LOCAL ITEMS.

ARRIVAL OF THE "GOOD WILL."—The "Good Will" fire engine company of Philadelphia, arrived in this place on Tuesday morning last, and met at the depot by a committee of gentlemen from the "Good Will" company of this place, and escorted to the Altoona House and Washington Hotel where rooms were provided for them.

Their steam fire engine arrived on Express Freight shortly after the arrival of the company, was unshipped and taken to the half-way house, where the engine of the "Good Will" company, of this place, is housed. The Philadelphia company is composed of fine looking men—stout men to man an engine and take the water, as they did at the Fair at Cincinnati, with their engine, which is a second class in power, but the first class engines of that city, throwing a stream 265 feet 6 inches, through an inch nozzle. During the forenoon, they were taken in charge by the members of the "Good Will" of this place, and shown the sights of our Mountain City."

At one o'clock in the afternoon, the Altoona company, to the number of 30, dressed in white pants and glazed caps, accompanied the Altoona Brass Band, met at their engine house, and forming in rank marched to the hotel at which the city company was quartered and escorted them to the engine house. Here a procession was formed by placing the band in front, the Altoona company next, the steam engine, drawn by two horses, next, followed by the city company. The procession then marched through several streets followed by a large crowd. At different places along the route boquets were thrown by the ladies to the Philadelphia firemen. A beautiful wreath, manufactured of fine smilax and green, paper, and trimed with gold and silver paper, bearing on a card within the inscription "Welcome Good Will" on one side, and on the reverse side several stars and a shield representing the Keystone of the arch, was presented by Mrs. Fettinger.

The engine was then pulled up to the reservoir of the water company, at the head of Annie street, for the purpose of giving an exhibition of "squirting" powers. She was soon fired and a stream thrown about 200 feet through the nozzle. The wind was blowing a gale all the time of the trial and scattered the water so much that it was impossible to form a clear idea of what she could do, but her power was highly satisfactory to all who witnessed it, and fully demonstrated the superiority of steam over hand power in throwing water upon fires.

The trial over, the companies returned to the place of starting, and from thence proceeded to the armory of the Logan Rifle Rangers, where a substantial collation was served up in good style by Mrs. Levan. Ample justice was done to the things, after which the President of the Philadelphia Company made a few remarks, and called up Mr. Himes, member of the Philadelphia Common Council, who responded in a happy manner. When he had concluded, Mr. W. Boyer, in behalf of Mrs. Fettinger, presented the Philadelphia Company with a beautiful wreath manufactured by her, accompanying it with a few appropriate remarks. Mr. Alex. A. Smyth, President of the Altoona company, also made some well-timed and well-received remarks. A number of toasts were given and replied to by members of the companies, and they had a good time generally. After the repast the city company was escorted to quarters at the hotels, and each company cheered the other and separated to meet again at Military Hall in the evening and participate in a ball given in honor of the visit of the city company.

In the evening the firemen, accompanied by a number of the ladies of this place, assembled at Military Hall, and spent the evening very pleasantly in "tipping the light fantastic toe" to the sound of good music. We were not present and cannot speak knowingly of this part of the programme: but we do know that the members of the city company expressed themselves highly pleased with the reception they received from the firemen and citizens of this place.

The company left for home on the Mail Train (on Wednesday) morning, and we wish them a safe arrival in the city of Brotherly Love.

ACCIDENT.—James Stewart, fireman on the Branch engine, met with a severe accident on Tuesday evening of last week. In attempting to pass into the engine house, he was caught between the door timber and the side of the engine and severely injured about the hips. His injuries, however, we are pleased to learn, were not near so serious as they were at first supposed to be. He is mending rapidly, and will probably be able to be about again in a short time.—Standard.

DECLINED.—We learn from the Standard of last week, that at a meeting of the Democratic County Committee held on the 24th inst, a letter was received from Col. John Woods, of this place, declining the nomination for Associate Judge. The Committee considered the matter and finally passed a resolution deeming it inexpedient to make another nomination.

☞ Our thanks are due Wm. R. Boyers, Esq., of this place, now travelling in Ireland, for late files of the Cork Examiner, Coleraine Chronicle and Belfast Morning News

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.—On Friday evening last, the Douglas wing of the Democratic party held a large meeting in front of the Post Office, in this place. The torch light procession, previous to the organization of the meeting, was the longest we have seen in the place this year, numbering in the neighborhood of 200. It was preceded by the Altoona Brass Band. At a few minutes past 8 o'clock, an extra train from Hollidaysburg brought in some 125 or 150 persons, accompanied by Van Tries' Cornet Band. After the organization of the meeting the audience was addressed by Hon. Herschel V. Johnson, of Georgia, the candidate of the Party for Vice President. He is a large man, of rather prepossessing appearance, and a fluent speaker. He was a little severe on the Breckinridge wing of the party. His remarks were listened to with very marked attention by the large audience, composed of the members of all parties, who naturally wished to hear a man who is a candidate for the second highest office in the gift of the people. He was followed by Gen. Wm. H. Miller, of Harrisburg and Mr. Jeffries, of Ohio, but we can not speak of their efforts, as we did not stay to hear them.

