SLEEP.

O, magic sleep! O comfortable bird, That broodest o'er the troubled sea of the mind, Till it is hush'd and smooth! O unconfined...

Select Miscellany.

A HEROINE OF SEVENTY-SIX. BY MRS. M. A. DENISON.

I don't like to hear the noise of these hammer. The dull song of laboring pick breaks upon the ear with monotonous regularity...

READ ALOUD.

Reading aloud is one of those exercises which combines mental and muscular effort, and hence has a double advantage. It is an accomplishment which may be cultivated alone...

OLD LETTERS.

Never burn kindly letters.—It is so pleasant to read them over when the ink is brown, the paper yellow with age, and the hands that traced the friendly words, lie folded over the hearts that prompted them...

OUR TURN MUST COME.

"Generation after generation," says a fine writer, "have felt, as we feel, and their lives were as active as our own. They passed like a vapor, while Nature wore the same of beauty as when her Creator commanded her to be."...

A TERRIBLE ROMANCE.

Chapter I.—She stood beside the altar, with a wreath of orange buds upon her head—upon her back the sweetest kind of duds—her lover stood beside her with white kids and dicky clean—the last was twenty years old, the first was seventeen...

THE MAN WHO DON'T PAY THE PRINTER.

May he be shod with lightning, and compelled to walk over plains of quagmire! May every day of his life be more despotic than the day of Algiers. May he have sore eyes, and a chestnut burr for an eye-stone...

NEW METHOD OF DEPRIVING ANIMALS OF LIFE.

The means proposed for instantly depriving animals of life consists in the introduction of air into the venous system. The effect of this upon vital action was accidentally discovered by Doctor Auber during a surgical operation...

INTERVIEW.—A lawyer built himself an office.

in the form of an hexagon, or six square. The novelty of the structure attracted the attention of some Irishmen who were passing; they made a full stop and viewed it critically. The lawyer, somewhat disgusted at their curiosity, lifted up the window, put his head out and addressed them: "What do you stand there gazing at my office for—do you think it's a church?"...

POWER IN A WOMAN'S EYE.

A lady, when the conversation turned on dynamics, said the late George Stephenson, the celebrated engineer: "What do you consider the most powerful force in nature?" "I will soon answer that question," said he, "it is the eye of a woman; (the lady with affection on a man) should he be the kindest, the most devoted of the earth, the recollection of that look will bring him back."

"What do you think of that?"

"What do you think of that?" "What do you think of that?" "What do you think of that?" "What do you think of that?"

ABSTEMIOUS DIET.

Said a young gentleman to a distinguished medical practitioner in Philadelphia, "Doctor, what do you do for yourself when you have a turn of the headache, or other slight attacks?" "Go without my dinner," was the reply. "And if that does not cure you, what then?" "Go without my breakfast. My physicians seldom take medicines unless I use them in my families, for we know that abstinence is better, but we cannot make our patients believe it."

A YOUNG LADY.

Intely, asked a gentleman the meaning of the word surrogate; and the gentleman explained it to her, as a gate through which parties have to pass to get married. "Then, I imagine," said the lady, "that it is a corruption of surrogate-gate." "You are right," said the gentleman, "as woman is an abbreviation of surrogate-gate."
