LOCAL ITEMS.

FIRE.—On Tuesday evening, about ter. o'clock, the cry of "fire" resounded through the town, and brought out all who had retired for the night. A bonfire had been kindled in East Koon. Altoons, and every person at first ran in that direction. Finding out their mistake, it was thought to be a false alarm, but it was soon after ascertained that the boarding house, on Emma street, near the Methodist Church, owned by Mrs. Sawdon and occupied by Dr. Vicroy, was on fire, and the crowd moved to that place. The house was on fire between the weatherboarding and plastering of the back part of the lower wing. A portion of the weatherboarding was torn off and water applied which soon quenched the fire. From the fact that there had been Horrible Tracedy. -- We are informed that, on Tuesday evening last, a fracas occurred at Lewistown, between Gen. Wm. H. Irwin and a Mr. Hawker, resulting in the almost fatal wounding of Mr. John McNeall. The particulars are as follows: -Mr. Irwin and Mr. Hawker were talking politics, and got into a quarrel, when Irwin drew a revolver and fire I at Hawker, but, missing his aim, the ball struck McNeall, tearing the muscle from his right arm. He fired a second time and the ball struck McNeall in the side, passing through his kidneys. McNeall's recovery is considered doubtful. We learn the above from a person who was present at the time, and saw the occurrence.

To ALL MANKIND .- Dr. Palmer, the great travelling doctor, who has been travelling so community, will be in Altoona on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Monday, Oct. 9th., 10th, 11th 12th, 13th and loth. His rooms are at the American Hotel, on Emma street. The doctor can cure all cancers, ferer sores, felons, tumors, ulcers, piles, nervous affections, &c. He says he can cure all that are curable, and help those who cannot be cured. As his stay will be short those who detire to avail themselves of his services should call on him immediately.

STORM.—A tremendous storm of wind and tain, accompanied by sharp lightning and thunder, passed over this place between three and four o'clock, on Monday morning last. The only damage done, that we observed, was the breaking of the Lincoln pole, about 15 feet from the top. The drooping streamer furnished the opposition a fine opportunity to twit their oppohents, and they embraced it. On Tuesday morning, some daring individual ascended-the role, cut off the broken part and spliced it to the main pole again.

Accident.—On Saturday morning last, Cyus Bates, engineer on Express Train west, was Jaid, by coming in contact with a water tank which stands near the track. He was leaving directly from New York, and bought from fire er the side of his engine looking back at a BRUSSELS, ALL WOOL, INGRAIN, LIST, HEMP AND lessing train, when the tank struck him just behind the ear, knocking him off the engine and His stock of cutting an ugly gash in his scalp but doing no injury to his skull. TUSTICE TO THE SOUTH.

A NEW BOOK and one destined to create a sensation THE SUNNY SOUTH

OR THE SOUTHERNER AT HOME. Bmbracing Five Years experience of a Northern Governess, in the land of Sugar, Rice, Tobacco and Cotton. Edited by Prof. J. II, INGRAHAM, of Mississippi. Handsomely bound in one volume, 12 mo. 526 pages. Price $1.25. Literary Notices from the Press throughout the Country. THE SUNNY SOUTH .- This book is composed of a series of Itte Sunnt South.—This book is composed of a series of letters, written in an interesting style of a narrative, embodying the most romantic features of social life on different kinds of plantations. We can bear teafimony, from our own personal observation of similar scen s in the South, to their truthfulness as here depicted. They are portrayed in a vivid, interesting style, and we would like to see the lands of thousands of deceived moule, who book in the hands of thousands of deceived people, who have no personal knowledge either of Southerners or Southern life, except what they have gained from partizan jour nals, or those who intentionally have written to deceive.— Daily Republic. Buffulo, N. Y. THE SUNNY SOUTH .- This volume is in the form of letters. They give, so far as we can judge, faithful pictures of Southern life, and are penned without prejudice. They present scenes quite different from an 'Uncle Tom's Cabin,'