☞ At a competitive examination of the students of Duff's Mercantile College, Pittsburgh, held in the College Hall, on Tuesday, over one hundred dollars in premiums were distributed by the enterprising proprietor. The examination was conducted by the Principal and Professors, assisted by A. B. Hatch and R. S. Davis, Esqs. The first premium in book-keeping was awarded to W. T. Beatty, of Washington, Pa.; the second to J. Y. Boice, of Pittsburgh, Pa.; the third to T. A. Perdeaux, Cumberland, Pa. The first premium in penmanship was awarded to J. Y. Boice, of Pittsburgh; the second to C. Jones, Letart Falls, Ohio; the third to W. C. Rafferty, Pittsburgh, Pa. The first premium in commercial law was awarded to J. M. Teece, Brownsville, Pa.; the second to J. Robison, Hardin county, Ohio. Many of the problems in book-keeping were of the most intricate character, and the manner in which they were solved maintains the long established reputation of the institution for the superior attainments of its students. We shall take an early opportunity of laying some of them before our commercial readers.—Press.

QUALIFICATIONS OF VOTERS.—The law requires a person who claims the right to vote, to have been a citizen of this Commonwealth "at least one year, and in the election district at least ten days immediately preceding such election, and within two years to have paid a State or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election. But a citizen of the United States, who has previously been a qualified voter of the State, and removed therefrom and returned, and who shall have resided in the election district, and paid taxes aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote after residing in this State six months. But citizens of the United States, between the ages of 21 and 22 years, who have resided in the election district ten days, as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote, although they shall not have paid taxes." Are you assessed? See to it immediately that you are. Saturday, the 29th inst., is the last day on which this duty can be attended to to secure a vote at the ensuing election—as the election takes place on Tuesday, the 9th of October.

PRINCE OF WALES.—The Pittsburgh Chronicle says that the car recently built in the shops in this place, for the exclusive use of the Directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, will be furnished to the Prince of Wales and his suite, at Cincinnati, and will be occupied by them until they reach Washington. It is proposed to leave Pittsburgh on Tesday afternoon, October 2d, arriving in Washington on the afternoon of the next day.

Since the above was placed in type, we learn that the Prince and suite will pass through this place on Tuesday evening next. Mr. E. H. Turner, General Car Inspector of the Penn'a R. R., goes to Cincinnati with the car intended for the Prince, and will have charge of it until it arrives at Washington.

POLE RAISING.—On Saturday evening last, the friends of Lincoln, Hamlin and Curtin, in this place, raised a pole on the corner of Virginia and Julia steets, opposite their Club Room. The gathering was large and orderly, and the pole was soon planted. It is 80 feet high. On the top is a very small flag, a few feet from the top is a handsome red, white and blue streamer 12 or 15 feet long, and at a point level with the windows of the Club Room a rope is stretched from the pole to one of the windows, from which is suspended, directly across the street, a large flag with the names of Lincoln, Hamlin and Curtin thereon.

JUST THE TIME TO ADVERTISE.—All seasons are good for advertising, but the fall is usually the very best. Dull times are as good as any other for the advertiser, for what little is going on they get; and while others are grumbling, they pay their way, and with their newspaper for a life preserver, swim on the top of the water while others around them are sinking. Advertising is the very sunshine of business, and those who neglect to profit by it, will after a life of dullness and adversity discover the important secret that a man makes very little out of this world unless he lets people know that he is in it.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK.—Godey is always regular as clock work. His book comes to hand between the 10th and 15th of every month, and there is no disappointment to the expectations of the ladies. This number was anxiously looked for by the ladies, as those who take it had to wait for it to get the fall fashions, and they are fine. Every lady should have this Book.—Price three per annum. We furnish it for $2.

☞ Do you want a dish of good Cove Plant Oysters? Of course you do, for who don't.—Well, you can get just as good a dish as is to be had in any establishment this side of Phila, by dropping in at John Alexander's saloon, on Main street two doors above Kerr's store. John also keeps Ale and other drinks, cakes, pies, apples, confectionaries, nuts, fruit, &c. Give John a call.

☞ The publication of the Blair County Union has been discontinued.

