LOCAL ITEMS.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE FOURTH.—Up to this time the following arrangements have been made for the observation of the Fourth of July in this place:

BETWEEN the hours of three and five o'clock in the morning, 31 rounds will be fired from the swivel, under the management of the Fire Zouaves, (Company D,) Capt. A. A. Smyth; also, 21 rounds by the Riflemen, (Company A,) Capt. Boyden, from the top of the hill above West Ward. At 7 o'clock in the morning, Company B, Capt. Turner, will meet at their armory, and from thence proceed to the Episcopal Church, in compliance with an invitation extended to them, to attend the services to be held there at eight o'clock.

The Catholic picnics will come off at the places named in last week's paper, viz: in McCarney's Woods and Beale's Woods.

The Select Club will hold their picnic in the grove adjoining West Ward School property.

We have had intimation that Capt. Crissman's company, of "Home Guards" from Sinking Valley, will pay the "Home Guards" of this place a visit on that day. Hope they are still in the notion of doing so.

SOLDIER HUNT.—We learn from the papers down the road, that one of the soldiers in the Second Regiment from Wisconsin, which passed this place on Saturday week, was knocked off the top of the car by a bridge, at Perryville, and, one account says, instantly killed, and another, badly injured. We have been fearful of an accident of this kind, from the fact that many of the soldiers take their position on the top of the cars as soon as the train pulls out, and as there are so many bridges, and some of them quite low, on the line of the road, the other soldier is that a dozen, instead of one, have not been hurt.

HOW TO PRESERVE STRAWBERRIES.—A temporary gives the following receipt for preserving strawberries.—To two pounds of fine sugar, and put them in a preserving kettle, over a slow fire, till the sugar is melted; then boil them precisely twenty minutes, as fast as possible; have ready a number of small jars, and put the fruit in boiling hot. Cork and seal the jars immediately, and keep them through the summer in a cold dry cellar. The jars must be heated before the hot fruit is poured in, otherwise they will break.

GO TO THE COVENANT.—Go the corner of Main and Annie streets if you wish to get a supply of fire-crackers, of every description, with which to celebrate the coming Fourth. Also, if you wish choice confectionaries, good sugars and tobacco, letter or note paper, national or plain, envelopes of all kinds. Also, a fresh stock of lemons, oranges, &c., just received. Go to Clough's, on the corner, if you wish nice things for the Fourth, or any other time. That to satisfy the night with a young man, on a piece of a week, in my nightgown!

KNICK-KNACKS FOR THE FOURTH.—A general assortment of fire-crackers and fireworks, such as are usually exploded by the juveniles on Independence Day, may be found at Weis' establishment on the corner above Hilman's store. He has also a full stock of more costly fireworks, such as rockets, roman candles, etc., together with a fine selection of the richest confectionaries, fresh fruit and nuts, all kinds of cakes for picnics, pies, crackers, cheeses, and a large supply of groceries. Give Jacob a call.

HOW TO PRODUCE CIVIL WAR AMONG RATS.—As there are any quantity of these "shaved tail" quadrupeds in these "dugongs," the following manner of producing civil war among them, might be tried with amusement and success.—Take a barrel with one head cut, put in water of sufficient depth to drown the rats. Fasten over the top some thin elastic covering—a drum-head or sheep-skin with the wool off will do. When they have got well baited, slit the cover transversely with a thin knife, so that the incision will meet in the centre. A brick should be set on its end in the water, or some solid substance of sufficient height to allow of one rat only to stand upon it. When all this is rightly prepared, the rats as they go on the barrel will be let down by the trap-door into the water. A struggle will commence to obtain possession of the island. Their cries for help will be heard by other rats about the premises, they will rush upon the top of the barrel, and be precipitated into the water together, and a regular killicky fight will ensue.

DEA. THE EDITOR OF THE CAMBRIA TRIBUNE, who is well acquainted with Messrs. Murphy & McPike, the gentlemen who have opened a store in Ferree & Morrow's old store-room, pays them the following compliment, which is well merited:

DEA. Brig. Gen. Robert Anderson, late of Fort Sumter, is not at Altoona, as many papers have published, but at the Crosson House, on the mountain. He was invited to that place by Mr. Mullin, the new lessee of the house. He arrived there on Wednesday last, and will remain during the heated term, with a view of recruiting his health, which is said to have been impaired by his close confinement at Fort Sumter.

DEA. On Wednesday evening last some twelve fourteen officers heretofore connected with Col. Wallace's Regiment of Indiana Zouaves, passed through this place on their way to their State to recruit new companies. They had with them a succession flag and a lot of pistols, guns, &c., captured in the skirmish at Romney. The flag is said to have been a rather sorry looking affair.

DEA. The reservoir is being covered with a substantial roof.

PARADE.—Company B. will meet at their armory at 2 o'clock P. M., on Wednesday next, for parade and drill. It is desired that every member have his uniform by that time, and be in attendance.

DEA. The coming "Fourth" bids fair to be a grand gala day all over the loyal portion of the Union. Take up any paper, and you will find accounts of great preparations for pic-nics, festive gatherings, &c., for that day—the dearest to American hearts,—the mention of which fills every heart with patriotism and devotion; and brings forth, in tones of eloquence, the tales of history that are gathered around it. Altoona will not be behind other places; we notice quite extensive preparations going on.—At this time it is very important to mention to the citizens of Altoona and vicinity, that it will be quite profitable for them to purchase their paints, oils, drugs, medicines, perfumes, &c., at Roush's cheap drug store, a few doors above the Post-Office.
