JACOB SMDY, TAILOR, The Hero of One Hundred Miles per Month.

I would respectfully set forth my claim to public attention as a Practical Tailor, as follows:

Because I keep an excellent stock of Cloth, Cassimere, Vests and Trimmings, which when exchanged, always fit.

Because my work is made up in a manner that takes down the country and makes me customers a city appearance.

Because I am not inferior as a Cutter, and the best to be found anywhere.

Because long experience in my business gives me the knowledge to make up any one I meet up with.

Because I am still on the sunny side of forty, and therefore my taste as a Cutter and workman unimpaired.

Call on me, in the corner room of the "Brant House," Give a man a chance, and he will go away satisfied.