LATEST FROM THE WRECK.—The Chicago Times states that vigilant parties are constantly on the beach at work rescuing bodies from the surf. A noble Newfoundland dog has been of great assistance in recovering bodies, but he utterly refuses any reward in the shape of carcasses from bystanders, snapping and snarling at them when any such demonstrations are offered. All the bodies found yesterday were in a far advanced stage of decomposition, and some of them could with difficulty be identified by anything but the garments upon them. It is believed that few, if any, of those in the lower cabin, about all of whom were ladies, escaped. One of the rescued states that just before the boat went to the bottom he looked down into the cabin and beheld many ladies running wildly about in their night robes, apparently just come from their berths. These doubtles still remain with the wreck. There is good reasons to believe, from the steward's statement and from other sources of information, that there were from three to four hundred people on board of that ill-fated vessel the night she went down. Of these, the greater portion were people in limited circumstances, and mostly with large families. It is estimated by good judges in Milwaukie, that over one thousand orphans, as the Milwaukie Sentinel says, will be thrown on the world, and two hundred widows. This is probably the largest amount of distress that any city in the Union has ever known, if we except the city of Lawrence in the Lawrence mill catastrophe.

THE GROWTH OF THE COUNTRY.—The growth and prosperity of this country, in population, products and enterprise, as shown by the census returns are something marvelous to contemplate. If our forefathers of two generations past could behold the wonderful increase in population, the extent of territory under cultivation, the abundant returns from the soil, the number and magnitude of cities and towns thickly covering the country, the vast mineral resources being daily developed, the railroad and steamboat enterprise flourishing everywhere, they would be struck with astonishment as profound as would be the ancient barbaric nations could they behold the marvels which science and knowledge have wrought in our day. In the history of the world there is truly no parallel for the rapid growth of the United States.

AN UNPLEASANT BEDFELLOW.—A few nights since, Mr. John Fulk, living in Athens county, Ohio, was aroused by his wife, and requested to examine the bed clothing, and remove a locust she had heard make a noise. Mr. Fulk made the examination, but discovering nothing, again retired to bed, and was aroused the second time by his spouse, who insisted that there was a locust in the bed. In his second search, Mr. Fulk encountered a rattlesnake three feet three inches in length, which was comfortably ensconced under the covers, which he immediately despatched. Mr. Fulk killed the mate to this snake a few days previous to this occurrence a short distance from his dwelling.

A PHYSICIAN KILLED BY A FLY.—A physician named Friedlander, died at his residence in Chicago, on Wednesday, after a most distressing illness, caused, as was believed, from being bitten in the face by a fly, that had brought poison communicated from the carcass of a poisoned dog. No medical remedies availed anything, and so fearful were the effects of the disease that a few hours after the breath had left his body the friends were forced to hurry his remains into the ground.

TERRIBLE STORM IN ITALY.—One of the most disastrous storms of thunder and hail ever remembered, visited Turin and the neighborhood on the 21st ult. It was, however, near Felrara, in the Papal States, that the tempest reached its highest point of violence. Houses were leveled to the ground, a church was demolished, and the priests at the alter, together with eighty other persons, were killed.

☞ A colored girl, named Murrels, residing in Alexandria, Huntingdon Co., gave birth to a child, week before last, which she immediately killed, and hid the dead body in the cellar. She was arrested.

☞ Fanny Fern says—"I immediately love the man who blushes" Oh, dear; we hope she will not come this way.

☞ A noisy tongue is a sure index to an empty head.

JUSTICE TO THE SOUTH.
A NEW BOOK and one destined to create a sensation.
Just Published.
THE SUNNY SOUTH
OR THE SOUTHERNER AT HOME,
Embracing Five Years experience of a Northern Governess, in the land of Sugar, Rice, Tobacco and Cotton. Edited by Prof. J. H. INGRAHAM, of Mississippi. Handsomely bound in one volume, 12 mo. 528 pages. Price $1.25.
Literary Notices from the Press throughout the Country.
THE SUNNY SOUTH.—This book is composed of a series of letters, written in an interesting style of a narrative, embodying the most romantic features of social life on different kinds of plantations. We can bear testimony, from our own personal observation of similar scenes in the South, to their truthfulness as here depicted. They are portrayed in a vivid, interesting style, and we would like to see the book in the hands of thousands of deceived people, who have no personal knowledge either of Southerners or Southern life, except what they have gained from partizan journals, or those who intentionally have written to deceive.—Daily Republic, Buffalo, N. Y.
THE SUNNY SOUTH.—This volume is in the form of letters. They give, so far as we can judge, faithful pictures of Southern life, and are penned without prejudice. They present scenes quite different from an 'Uncle Tom's Cabin.' the pictures presented are quite graphic, and we think the portraits painted are in very nearly natural colors.—Boston Daily Bee.
THE SUNNY SOUTH.—We have rarely peeped within the covers of a more appetizing volume. Although not intended as an answer to the foul untruths in the 'Uncle Tom' trash of the last ten years, it nevertheless does unmercifully hurl back to their source all lies of such a nature, and we are glad to believe that the book will be read in thousands of northern homes. The south also should take to it benignantly, for independent of its truthfulness and integrity it is one of the liveliest and most entertaining books of the year.—Times, Greensboro, N. C.
THE SUNNY SOUTH.—The enterprising publisher, Geo. G. Evans, Philadelphia, of Gift Book notoriety, is weekly issuing new works of interest, and spreading them over the country, and his system of transacting business may be looked upon as an institution, for diffusing knowledge, unequalled by any in the country. We commend this book to all.—Daily News.
THE SUNNY SOUTH.—This is a captivating volume, strongly illustrative of Southern life. The heart of the authoress is with her theme, and she carries the interest of the reader along with her, as she, in her amusing off-hand style, delineates the peculiarities of a Southern home.—Press.
THE SUNNY SOUTH.—Whatever bears the name of Professor Ingraham is sure to involve the elements of striking effect and a wide popular currency: and this is just the case with "The Sunny South, or the Southerner at Home," which appears from the press of G. G. Evans, under the editorship of the graphic Professor. It is vivid in style, keenly observant, interesting in plot, and in purpose and manner it obviously springs from a warm heart, and will be as warmly welcomed by a host of readers.—New Yorker.

