OUR ARMY CORRESPONDENCE.

CAMP CHAMBERS,
CHAMBERSBURG JUNE 8, 1861.

MESSRS. MCCREA & DERR—Gents:—since my last you are aware that our Encampment has been changed from York, to this place. We arrived here on the 29th ult, and were quarted in the Court House where we remained until the Saturday morning following, when we took up our line of march for our present quarters, situated three miles from town. I cannot, in this connection, pass by the handsome and kind treatment received by the members of Company B. from the citizens of Chambersburg while they were stationed there. Indeed, the ladies excelled themselves, in providing for their wants while they were detailed as a picked guard, through town, to keep down disturbances, and drunken soldiers, &c. The boys were in great ecstacies.

On the 2nd inst, Lieut. GARDNER was sent out with a squad of men, to capture a supposed spy, who had been prowling about the different Camps for several days. The Lieutenant surrounded a house in the expedition with the impression that he was there; but the bird had flown. After chasing him through the country for some time, he was finally captured by Lieut. CLARK, and three of Capt. STINER'S men.—He was then taken to town, since then I have heard nothing of him.

On Tuesday the 4th inst, the Scott Legion arrested two men belonging to Company E., U. S. Cavalry, now Greencastle, some seven miles from this. They were out on picket. The men in question were quartered in Camp McClure, and having received a pass came out to town, took off their uniform, put on citizens' dress, and made tracks for the South. They were taken to town and lodged in jail.

On Saturday the 1st inst, an affray took place in the suburbs of town, between two soldiers and a negro. It appears that the latter kept a low "whiskey mill," and the former went there to refresh themselves with "Kill-me-quick," and were refused admittance. They then broke open the door, when they were fired upon by the negro.—The shot took effect in their legs. The news of the scrimmage reaching the ears of their Company, the darkey was pursued and killed. Upon a post mortem examination five balls were extracted from his body. He was also run through with a sword. A private of the 2nd Regiment received a shot in the thigh while the tragedy was being enacted.

There has been several fatal cases of spotted or malignious fever among the soldiers of the 10th Regiment, stationed at Camp Slifer. This disease, I have been informed, carries the victim off in about twenty-four hours. The cases however, have been few, not so extensive as newspaper reporters have made them. There are several of our Company sick; but none of them seriously so. The change of life has much to do with these illnesses, and are to be expected to a certain degree. Dissolute habits and exposure, have their result in diseases of a more serious nature.

Yesterday morning the first division of the troop stationed at Camp McClure marched south. It was composed of four Companies of U. S. Cavalry, the Philadelphia troop, two Companies of regular artillery, acting as infantry, under the command of Capt. Doubleday the Sixth Regiment, Col. Davis regiment, and another, the number of which I do not remember. The two Companies of regulars were in Fort Sumpter, when in was assaulted by the rebels. This morning the third division marched in the same direction. It consisted of the 7th, 8th, and 10th, Regiments encamped at Camp Slifer and the Scott Legion.

The 2nd Division consists of the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd Regiments and the Irish Brigade, I think the beginning of next week, will suffice for our present quarters, and we will follow the advanced columns. There are now in the borders of Franklin County, and close upon the Maryland line, between 16,000 and 17,000 troops, and from what I can learn an army of not less than 20,000 men will move upon and surround Harper's Ferry. The troops are all eager to have a brush with the enemies of the Republic, and your readers may be assured, that the sons of the Keystone State will acquit themselves on the field of battle.

Our present encampment is located in a most delightful section of this county. On every hand, the eye rest upon richly cultivated fields, laden with the various cereals, and promising an abundant harvest. The buildings, houses and barns, are neat and well constructed, giving every evidence of wealth, contentment and happiness. The people are loyal and patriotic, and are kind to the soldiers. In our Camp we are bountifully supplied with a stream of pure limestone water, sufficient for cooking, drinking and aquatic purposes. There is a large creek, a few hundred yards from us, bearing some outlandish Indian name, which your correspondent cannot spell, and dearly pronounce, where the regiments can wash. The only method I can adopt to give you some clue, as to spelling and pronouncing this name, is to write, "Canteen-goojy."

I regret exceedingly to mention the fact, that slanderous reports have reached your place, in regard to Capt. SHINK and Lieut. GARDNER, relative to the distribution of certain presents sent by the citizens of your place, for the benefit of Company B. and E. These stories are a web of falsehoods from the centre to circumference. Both gentlemen are too high minded and honorable to be guilty of any misapplication of the gifts of a kind and loyal people.—The person who invented and put them forth in your town, will shortly reap the first of his evil speaking.

