

ALTOONA, PA.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 22, 1861.

Where parties are unknown to us, our ruling... advertising in this paper is to be considered...

S. M. PETTINGILL & CO., Advertising Agents, 119 Nassau street, New York...

A Move in the Right Direction.

On Friday morning last, the Grand Jury of the United States Circuit Court of New York presented four newspapers published in New York City...

"If a person in a fortress or on a camp were to preach to the soldiers, submission to the enemy, he would be treated as an offender...

The Huntington Globe, speaking of this matter, says:—The Day-Book is the chief organ among the treasonable sheets...

The people of the North should remember, that the more those in rebellion against the Government are encouraged, the more expensive, and the longer will the war continue...

From Washington.

Andrew Carnegie telegraphs the Pittsburgh Chronicle, under date of August 21, as follows:—"Say to our friends not to be discouraged at the recent orders to hurry the troops on to Washington..."

"The response of the North is overwhelming. One hundred thousand additional men can be thrown here in a week if necessary."

KENTUCKY LEGISLATURE.—The Winchester (Ky.) National Union, in an article rejoicing over the late Union triumph in that State...

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Aug. 9. White Col. Stipels, of the Fifth Missouri Reserved Corps, and Col. Worthington's Fifth Iowa, were coming down the river on the Government steamer...

TRONTON, Mo., Aug. 17.—A messenger brings information that Col. Hecker, who left here on Thursday with his regiment, surprised a body of rebels 400 strong, near Fredericktown, early yesterday morning...

ROLLA, Mo., Aug. 18.—Capt. Emmet McDonald was in town to-day. He says that Capt. Charles C. Rogers, aide-de-camp to Gov. Jackson, and Capt. Stephen A. Coleman, both of St. Louis, were killed in the battle of the 10th. Also that Gen. McCullough's force, before the battle, was 22,000 strong...

Gen. Seigel received his commission as Brigadier General on Saturday, and assumed command of the Federal forces on yesterday. McDonald was escorted beyond the lines yesterday, and sent on his way to Springfield...

The correspondent of the St. Louis Republic furnishes the following:—Gen. Sterling Price has issued a proclamation at Springfield, to the effect that a great victory has been won, and the Northern oppressors of Missouri have been driven back...

Capt. McDonald reports that General Price and Clark were slightly, and Brigadier General Slack seriously wounded in the late engagement. Also, Col. Bay, formerly Capt. of Jackson's body guard.

Slaughter of Black Horse Cavalry.

Mr. Charles Furrand, of Lansing, a member of the First Michigan Regiment, gives the following account of the charge of the Black Horse Cavalry at Bull Run, which is by far the most graphic and evidently correct one yet published...

The story that all this fighting was done by the Zouaves is false. The three regiments were mingled together, and all fought equally well. I here speak what I know, for I was directly in front of the cavalry, and nearly in the centre...

SHOCKING RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—A shocking accident occurred near Newport, on the Pennsylvania Railroad, a few evenings since. It appears that a man evidently a soldier, got on the bumper of one of the cars of the stock train...

THE INCREASE OF CORRESPONDENCE.—The Washington Postoffice consequent on the war, is enormous, 70,000 letters a day is being sent off.

Hear Mr. Bright, of England.

At a late meeting in England, Mr. Bright said: Now, recollect what breaking the blockade means. It means a war with the United States; and I don't think myself it would be cheap to break the blockade at the cost of a war with the United States...

The President's Proclamation.

It will be seen that the President has issued a Proclamation, forbidding all commercial intercourse with the disloyal portion of the Union. The strict enforcement of his directions will do much to communicate the war to the rebels...

Arrest of a Rebel Agent with $200,000 of a Confederate Loan.

Last Tuesday afternoon the New York Surveyor of Ports boarded the steamer Persia at Quarantine. On the way up to the city intelligence was communicated to the Surveyor to the effect that a man named Thomas S. Serrill was a violent secessionist, and had stated to another passenger that he was returning from Europe with the proceeds of a loan he had negotiated there for the Southern Confederacy...

PARSON BROWNLOW'S DECLARATIONS.—Parson Brownlow publishes the annexed card:

So far as we are concerned, we can suspend our publication, in obedience to the dictates of tyranny and intolerance—we will yield to the demands of an armed mob—their order to our office, and what little property we have—we deprive ourselves and a helpless family of small children of the necessary means of support...

