DIXIE'S LAND.—In order to gratify the friends of that popular air, "Dixie," we have the pleasure of giving the original words of that song, and do so in the hope that the voice instead of the wind may be more thoroughly cultivated: I wish I was in the land of cotton, Old times dar an' not forgotten; Look away! look away! look away! Dixie Land, In Dixie land where I was born, Early on one frosty mornin' ...

MISCELLANEOUS. THE AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGES.—There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into our own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from Greek, signifying the head, has become a household word. ...

THE ONLY PREPARATION THAT HAS STOOD THE TEST OF YEARS. AND GROWS MORE POPULAR EVERY DAY. BATTLE CREEK, MICH., Dec. 21st, 1890. Prof. WOOD.—This will please, I am glad to learn that the last on my list fell off over twenty years ago, caused by a complicated chronic disease, attended with an eruption on the head. A continual course of sweating through the pores, and a state of depression, have not been able to obtain relief for years, neither have I been able to do them up. In consequence of which my head has suffered extremely from cold. This included no topy Bragg & Hottel's until the last year I had on earth for a two dollar bottle of your Hair Restorative and the first of August I had full relief from the disease, and my head and hair were in perfect health. ...