Our company now practises firing, once a day, with ball cartridge, distance 100 yards. Yesterday Capt. Wayne, made the best shot having put one buckshot in the paper and the bullet a little to the left of it. The shooting, the Captain said, was very good for the fruits time. It was mostly in line.

In behalf of the officers and members of Company B. I acknowledge the receipt of several invoices of creature comforts, from the patriotic ladies of your town. To-day we received a box of "Havelocks," for Companies B. and E. from the "Patriot Daughters" of Altoona. They have been divided, and distributed to the members. They are a comfortable institution in the broiling sun, and their arrival was timely, and the gift very acceptable. The Borough of Altoona, I have no fear in saying, has surpassed any other town in the Juniata Valley, in its attentions to the wants of those who have left home and friends, to battle for the "gorgeous ensign of the Republic," and for the perpetuity of the best Government the world has ever seen. That they are held in grateful remembrance by it, would scarcely convey to them an idea of the feeling animating our hearts. In memory they shall ever retain a place, and indeed, we should be recreant to every principle of honor did we not hold your citizens in high esteem. They have treated their soldiers as gentlemen, and not as paupers and the offscouring of the earth. I wish I could say as much for some other places along the Juniata.

All the troops here will move down upon Harper's Ferry next week, and the rebels will find in the iron men of Pennsylvania "foemen worthy of their steel." They have ridiculed the pretensions and military sagacity of Gen. Scott, but they will find ere long, that venerable and illustrious soldier has completely circumvented them. The Secessionists have played the game of brag all along, and now they will find that fabric not in the constitution of Northern men, and that they will realize this fact to their sorrow, will be evident to the whole country in less than a fortnight.

Your correspondent is indebted to Col. MCCLURE'S estimable lady for an India rubber blanket and a "Havelock." Also, to the Senior Editor's old friend Mrs. GRAY for many acts of kindness. These are Juniata ladies, and have shown unremitting in their attentions to those who hail from their native county. The Colonel has a most delightful residence, a half mile from town, which he is now beautifying at considerable expense. There are no kinder or more obliging persons in the State than those of Col McClure's household. But hail!
A. J. G.

Celebration of the Fourth of July.

Pursuant to a call, a large and enthusiastic meeting of the citizens of Altoona and vicinity assembled at Lowther's Hall on Tuesday evening, the 4th inst., for the purpose of taking some action in relation to this proper celebration of the coming anniversary of our national Independence.

Geo. B. Cramer, Esq., was called to the chair, and S. M. Woodkok was chosen Secretary.

Mr. Cramer, on taking the chair, stated the object of the meeting, and urged the present necessity of a "Grand Union Celebration, irrespective of parties, either religious or political.

S. W. Woodkok made some remarks. He thought the present deplorable condition of our country demands that the people, from every hill and valley throughout the land, should assemble, on our Nation's Birth Day, and renew, again, our fidelity to the Constitution and the Union.

On motion of Dr. Wm. R. Findley, the Chair, John Shoemaker, Lewis Black, and Jacob Good were authorized to appoint a Committee of Arrangement, consisting of 34 persons chosen from Altoona and Hollidaysburg boroughs, and Blair, Cambria and Huntingdon counties; and that they report at our next meeting.

Meeting held June 8th, 1861. Geo. B. Cramer in the chair, reported the following Committee of Arrangement: Altoona—Wm. C. McCormick, John Hickey, C. Jaggard, C. C. Mason, Geo. B. Cramer, James Kearney, Wm. R. Findley, John Woods, J. G. Adlum, Jacob Hesser, Jacob Good, James Lowther, H. C. Dern, M. T. Dill, Alex. McCormick, Lewis Black and Joseph B. Smith. Hollidaysburg and Gayeport—O. A. Traugh, J. Penn Jones, and D. Caldwell. Tyrone—J. D. Stewart and Caleb Guyer. Tipton—George Hyrrick. Elizabeth Furnace—Martin Bell. Logan Tp.—Judge James Gwin, Martin Runyan and Jas. Hutchison. Huntingdon—Graffius Miller and D. M. Conner. Ebensburg—Hezekiah Hughes and Alex. Mullin, Wilmore—Wm. R. Hughes. Gallitzin—E. Nutter.