the pictures presented here are quite graphic, and we think the portraits painted are in very nearly natural colors.— THE SUNNY SOUTH.—We have rarely peoped within the covers of a more appetizing volume. Although not inten-ded as an answer to the foul untruths in the Uncle Tom trash of the last ten years, it nevertheless does unmercifully hurl back to their source all lies of such a nature, and we are glad to believe that the book will be read in thousands of northern homes. The south also sho it benignantly, for independent of its t uthulness and in-tegrity it is one of the liveliest and most entertaining books of the year .- Times, Greensboro, N. C. THE SUNNY SOUTH.—The enterprising publisher, Geo. G. Evans, Philadelphia, of Gift Book notoriety, is weekly issuing new works of interest, and spreading them over the country, and his system of transacting business may be looked upon as an institution, for diffusing knowledge unequalled by any in the country. We commend this book THE SUNNY SOUTH .- This is a captivating volume, strong-s with her theme, and she carries the interest of the reader along with her, as she, in her anusing of hand style, de-lineates the peculiarities of a Southern home.—Press. THE SUNNY SOUTH.—Whatever bears the name of Professor Ingraham is sure to involve the elements of striking effect and a wide popular on rency : and this is just the case with "The Sunny South, or the Southerner at Home," which appears from the press of G. G. Evans, under the editorship of the graphic Professor. It is vivid in style, keenly observant, interesting in plot, and in purpose and manner it obviously springs from a warm heart, and will be as warmly welcomed by a host of readers.—New Yorker.

ALL IN BOTTLES.

I beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of the United States to the above Wines and Liquors, imported by Upoleho Wolfe, of New York, whose mane is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated Schiedam Schapps. Mr. Wolfe, in his letter to me, speak ing of the purity of his Wines and Liquiors, says: "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in the city of New York, that all the Brandy and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported. and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax, and a fac simile of his signature of the certificate. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. ENORMOUS BUSINESS FOR ONE NEW YORK MERCHANT.—We re happy to inform our fellow-citizens that there 's one place in our city where the physician, anotherary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will well repay any stronger or citizen to visit Udolpho Wolfe's extensive wareonse. Nos. 18, 20 and 22. Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 nd 21. Marketfield street. His stock of Schnapps on hand eady for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases: the Brandy, some ten thousand cases—Vintages of 1836 to 1856; and ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whiskey, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellars, filled with Brandy. Wine, &c., in casks, under Custom-Flouse key, ready for bettling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps lust year amounted o one hundred and eighty thousand dozon, and we hope in ss than two years he may be equally successful with his Brandles and Wines.

His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wings and Liquors medical use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe. until every Apothecary in the land make up their mind place it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors.

We understand that Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors Such a man, and such a merchant should be sustained against his tens of thousands of oppo-nents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitations us alike to human health and happiness. Prop. O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir:—In the latter part of the year 1652, while attending the State and National Law School of the State of New York, my hair, from a cause unknown to me. commenced falling off very rapidly, so that in the short space of six months, the whole upper part of my scalp was almost entirely bereft of its covering, and much of the remaining portion upon the side and back part of my head shortly after became gray, so that you will not be surprised when I tell you that upon my return to the be surprised when I tell you that upon my return to the State of Indiana, my more casual acquaintances were not so much at a loss to discover the cause of the change in my so much at a loss to discover the cause of the change in my appearance, as my more intimate acquaintances were to recognize me at all.

I at once made application to the most skillful physicians in the country, but, receiving from them no assurance that my hair could again be restored. I was forced to be a madually to me a most mathematical in the letters. that my hair could again be restored. I was forced to become reconciled to my fate, until, fortunately, in the latter part of the year 1857, your Restorative was recommen edto me by a druggist as being the most reliable Hair Restorative in use. I tried one bottle, and found to my great satisfaction that it was producing the desired effect. Since that time I have used seven dollars' worth of your Restorative, and as a result have as rich cost of your Restorative, and as a result, have a rich coat of very soft black hair, which no money can buy.

As a mark of my gratitude for your labor and skill in mended its use to many of my friends and acquaintances, who, I am happy to inform you, are using it with like effect.

Very respectfully, yours,

A. M. LATTA,

Attorney and Counselier at Law.
