittsburgh Theatre. Thus far the result has been favorable to Lincoln.

LETTERS TO FICTITIOUS NAMES.—Attorney General Black has decided that the Post Office Department has the power to withhold letters addressed to fictitious persons or firms.

The Atlantic Monthly for October, contains a greater variety of reading matter than usual, embracing articles on political, historical, biographical, literary, humorous and other subjects.

POLITICAL ITEMS.

BLAIR FURNACE, Sept. 21, 1860. Messrs. Editors.—Louis W. Hall, the noble champion of the people's rights, spoke here last night.

MISSOURI BRECKINRIDGE CONVENTION.—St. Louis, September 22.—A special despatch to the Republic, from Jefferson City, states that the State Convention adopted the report of the committee on resolutions.

THE PARDONING POWER.—The Philadelphia Press, speaking of the complaints made against Governor Packer for his free use of the pardoning power, says that with one exception, he has pardoned fewer men than any of his immediate predecessors.

ANOTHER CALAMITY.—On Monday last, at 4 minutes before 1 o'clock P. M., the boiler in the marble and machine works of W. W. Wallace, in Pittsburgh, blew up and knocked the entire works into a heap of ruins.

FOUND HIS MOTHER.—Senator Douglas, with his wife, visited his mother, at Clifton Springs, N. Y., on Saturday week, remaining until the hour for the organization of the public meeting.

THE CHAIRMAN OF THE PEOPLE'S PARTY and Democratic State Committee have failed to agree in making arrangements for the rival candidates for Governor to meet each other on the stump.

AMONG THE KILLED, we regret to notice the name of John DeArmit, formerly of Hollidaysburg, who was universally respected and esteemed by all who knew him.

NO FUSION IN PENNSYLVANIA.—Harrisburg, Sept. 22.—As much has recently been published on the subject of alleged propositions of fusion in Pennsylvania, the parties are informed that in the question of fusion has as to time been entertained by the Democratic Executive Committee.

ASPHOTOPHORE FOR CLERGYMEN.—It not unfrequently happens that established clergymen and denominations receive "calls" to other parishes or congregations, and it happens, we fear almost as frequently, that such "calls" are accepted if a larger salary is offered among the independents.

THE PEOPLE'S MEETING, at No. 187 Bowery, EVERY SUNDAY.—Subject on the 28th, at 8 p. m., "The Issues and the Candidates of the Presidential Campaign," at 7 1/2 p. m., "Negro Suffrage."

Trust him little who prides all; him less who covets all; and him least who is indifferent about all.

THE WORLD RECEIVES now in a single year nearly one fourth as much gold as was obtained in the whole period from the discovery of America down to the year 1848.

DR. BRONSON'S BLOOD FOOD.—The demand for this unrivalled preparation is beyond the possibility of a doubt, and its sale is becoming as large as that of any other article now before the public.