The Chairman asked leave to amend his report, by adding the names of B. F. Bell, Samuel Milliken and Dr. R. Clark, of Bell's Mills.

The report as amended was adopted.

On motion, M. T. Dill, Joseph B. Smith, and J. G. Adlum were appointed a Committee to wait on the Burgess and Town Council of Altoona, for an appropriation of $100.00 out of the Borough Treasury, to assist in defraying the expenses of the Celebration.

Dr. Wm. R. Findley submitted a number of resolutions relating to Programme, order of the day, &c., which were read and adopted.

On motion, Resolved, That the proceedings of these meetings be published in all the newspapers of the county.

On motion, adjourned to meet on Friday evening, June 17th, at 8 o'clock.
GEO. B. CRAMER, Pres't.
S. M. WOODKOK, Sec'y.

Proceedings of Council.

Regular meeting June 4th, 1861.

Present—A. A. Smith, President; R. Greenwood, C. R. Hostetter, Daniel Laughman, and N. J. Mervine, Council.

The minutes of last meeting were approved.

A bill of Hall & Neff, for services rendered, was taken up, and, on motion, an order was granted to L. W. Hall for $10.00, for furnishing written opinion, as per special contract.

The following orders were also granted:—One to F. McCauley, for $4.82; to J. H. McDowell, for $8.25; to John Shoemaker, for $15.25; to W. W. Snyder, for $27.50; to Daniel Coyle, for $22.25; to John Haney, for $22.50; to John McCulloch, for $20.75; to John Maloy, for 22.25.

A petition of citizens, asking the making of certain streets, was taken up, and, on motion, was laid on the table.

The bonds of Daniel Laughman, Treasurer, and Joseph K. Ely, Collector, were read and approved.

On motion, adjourned to meet on the first Monday in July, 1861, at 7 o'clock, P. M.—Extract from the Minutes.

LECTURE.—On the evening of the 31st ult., James E. Gifin, A. M., late of the "Chester Valley Type," delivered a lecture in the M. E. Church, on the educational, moral, political and military condition of our country. The attendance was not as large as it should have been, but those who were present gave good attention to the remarks of the speaker, whose effort was directed to impressing upon the minds of his audience the necessity of giving to the rising generation a good education, morally and physically, as well as mentally. For this purpose Mr. G. intends opening a school in this place, if sufficient encouragement be given. We hope our citizens will not let his efforts to open such a school prove a failure.

☞ A tremendous rush of Job work which could not be postponed prevented the issue of our paper last week, consequently the date is wrong on our outside, and a portion of the war news published will be rather old to the readers of daily papers, nevertheless the most part of is interesting and will be new to those who are not so highly favored as our town readers. The loss of the paper as we have frequently said heretofore is our own and will be made up hereafter, we are likely to have some important war news this week, and if so, will lay it before our readers immediately.

THE "STAR-SPANGLED BANNER."—Of course every person has seen the "Star-Spangled Banner" circular, issued by Messrs. Murphy & McPike, who have just opened out, in Ferree & Morrow's old stand, recently occupied by J. Low. They have bought a stock of most excellent goods, at what is now styled "war prices," which means very cheap. From the manner in which the people have been crowding in upon them for the past few days, we think they must be doing a rushing business, and all because they sell "cheap for cash or approved country produce." We know McPike to be one of the most accommodating men this side of sundown.

MORE SOLDIERS.—Within the past week two regiments of troops have passed East over the Pennsylvania R. R. viz.—2d Michigan and 1st Wisconsin Regiments. The Michigan Regiment was commanded by Col. Richards, and numbered 1,065 men. They were equipped in the very best style. The Wisconsin Regiment was composed of 1,000 of the hardiest men we have yet seen. They left Milwaukie at 2 o'clock on Sunday afternoon and arrived in this place at 3 P. M. on Tuesday—just 49 hours later.—Pretty quick transportation of troops. Great institutions are railroads in time of war.

ALTOONA, June 11, 1861.

Messrs Editors:—It has been reported in this place, that the underclothing made up some time since, by the ladies of Altoona, and forwarded to our brave volunteers, was returned to me by those to whom it was sent. This is not correct. The clothing was nicely made by the ladies, and promptly forwarded by me to our men at York. It was most thankfully received by them, and nine cheers were given for the ladies of Altoona.