THE BETTER PAYMENT OF VOLUNTEERS.—Almost all the dissatisfaction among our volunteers has been produced by the vagrancies and expensive delay in paying off volunteers.

Our friends have very unjustly charged on the Government, but it has been clearly proved that those who are also in fault are the Captains of companies, who have been criminally ignorant or negligent in making out the pay-roll. Not liking the appearance of things there, they were about to leave, but were informed they could not return.

HOW KENTUCKY UNIONISTS TALK.—The most contemptible Bunkeyism of which we have any instance in Kentucky, is to be seen in the mouths of those who profess to be for the Union, who oppose the prosecution of the war for the preservation of the Union and the suppression of treason and rebellion.

CONQUERING THEIR LOSSES.—We saw, says the Louisville Journal on Monday evening, a highly intelligent Virginia gentleman, a secessionist, direct from Richmond. He says that he talked with an officer who was in the battle of Manassas, and asked him what loss the Federal troops sustained on the 31st of July.

A SINGULAR WOUND.—The Surgeon of the hospital at Alexandria, reports a singular case of suffering under his charge. A private, engaged in the battle at Bull Run, had a cannon ball pass his face without touching him.

A FORT MAN IN BATTLE.—During the battle at Bull Run an order was given to a New England company to lie down and load, and only a few men obeyed. During the hot fire of the conflict, Capt. ... observed a man standing while loading.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

To Consumptives.

And those afflicted with DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DEBILITY, HEART DISEASE, FEVER & AGUE, OR CONSTITUTION.

A Card to the Ladies.

DR. DUPONCO'S GOLDEN PILLS FOR FEMALES. Infallible in correcting, regulating, and restoring all the functions of the female system.

DR. VOIPEAU'S CANCER-CURE. DR. VOIPEAU'S CANCER-CURE cures all the various forms of Cancer, Ulcers, and other malignant diseases.

DR. WOOL'S POLICE.—The Albany Evening Journal of the 13th inst. says: "It is believed to be Gen. Wool's policy to make the war aggressive. He deems it wise to keep the enemy in suspense."

GEN. WOOL'S POLICE.—The Albany Evening Journal of the 13th inst. says: "It is believed to be Gen. Wool's policy to make the war aggressive. He deems it wise to keep the enemy in suspense."

A CARD TO THE SUFFERING. The Rev. Wm. Cogsworth, while laboring as a missionary in Japan, was cured of Consumption, when all other means had failed.

To Consumptives. The advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection...

DR. WOOL'S POLICE.—The Albany Evening Journal of the 13th inst. says: "It is believed to be Gen. Wool's policy to make the war aggressive. He deems it wise to keep the enemy in suspense."

DR. WOOL'S POLICE.—The Albany Evening Journal of the 13th inst. says: "It is believed to be Gen. Wool's policy to make the war aggressive. He deems it wise to keep the enemy in suspense."

DR. WOOL'S POLICE.—The Albany Evening Journal of the 13th inst. says: "It is believed to be Gen. Wool's policy to make the war aggressive. He deems it wise to keep the enemy in suspense."

DR. WOOL'S POLICE.—The Albany Evening Journal of the 13th inst. says: "It is believed to be Gen. Wool's policy to make the war aggressive. He deems it wise to keep the enemy in suspense."

DR. WOOL'S POLICE.—The Albany Evening Journal of the 13th inst. says: "It is believed to be Gen. Wool's policy to make the war aggressive. He deems it wise to keep the enemy in suspense."

ALTOONA

Express Train... Albany... New York... Philadelphia...

ON AND... Albany... New York... Philadelphia...

LO... Albany... New York... Philadelphia...

RAI... Albany... New York... Philadelphia...

Blair Co... Albany... New York... Philadelphia...

The following... Albany... New York... Philadelphia...

See our... Albany... New York... Philadelphia...

Call on... Albany... New York... Philadelphia...

See our... Albany... New York... Philadelphia...

See our... Albany... New York... Philadelphia...

See our... Albany... New York... Philadelphia...

See our... Albany... New York... Philadelphia...

See our... Albany... New York... Philadelphia...

See our... Albany... New York... Philadelphia...

See our... Albany... New York... Philadelphia...