GOOD BOOKS! CHOICE BOOKS!!
NEW AND ILLUSTRATED EDITIONS.
THE THRONE OF DAVID,
From the consecration of the Shepherd of Bethlehem to the Rebellion of Prince Absalom, being an illustration of the Splendor, Power, and Dominion of the Reign of the Shepherd King, in a series of Letters, wherein the magnificence of Judea is shown to the reader, as if by an eye witness. By Rev. J. H. INGRAHAM, LL. D. One vol. 12 mo., cloth. 603 pages. Price $1.25.
"This is the third Volume, and the completion of a series of works by the same author, on the history of the Israelitish monarchy. The origin under Moses, was treated of in the "Pillar of Fire," and its great glory under David is treated of in this work, (The Throne of David,) while the decline of Hebrew power and the [illegible] of the new dispensation meet their delineation in "Prince of the House of David." These works are historically valuable, as handbooks of information relative to the scenery, geography and manners of the Holy Land. The style is interesting and powerful and the work leads us to the contemplation and study of the sublime language of the Bible and the great doctrines of truth it contains, without being, as such books too ordinarily are, either maudlin, stupid, dogmatic or conceited."—Boston Daily Atlas.

THE PILLAR OF FIRE
OR ISRAEL IN BONDAGE.
By the Rev. J. H. INGRAHAM, author of the "Prince of the House of David." One volume, 12 mo., cloth. 600 pages. Price $1.25.
"This work is designed to sketch the Hebraic history during the bondage in Egypt, the Prophet Moses being the central figure, and is a free and striking history of the period in which the writer gathers first, from the Bible and then from profane history a vast amount of material, which by his genius, is thrown into a fanciful narrative of the most attractive character which carries the reader along without diminution of interests."—Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.
THE PRINCE OF THE HOUSE OF DAVID:
OR THREE YEARS IN THE HOLY CITY.
In a series of letters relating as if by an eye witness, all the scenes and wonderful incidents in the LIFE OF JESUS OF NAZARETH,
From his Baptism in Jordon to his Crucifixion on Calvary. By the Rev. J. H. INGRAHAM, Rector of Christ Church, and of St. Thomas' Hall, Holly Springs, Miss. One Volume, 12 mo. cloth, 472 pages. Price $1.25.
"In this work the author has succeeded in the bold and daring task of presenting the great leading historical parts of scripture in connection with secular history, so as to present the clear and life-like picture of those events as they might be supposed to appear to a casual observer.—The descriptions of rights and ceremonials, are spirited and comprehensive. The style is highly imaginative and attractive, and we predict that this volume will be as popular as the "Pilgrim's Progress."—Presbyterian and Examinist.

And testimonials, new and almost without number might be given from ladies and gentlemen in all grades of society, whose united testimony none could resist, that Professor Wood's Hair Restorative will restore the bald and gray, and preserve the hair of the youth to old age, in all its youthful beauty.
BATTLE CREEK, Mich., Dec. 21st, 1859.
PROF. WOOD:—Thee will please accept a line to inform thee that the hair on my head all fell off over twenty years ago, caused by a complicated chronic disease, attended with an eruption on the head. A continual course of suffering through life having reduced me to a state of dependence, I have not been able to obtain stuff for caps; neither have I been able to do them up, in consequence of which my head has suffered extremely from cold. This induced me to pay Briggs & Hodges almost the last cent I had on earth for a two dollar bottle of thy Hair Restorative about the first of August last. I have faithfully followed the directions and the bald spot is now covered with hair thick and black, though short, it is coming in all over my head. Feeling confident that another large bottle would restore it entirely and permanently, I feel anxious to persevere in its use, and being destit
