RAILROAD CONDUCTOR ARRESTED .--- We learn from the Harrisburg Telegraph that Andrew Roloff, formerly a Conductor on the Penn'a R. R., and who was Conductor of the train which ran into a crowd of people at Huntingdon a few weeks since, and killed two men and injured another, was recently arrested in Harrisburg, charging him with manslaughter. The Coroner's jury which investigated the affair at Huntingdon rendered a verdict that the accident was the result of carelessness on the part of the employees who had charge of the train, and warrants were issued for the arrest of Andrew Roloff, the conductor, and Wm. Armstrong, the engineer. Armstrong has not yet been arrested. How a case can be made out against Roloff we cannot imagine.

P. S. Since penning the above we learn that Mr. Armstrong, the engineer, went to Huntingdon and surrendered himself to the authorities, after which he gave bail in the sum of $2,000 for his appearance at next Court and was discharged. Mr. Roloff also gave bail and was

THE SUNNY SOUTH OR THE SOUTHERNER AT HOME,

Embracing Five Years experience of a Northern Governess in the land of Sugar, Rice, Tobacco and Cotton. Edited by Prof. J. H. INGRAHAM, of Mississippi. Handsomely bound in one volume, 12 mo. 526 pages. Price $1.25. Literary Notices from the Press throughout the Country. THE SUNNY SOUTH.—This book is composed of a series of etters, written in an interesting style of a narrative, em-sodying the most romantic features of social life on different kinds of plantations. We can bear testimony, from our own personal observation of similar scenes in the South to their truthfulness as here depicted. They are portrayed in a vivid, interesting style, and we would like to see the book in the hands of thousands of deceived people, who have no personal knowledge either of Southerners or South-ern life, except what they have gained from partizan jour nals, or those who intentionally have written to deceive Daily Republic, Buffulo, N. Y.

The Sunny South.—This volume is in the form of letters

They give, so far as we can judge, faithful pictures of Southern life, and are penned without prejudice. They present scenes quite different from an 'Uncle Tom's Cabin,' he pictures presented here are quite graphic, and we think cortraits painted are in very nearly natural colors,—on Daily Bec. THE SUNNY SOUTH.—We have rarely peeped within the covers of a more appetizing volume. Although not intended as an answer to the foul untruths in the Uncle Tom hash of the last ten years, it nevertheless does unmerciful y hurl back to their source all lies of such a nature, and we are glad to believe that the book will be read in thousands of northern homes. The south also should take to it benignantly, for independent of its truthfulness and in-tegrity it is one of the liveliest and most entertaining books f the year.—Times, Greensboro, N. C.

The Sunny South.—The enterprising publisher, Geo. G Evans, Philadelphia, of Gift Book notoricty, is weekly is sting new works of interest, and spreading them over the country, and his system of transacting business may be looked upon as an institution, for diffusing knowledge, un-equalled by any in the country. We commend this book to all.—Daily News. : This Sunny South.—This is a captivating volume, strong-y illustrative of Southern life. Sole Agent for Philadelphia.

Read the following from the New York Courier: ENORMOUS BUSINESS FOR ONE NEW YORK MERCHANT.-We o happy to inform our fellow-citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this mer-chant's extensive business, although it will well repay any strunger or citizen to visit Udolpho Wolfe's extens . 18, 20 and 22, Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21. Marketfield street. His stock of Schnapps on hand thousand cases; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases—Vin-tages of 1836 to 1856; and ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whiskey, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellars, filled with Brandy. Wine, &c., in casks, under Custom-House key, ready for bettling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope less than two years he may be equally successful with his

Brandies and Wines.

His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medical use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, until every Apothecary in the land make up their mind to discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves, and re-place it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors. We understand that Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a man, and ned against his tens of thousands of oppo nents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitati ruinous alike to human health and happiness. Sept. 13, 1860-6m.is.

Battle Carre, Mich., Dec. Zist, 1889.

Proc. Wood:—Thee wilt please accept a line to inform thee that the hair on my head all fell off over twenty years ago, caused by a complicated chronic disease, attended with an eruption on the head. A continual course of suffering through life having reduced me to a state of dependence, I have not been able to obtain stuff for caps, neither have I have not been able to them up in sonsoneness of which my head have not been able to obtain stuff for caps, neither have I been able to do them up, in consequence of which my head has suffered extremely from cold. This induced me to pay Briggs & Hodges almost the last cent I had on earth for a two dollar bottle of thy Hair Restorative about the first of August last. I have faithfully followed the directions and the bald spot is now covered with hair thick and black, though short, it is coming in all over my head. Feeling centident that another large bottle would restore it entirely and permanently, I feel anxious to persevere in its use, and being destitute of means to purchase any more. I would ask thee if thee wouldst not be willing to send me an order on these agents for a bottle, and receive to thyself the scripture declaration—" the reward is to those that are kind to the willing to the series of the claration—"the reward is to those that are kind to the wi-dow and the fatherless." Thy friend, Thy friend, SUSANNAH KIRBY.

LIGONIER, Noble Co., Ind., Feb. 5th, 1859.

PROV. O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir:—In the latter part of the year 1852, while attending the State and National Law School of the State of New York, my hair, from a cause unknown to me, commenced falling off very rapiely, so that in the short space of six months, the whole upper part of my scalp was almost entirely beyeft of its covering, and much of the remaining portion upon the side and back part of my head shortly after became gray, so that you will not be surprised when I tell you that upon my return to the State of Indiana, my more casual acquaintances were not LIGONIER, Nuble Co., Ind., Feb. 5th, 1859. I at once made application to the most skillful physicians in the country, but, receiving from them no assurance that my hair could again be restored. I was forced to become reconciled to my fate, until, fortunately, in the latter part of the year 1857, your Restorative was recommended to me by a druggist, as being the most reliable Hair Resterative in use. I tried one by the rative in use. I tried one bottle, and found to my great satisfaction that it was producing the desired effect. Since that time I have used seven dollars' worth of your Restorative, and as a result, have a rich coat of very soft black hale, which he money on here. hair, which no money can buy.
