Where parties are unknown to us, our rule for advertising is to require payment in advance, or a guarantee from known persons. It is therefore useless for all such to send us advertisements offering to pay at the end of three or six months. Where advertisements are accompanied with the money, whether one, five or ten dollars, we will give the advertiser the full benefit of cash rates.

S. M. PETTINGILL & CO., 10 State street, Boston, are the Agents for-the Alloona Tribune, and the most influential and largest circulating Newspapers in the United States and the Canadas. They are authorized to contract for us at our lowest rates.

THANKS .- Our thanks are due Messrs. Blair, Hall and Roller for public documents.

OUR SENATOR. - We notice that Col. L. W. Hall, Senator from this district, has taken a position in reference to the Union, which meets with the approbation of his friends, and his sentiments are, to a great extent, those entertained by the people of his district, consequently he has remained true to his constituents, a charge that can not be laid at the door of all members of that body. His remarks during the debate on a resolution offered by Mr. McClure, of Franklin, to refer that part of the Governor's Message which referred to National affairs to gence they furnish the people of the ability of the Judiciary Committee, to which Mr. II. objected and advocated a Special Committee, were impartial and statesmanlike, as were also his remarks during the debate which the introduction of Mr. Smith's resolutions called up. Col H. has placed himself right with his constituents, and shown that he has more love for the Union than for party, and that he does not consider it beneath the dignity of men when they find they have done wrong to acknowledge their error and endeavor to make reparation.

OUR DIFFICULTY SPAIN'S OPPORTUNITY. -A pavate letter from Madrid, writes Malakoff from Paris, speaks of the joy that reigns there in podoubtedly either lost or destroyed, and will, the refere, never be presented for payment. The claims against the State.

SOLON BORLAND WAKES UP JOHN BELL SO lon Borland made a speech in Nashville, Thursday night. He said, in the course of his remarks, that the "Constitutional Union party." and its acknowledged champion, John Bell, had held the doctrine that the election of Lincoln would be a just cause for the dissolution of the Unim. John Bell, who was in the audience. rose and denied the charge. Upon this, says the National Democrat, the cheers " rang again and again through that vast hall, satisfying us of the predominant Union feeling in that assem- and the interest on which some has not been blage-notwithstanding the Disunion element mustered its strength." Mr. Bell before he sat down, expressed the hope and conviction that all would yet be well with the Union, and this declaration was received with a great shout of applause. The country will be glad to hear this from Mr. Bell and the city of Nashville.

REFUSE TO CARRY WARLIKE STORES .- The Hudson River Railroad Company now refuse transportation to all caunon and other arms and warlike stores destined to South Carolina .-Quite a number of cannon were offered at Troy on Friday morning, and peremptorily refused. They will consequently have to seek some other mode of transportation. The "treason" charge of Judge Smalley, it is presumed, has frightend ed them.

LOCK HAVEN AND TYROXE RAILROAD. - This road is again advertised for sale on the 29th day of January, 1861, at the Merchant's Ex. paid comparatively nothing. If this company can be still further favored by the Legislature, change, Philadelphia. On the 27th of last November it was sold for the sum of $55,000.-Mr. Samuel Brady, the former contractor being the purchaser. This gentleman failing to comply with the requisitions of the sale. It will be submitted for bids at the Merchants' Exchange, Philadelphia, on the 29th of this month.

What editer can not say the same. Really we are sorry to loose the Union from our exchange list, and its handsome editor from the corps editorial .-We hope our loss will be his guin.

ENLARGED .- The Huntingdon Globe made its appearance, a few weeks since enlarged, and, 72, and if, as the Governor declares, the busiin our opinion, much improved. Philadelphia Sunday Atlas, shows very plainly, we think, that there is no longer any necessity for burdening and crippling the Pennsylvania ter, and it should not be continued upon our Tax. We hope and confidently expect to see | wealth was in need of money, such extraordinathis tax removed from this Road during the in order to pay the State debt, to impose such a thening her people by heavy taxes on their proptax on one road, would it not be still more adducing the debt to impose a like tax on all other | then, should a large portion of our local and roads? Is there anything like justice in the western trade be taxed? Why should provipresent discrimination? Read the following, think over it, and then answer :--

In his last message to the Legislature, the lovernor comments at considerable length on the subject of the Tonnage-Tax due, as he contends, from the Pennsylvania Rail Road Company, and which has remained unpaid for a period of two years and a half. It is but just to this company to state, before commenting on the portion of the message referring to this subject, that the refusal to pay this tax has not been on account of a disposition to defraud the State out of any revenue justly due her, or Advertising Agents, 119 Nassau street, New York, and through a want of ability to meet all its legal obligations. The Company, has been advised, by the best legal authority, that the tax imposed upon the business over their road is unconstitutional: and that, since the sale of the main line of public improvements, of which it became the purchaser, the tax bas, no equitable existence, even so far as the authority of the Commonwealth goes. The Tourage Tax has, therefore, been withheld on principle—a fact which the enemies of that great improvement most carefully ignore in commenting upon the case pending between the State and the company.

