We coughed steadily and laborous-ly for one whole week, in hopes of tiring it out, but it was no go. In fact it seemed rather to improve by practice and to have acquired strength, potency and distressibility by the operation. In this state of the siege, we coughed our way to Keyser's. 140 Wood street, procured a fifty sent bottle of the Pectoral, took it according to directions, and in forty eight hours we were master of the field, the ensmy having unconditionally surrendered after a brief but unequal conflict with so formidable an adversary as Keyser's Cough Pectural.—Brownsville.Clipper, Dec. 14th, 1868.
