

ALTOONA, PA. THURSDAY JUNE 13, 1861.

Where parties are known to be, our office has the pleasure to receive orders for the publication of advertisements...

S. M. PETTINGILL & CO., Advertising Agents, 111 Nassau Street, New York.

Death of Stephen A. Douglas—Since our last issue, a great man has fallen, a bright light has gone out, and a loyal nation mourns the departure of one whose conduct could be only surpassed at this critical juncture.

CAUTION TO SOLDIER LETTER-WRITERS.—The following extract from a letter written by an officer high in command, is worthy the special attention of all our volunteers.

AN ENGAGEMENT.—The Philadelphia Edition of Tuesday evening, contains an account of an engagement on Monday last between the Federal troops of Fort Mifflin and a rebel battery at Great Bethel.

STILL LATER.—A telegraphic dispatch to the New York Herald this (Wednesday) morning, says: Gen. Butler has captured the battery at Great Bethel and taken 1,000 rebel prisoners.

President Judgments.—Correspondence between the president of the Bar of the Judicial District of Philadelphia.

LATE NEWS.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—A reliable telegram, whose name is prudently withheld but in whose statements implicit reliance is placed here, was at Harper's Ferry within twenty-four hours. He was informed that Jeff, Davis, Beauregard, and Wigfall had been at Harper's Ferry within a few days.

It is the opinion of some of our experienced military officers here that the troops will attempt to evacuate Harper's Ferry on the approach of the Federal troops, but the very fact of their retreat being cut off will suggest to them the necessity of a desperate struggle for victory.