Truly and Respectfully,
GEO. B. CRAMER.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT.—The continuance of the war must create a great demand, in various ways, for well qualified young men, and as the Iron City Commercial College of Pittsburgh, so extensively known throughout the country for the superior advantages it affords, continues its sessions without interruption throughout the year, young men would do well to prepare themselves at once for business, by a course of training in this popular institution.

ENTERTAINMENT.—Mr. Alex Clark, editor of the Sunday Visitor, will give an Elocutionary Entertainment in Lowther's Hall this (Thursday) evening. He promises something amusing, and those who know the man and have heard him lecture are well aware that he can entertain, amuse and instruct any audience. A small admittance fee will likely be charged to defray expenses.

☞ The junior member of the firm down stairs, has just returned from the east with another fine stock of summer goods which make the "Model Store" look bright and attractive, but what is still better they have been low and are being sold at panic prices. Step in ladies, quick, before the beautiful articles are all carried off.

☞ A new shedule went into operation on the Penn'a railroad on Monday last. It made a number of important changes in the running of the passenger trains, of which travelers should make a note. See Railroad and mail schedule in another column.

☞ Extracts from W. J. B's. letter will be published next week.

Interesting Comparison.

The following table will be found to be very interesting, as showing the relative strength of the free and bond population in the slave States, by the increase and decrease it makes from year to year. The figures were compiled from officials ourses, and are worthy the study of political economist.

CENSUS OF 1860 COMPARED WITH 1850.

	FREE.		SLAVE.
	Increase.	Decrease.	Increase.	Decrease.
Delaware,	21,178			196
Maryland,	107,180			3,180
Virginia.	156,063		18,359	57,467
North Carolina,	81,195
South Carolina,	17,748		17,657
Georgia,	170,504		80,548
Florida,	30,551		22,448
Alabama,	100,383		92,228
Mississippi	68,051		126,816
Louisiana,	163,960		87,711
Texas,	256,220		122,227
Arkansas,	161,526		64,004
Tennessee,	70,505		36,325
Kentucky,	168,799			85,491
Missouri,	463,780			27,543

These figures show that in Kentucky, Missouri, Delaware, Maryland and Virginia slavery is gradually on the decrease—but the increase in the other states far exceeds the decrease in the first named states, which of course, can not effect the aggregate of slavery itself. The increase of free population in several of the states, does not exceed that of the slave, while, the difference in none of the cotton states is very great.

H. FETTINGER, of No. 1 Literary Emporium beg leave to announce to the citizens of Altoona and vicinity, that he has now, and will constantly keep, a full supply of all the School-Books used in this and adjoining districts, which will be sold at from ten to twenty five per cent. less than they can be bought anywhere else in the county. Everything used in the Schools—such as Slates, Pencils, Pens, Inks, Copy Books, Charts, Cards, Rewards of Merit, &c., &c., can always be had at his place of business. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

COL. ELLSWORTH'S LAST SPEECH.—At nine o'clock in the evening, on the 23d of May, having marshalled his Zouaves in line of battle, before marching for Alexandria, our Colonel, says one, thus addressed us:

"Boys, no doubt you felt surprised on hearing my orders to be in readiness at a moment's notice, but I will explain all as far as I am allowed. Yesterday forenoon I understood that a movement was to be made against Alexandria. Of course I was on the qui vive. I went to see Gen. Mansfield, the Commander at Washington, and told him that I would consider it as a personal affront if he would not allow us to have the right of the line, which is our due, as the first volunteer regiment sworn in for the war. All that I can tell you is to prepare yourselves for a nice little sail, and at the end of it a skirmish. Go to your tents, lie down and take your rest till two o'clock when the boat will arrive, and we go forward to victory or death. When we reach the place of destination act as men; do nothing to shame the regiment; show the enemy that you are men as well as soldiers, and that you will treat them with kindness until they force you to use violence. In fact, I want you to kill them with kindness. Go to your tent and do as I tell you."

What Secession Has Done in Texas.

Extract of a letter written by a Marylander to his father-in-law, residing in Baltimore county, dated San Antonia, Texas, April 12, 1861:—"I arrived here last night from the Rio Grande, to which place I had been with a volunteer Company to protect the families on the frontier from the Indians, who have literally desolated the entire State, from San Antonia to the frontier. Every family that has had the means of escaping has fled precipitately, leaving everything behind, and such as were poor and without means of escape, have sought refuge in the fort formerly occupied by the United States troops. This part of Texas, by the withdrawal of government protection, is now overrun by lawless bands of Indians, Mexicans, and prowling American vagabonds, ruin eteging the whole country in the face, and, unless the United States come to our aid, the country is utterly worthless, as stock raisers cannot protect themselves. Alas for secession! Texas, in any event, in this section is done for."