Governor Packer states, that during the past three years, the indebtedness of the Commonwealth has been reduced the sum of $2,286, 882,15, and that, during the same time, all the ordinary liabilities of the State have been promptly met. Mr. Slifer, the State Treasurer, also informs the Legislature that " with orlinary receipts, and economical appropriations, three-quarters of a million of the State debt.can be paid annually." In these figures the two distinguished gentlemen agree; and the intellithe Commonwealth to pay her debt thus promptly and rapidly, from ordinary sources of revenue, s highly gratifying. The Governor still further says: "Whon it is remembered that for the last three year the tax on real and personal estate has been but two and a half mills on the dollar, while from 1844 to 1857 it was three mills—that for the just two years and six months he State has received no part of the tax on tonnage due from the Pernsylvania Rail Road Company, and that since July, 1850, the interest on the bonds held by the State against the Sunbury and Eric Rail Road Company has remained due and unpaid, it is certainly cause for hearty congrutulation that without aid from these importan sources of revenue, so great a reduction of the public debt has been accomplished in comparatively so short a period. The funded debt of the State is now less than it has been since 1842, and the unfunded and floating debt, which at that time amounted to upwards of two millions of dollars, has been almost entirely redeemed. It is now reduced to $120,721.78—and of this sum more than minery-line thousand dollars consist of relief notes, most of which are upsand dollars consist of relief notes, most of which are upsand dollars consist of relief notes, most of which are upsand dollars. doubtedly either last or destroyed, and will, the refore, nov-

Here we have the highest authority for the announcement, that the revenue derived from and without the interest due on bonds to the the conquest of the Halls of the Montesums, he her obligations, is derived from the two-and-ahad better commence his march before the half mill tax on real and personal estate, and states, not at a "fair and just valuation," but more dangerous obstacles than those existing at "from fifty to sixty cents on the dollar probably less"—the wants of the Treasury, in the opinion of the Board of Revenue Commission rs, not requiring any higher estimate. From a review of these facts the deduction is nevitable, and forces itself upon any fair mind, that the revenue derived from the tonnage-tax can readily be dispensed with, and the State still remain in a most prosperous financial con- and returned to York, Pa.

The Governor limself admits as much, even while he shows some hostility to the Pennsylvania Rail Road Company, because he argues to prove that "a liberal policy on the part of the Government" toward the Sunbury and Erie Rail Road Company, which owes the three-andn-half millions due for the sale of the canals, paid for a year and a half, "will promote alike the interests of the Commonwealth and the railroad company." In other words, the Legislature can release that company from the payment of this interest, amounting to $175,000 per annum, and by so doing "promote the inerests of the Commonwealth." This, we believe, is true, and if it is true of the Sunbury and Erie, it is equally true of the Pennsylvania Railroad. Both these improvements are of vast importance to the business prosperity of the Commonwealth, and both should be encouraged by the governing power. It is hard, however, to make a case for the Sunbury and Erie that will not apply with double force to the Pennsylvania. The last named company pays the State promptly for the main line of canals and railroads which it purchased, and pays the interest due on that purchase with the strictest punctuality. It received no aid from the State in the construction of its road, and it has paid taxes into the treasury of the Commonwealth amounting to over a million of dollars in the short space of nine years. The Sunbury and Erie has, as the Governor says, "already been largely aided by the State," and in return has reasonable that the Pennsylvania Railroad can also be relieved from an onerous burthen.

He savs: The rapid increase of private banks throughout the State makes it eminently right that they should be placed under proper legislative restrictions, and that the large amount of capital thus employed should be made to contribute its fair proportion to the revenues of the Common wealth. Their business, in the aggregate, is now believed wealth. Their business, in the aggregate, is now believed to amount to a sum almost, if not quite, equal to the whole business of the regularly chartered banks; and yet it is entirely unrestricted, and, with the exception of a merely nominal license tax, is free from taxation. This is unjust to every other class of tax paying citizens, and especially so to the banking institutions holding charters from the Commonwealth, for which they have each paid a liberal bonus and are, in addition, subject to a very large tax on bonus, and are, in addition, subject to a very large tax on their dividends. I respectfully commend this subject to the attention of the Legislature.

By reference to the figures in the report of the State Treasurer, it will be seen that the the House of Representatives. revenues from incorporated banks is $338,651,-

> MOVEMENTS IN FLORIDA. - The commander of the Florida forces has telegraphed to the Mayor of New Orleans for two thousand men to aid in the capture of Fort Pickens, now in possession of the United States troops. A large number of volunteers from Mississippi and Alabama are already there to assist in taking the Fort. The Mayor of New Orleans replied to the request for troops from Florida, that 2,000 men could be raised in forty-eight hours, if Florida would equip them. To this the Governor of Florida answered, send immediately. The pilots at Pensacola have been notified not to bring in any United States vessels, under penalty of death. Fort Pickens is expected to surrender to the Florida forces, who have twenty-five heavy guns.

