Sword Presentation.

It having been ascertained that the Rev. R. W. Oliver, Rector of St. Ruke's Episcopal Church, of this place, was commissioned as Chaplain in the Army of the U. S. and would leave early this week, a number of Masonic and personal friends assembled in the Masonic Hull for the purpose of bidding him farewell and presenting him with a testimonial of their respect and esteem. The meeting being called to order and Mr. Oliver being introduced, the Chairman made a few brief remarks upon the circumstances which had brought them together, and concluded by announcing that Dr. W. B. Findley had been selected to give expression to their feelings on the occasion. The Dr , advancing from the side of the Hall and bearing a beautiful sword, sash and belt, addressed him as fol-

Received Sir and Beloved Brother: Your brethren of the Musonic order, and other of your personal friends outside of that "mystic have heard with the highest gratification that you have been commissioned, by our Government, a Chaplain in the Federal army. Most assuredly, sir, to serve in that army, in my position, is sufficient and ought to fill the casure of the ambition of any property intruncted lover of his country. For, since time egan, never has there been organized an army which was entrusted such momentous interand responsibilities for mankind, as that army which is now presided over by him whom we delight to call "the greatest living General." that army, under God, is entrusted the mighty work of maintaining that Federal Union and that Constitution of Government which alone can insure civil and religious liberty to our people, and which alone have been and must continue to be a beacon-light of refuge to the oppressed and down-trodden people of the

It is, sir, of the utmost importance that the citizen soldiers composing this army, accusceive religious instruction, statedly, on the Sab- itentiary.—Standard. bath day, and to enjoy the consolations of the appointed ministers of God, in their hours of sorrow, sickness and death, should not be deprived of these spiritual comforts while far from home, and fighting the battles of liberty

To you, sir, most fitly, has been assigned a counsellers for the soldiers.

Pardon me, sir, while I say that very high qualifications are necessary to constitute an efficient Army Chaplain. First, and above all, profound and ardent picty, and entire devotion to the "Great Captain of Salvation" and everything else subsidiary to his service. And then the Chaplain should be upright, off hand, with neither drawl nor twang in his voice, nor cant in his speech, nor that sort of odor of sanctity which is often carried like the perfume of a mistakes for anything natural.

The Chaplain should make himself acquainted ersonally with every man in his regiment, and win his regard and respect, by being interested, not merely in his spiritual condition, but in his health, physical comforts and amusements.-The less religion is made to appear the Chaplain's trade, and the more he acts the part of a genial friend and adviser, proving in himself the operation of christianity upon character, the more certainly will be accomplish the purposes of his office. Himself setting the example of bearing exposure and fatigue, and of cheerfully enduring a soldier's life, its privations and its dangers, he can consistently urge them to do so. Thus to a commanding officer he would be an invaluable aid-securing discipline from an intelligent and conscientious understanding of its necessity; and many a soldier, instead of leaving the army a grade lower in the moral scale than when he entered it, would return to the peaceful pursuits of the citizen, a better man in all respects. Is not such a service worthy of the Christian minister's highest ambition and most strenuous ef-We feel well assured, my beloved brother, that this will be your ambition and effort. Heretofore, in your peaceful and holy voca-tion, you have wielded only the spiritual sword. In your new position you will accompany your regiment to the field of battle, to afford the onsolations of religion to the wounded and dying-to hear the last message and close the eyes dimmed by the last, mysterious, unknown agony. But while doing so you may be placed such peril from the enemy as to require the aid of a material weapon; and that you may be properly prepared and armed for such an emergency, I am appointed by your friends to present you this sword, confident that it will gust 5th, 1861. never be drawn or wielded, but in the cause of Justice and Right and the Christian religion; and that you will remember, what you have elsewhere been taught, that if ever you shall find yourself over a disarmed and prostrate foe, its point shall trend downwards. Upon receiving the sword Bro. Oliver thanked the donors as well as his feelings would permit. He was much overcome by emotion, but said that in tendering his services to the Government he was acting under what he conscientiously believed to be a sense of duty; he believed that at this time, when our Government was about being overthrown and our flag dishonored, it was the imperative duty of every one to step forth, and, by every means that God has given him, uphold that Government and protect that flag. He alluded to the length of time he had been a resident of this place, and to the many attachments he had formed among the citizens, assuring them that though far away his mind would oft revert back to the many friends he had left behind. In conclusion, he understood full well the meaning of the Dr.'s last remark. He would endeavor to live up, to those sublime charges and teachings of the Knights of the Temple: and, having done so, would have the satisfaction of believing that he had done his whole duty to his God, his Country and himself. Each one present then proceeded, personally, to take an affectionate farewell of him, and the meeting then adjourned.

BŒRHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS

THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR DYSPEPSIA. DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS. LIVER COMPLAINT. WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND, FEVER AND ACUE and the various affections consequent upon a disorder

STOMACH OR LIVER. Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Heartburn. Lose of Appetits, Depondency, Costivenes, Illind and Bleeding Files. In all Nervous, Rheumatic, and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure. This is a purely regetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Borrhave. Its reputation at home produced its introduction here, the demand commencing with those of the Fatherland scattered over the face of this mighty country, many of whom brought with them and those of the Fatherland scattered over the face of this mighty country, many of whom brought with them and handed down the tradition of its value. It is now offered to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be activooseleged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

NOTICE.—Whoever expects to find this a beverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a grateful aromatic cordial, possessed of singular cordials. READ CAREFULLY!

The Genuine highly concentrated Borriave's Holland Bitters is put up in half-pint bottles only, and retailed at ONE DOLLAE per bottle, or six heatles for Five Dollam. The great demand for this truly celebrated Medicine has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against surchasing. purchasing.

Gentlemm: "Four note of the 15th inst., has been received, saying that you had heard that I had been been fitted by the use of Wood's Hair Restorative, and requesting my certificate of the fact if I had no objection to give it.

I award it to you cheerfully, because I think it due. My age is about 50 years; the color of my hair auburn, and inclined to curl. Some five or six years since it began to turn gray, and the scalp on the crown of my head to lose its sensibility and daudruff to form upon it. Each of these disagreeabilities increased with time, and about 4 months since a fourth was added to them, by hair falling off the top off my headfand threatening to make me baid. since a fourth was added to them, by hair falling off the top off my head and threatening to make me bald.

In this unpleasant predicament, I was induced to try Wood's Hair Restorative, mainly to arrest the falling off of my hair, for I had really no expectation that gray hair could ever be restored to its original color except from dyes. I was, however, greatly surprised to flud after the use of two bottles only, that not only was the falling off arrested, but the color was restored to the gray hairs and sensibility to the scalp, and dandruff ceased to form on my head, very much to the gratification of my wife, at whose solicitation I was induced to try it:

For this, among the many obligations I owe to her sex, I strongly recommend all husbands who value the admiration of their wives to profit by my example, and use it if

To Prof. O J Wood: Dear Sir—Your Hair Restorative has done my hair so much good since I commenced the use of it, that I wish to make known to the PUBLIC of its effects on the luair, which are great. A man or woman may be nearly deprived of hair, and by a resort to your "Hair Restorative," the hair will return more beautiful than ever: at least this is my experience. Believe it all: Yours truly.

P. S.—You can publish the above if you like. By publishing in our Southern papers you will get more patronage south. I see serveral of your certificates in the Mobile Mercury, a strong Southern paper.

Wood's HAIR AMSTORATIVE. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Prof. O.J Wood: Dear Sir—Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1851. I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to answer as the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure. FINLEY JOHNSON.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, vizinge, medium, and small: the small holds ½ a plat, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least eventy per dept. more in proportion than the small retails. retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.