QUEER SCENE AT A FIRE.—The boarding house of a Mrs. Robinson at Chicago, Illinois, was burnt last week, and as the fire caught below, the boarders above had to resort to the roof. The Times says: Four or five women climbed through a chamber window, upon a side roof which joined the house, and were followed by some men, the whole party being in their night clothes, and presenting a decidedly picturesque appearance by the lurid glare of the flames. The ladies succeeded in performing a precarious toilet on the ridge of the roof, but the other individuals retained their primitive costume, and pranced about on their elevated and airy platform in a manner quite affecting to behold. They were no better off on the roof than in the house, for the flames were fast approaching them, and they had no earthly means of descending the three stories wich separated them from the ground. At this juncture, a policeman came to their relief and lowered them down, one by one, with a rope. The male individuals, who stood there sans culotte, were not thus favored. They had to wait until it grew hot under their feet; and after a great fright a ladder from the truck relieved their fears, and they were safely landed.

LOST.—A few evenings since, between Mr. Loudon's store and Mr. Runyan's, in Loudonsville, a silver pencholder with gold pen. The finder will confer a favor upon a lady, by leaving it at this office, or giving information where it may be found.

MARRIED:

At the Presbyterian Parsonage, in this place, on the evening of the 4th inst, by Rev. A. B. CLARK, Mr. MATHEW C. MCCULLEY, to Miss EMILY B. SHOFF, all of Clearfield Co. Penna.

On the 6th inst., at the residence of John G. Miles, Esq., in Huntingdon, by the Rev. Mr. Zahnizer, Mr. WESTLEY M. HOLMES to Miss CLARILLA V. MILES, all of Huntingdon.

Here is our ☞ West, and a hearty welcome to the honorable walks of matrimony. We thought you had almost decided to squander your best days amid the cold comforts of single life, but are happy to note that better counsel, or something more potent, has lured you into the path of duty.—We hope that before you and yours there is a clear highway to prosperity, and that all the talked of, imagined and realized bliss of true hearts united may fall to your lot throughout a long life. Thanks for your kind remembrance of the printer.

HAT & CAP EMPORIUM,
JESSE SMITH, Proprietor.
ALL THE LATEST STYLES OF HATS and CAPS constantly on hand. It is the determination of the proprietor of this Emporium to keep up with the times and fashions, and to do this he spares no expense. He has just received his supply of SPRING AND SUMMER HATS AND CAPS, among which will be found styles and qualities to suit the tastes of old or young, plain or fashionable.
To give the names, colors, qualities and styles of all his goods in this line, would only confuse the reader, and he would not then understand or appreciate the diversity and magnitude of his stock. It must be seen to be believed.—Go and see Jesse if you want to see a live hatter and a fashionable stock.
He has also a fine assortment of CHILDREN'S HATS and FLATS, to which he invites the attention of solicitous mothers. At his store they will find something which will excel all their neighbors in the way of fashion and beauty. Go mothers, and examine and select from Jesse Smith's stock.
Store on Virginia Street, opposite the Lutheran Church.

THE ROOT & HERB DOCTOR,
FROM PHILADELPHIA,
WHO HAS HAD 30 YEARS CONSTANT practice, can be consulted at the Altoona House, Mr. John Wood's, viz.:—On the 7th of June, the 8th of July, and the 7th of August—he will then vacate for 3 months. Notice will be given in this paper when he commences his Winter's Term again.
He treats all diseases that flesh is heir to. He invites all females who may be suffering with diseases peculiar to their sex, to call and examine his new mode of treatment, as thousands have been restored to health who have been abandoned by others. He is in possession of perfect instruments for sounding the lungs and chest and is therefore able to determine the exact condition of the vital organs—consequently can treat such complaints with greater safety and certainty than it is possible for those who guess at the disease and experiment for its cure. He believes that for every malady, there is found in our soil a sure and never-failing remedy.
Patients can receive treatment for $5 per month, except in cases of Cancers and Tumors, they vary from $10 to $100. Examination free. DR. W. LEVINGSTON.