MR. HOLT AND THE CHARLESTON POSTMASTER. An interesting correspondence has taken place between Mr. Holt and the postmaster at Charles-The former first inquired whether, indeed. Governor Pickens had subjected the correspondence of Major Anderson to surveillance. - Postmaster Huger replied that when the communication between the Fort, and the city was first interrupted, distinction was made in two instances between official and private letters for Major Anderson. Since that, he (the postmas-) sent all letters for Fort Sunter under sealed cover. We see from this fact that Governor Pickens, who has, until recently, been our minister in Russia, has there studied despotism with advantage. Mr. Holt has, after receipt of this news written to dir. Huger that, if mail matters are not strictly and punctually delivered at the Fort; the mail in the State will be stopped altogether. And, as everybody knows. Mr. Holt is the man to keep his word. Let, therefore, Mr. Pickens be on his guard. He is st yet in Russia. Stop the mail now, and the Independent Republic of South Carolina" will be as much benighted and in darkness as the interior of Africa or Austria. The authorities cannot exist very long by stealing and robbing the property of the citizens of the State; for it is downright robbery to compel Governor Aiken, as they have done, to pay, against his will, $40,000; under the threat that his whole estate the students of the University of Virginia. this "Liberty and Independence."

The following we think may be justly set down to the credit of the Secessionists of the Southern States :-

On Sunday, the 30th ult., William English, a wealthy planter of Monroe county, Ala., in a fit of insanity cut the throats of three of his childeen, and then killed himself in the same manner. A fourth child was saved by a negro girl snatching it up and running from the house.

Mr. Rhett, in the South Carolina Senate, on Friday, stated that the expenses of that State for the comitig year were estimated at two millions, and the total resources amounted to only one million five hundred and fifty five thousand 20,945. Not so wide a difference as was expected.

Had he known that the steamer desired to leave him, he would doubtles have returned the fire of Port Moultrie, and thus commenced active hostilities against the rebellious South Carolinians.

Mr. Cobb endeavored to conceul the facts, and would give no satisfactory information. Mr. Thomas promised to answer the call made for this purpose, but did not, and then it was brought to the President's notice, which was one of the causes of his sudden retirement. Gen. BOHRER'S PRACTICAL CALCULATOR. PRACTICAL CALCULATOR. PRACTICAL CALCULATOR. PRACTICAL CALCULATOR. PRACTICAL CALCULATOR. DOHRER'S PRACTICAL CALCUock of Plain Rules and Calculations for Business Ope rations, by Martin M. Robrer, Practical Surveyor and Conveyancer. New Edition, published by J. B. Lippingot & Co., Philadelphia.

This work contains 2014 pages, and upwards of 600 Rules and Examples, entirely and thoroughly practical, such as arise, every day in the common pursuits of Business. It has already passed through a number of editions in rapid speckesion, and is pronounced by all classes of business men to be the handlest book of reference, pertaining to calculations, that has ever been published.

Every example in the book is worked out in full and stated in a plain manner, so that when a parallel case arises, those referring to the work will find no difficulty in solving it; in a word, the general arrangement of the CALCULA TOR is simple, that any one who knows how to add, subtract multiply and divide, can easily solve any ordinary example that arises in business, or arrive at the true result of any estimate required.

The chief aim of the author has been to eachew theory and philosophy in figures, siming only at facts and simplicity, believing that business men care little about spending city, believing that business men care into about spending time in discussing the philosophy of rules, or the science of figures, deeming it sufficient for their purpose to be able at a moment; by reference, to arrive at the true result. The CALCULATOR differs in this respect from all other Arita-

THE WORK TREATS OF THE Measurement of Land, of Lumber, of Brick and Brick Work, of stone and stone work, of grain and grain bins, of coaland coal bins, of wood, of solids, of liquids, of circular, square or irregular vessels, of cistorns and ing, of plasterer's, painter's, glazier's, paver's, plamber's, paper hanger's and upholsterers' work. It treats of currency and of foreign and domestic exchange, of the decimal system, of reduction and its extended application to mal system, of reduction and its extended application to business, of simple and compound interest, and their anire application to business transactions, with the laws and langes governing and regulating the same, together with a commercial forms—of legal tender, of partia payment on notes, of banking and bank discount, of equaof payment and of partnershipaccounts, of same summer f taxes, of weights and measures, of square and cubic measure, of the square reet and its application to business of surfaces, of excavation, and of many other important practical matters not within the scope of an advertisement

IT IS JUST THE BOOK FOR THE Farmer, the merchant, the mechanic, the artizan or the professional man. It has proven a valuable auxiliary to the lawyer, the justice of the peace, the conveyancer, and real estate broker, to the massessor, the banker, the ter and bricklayer, to the stonemason and the plasterer, to the paper hanger and upholsterer, to the paver and the tiler, &c., &c., each and all will find it adapted to their vafolia wants better than any book published.
