Pretty Sharp.

There is now a pretty sharp war of words being waged between Gun-thief Floyd and some of his officers. It appears that the officers of the Wise Legion have disapproved of Floyd's conduct...

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF KANAWHA. Camp on Sewell, October 6, 1861. In the Enquirer of October 1, you have published certain letters, dated in Camp Defense, purporting to be written by officers of the "Wise Legion"...

To this letter the proprietors and editors of the Enquirer thus reply: "EXQUIRER OFFICE, Oct. 10, 1861. JOHN B. FLOYD, Esq.—Sir: Your letter of October 6th is before us. Not recognizing any authority in yourself, either individually or as commander of the army of Kanawha, to demand the names of our correspondents, we decline to comply with your request..."

NUMBER OF FIGHTING MEN IN THE LOYAL STATES.—The following table shows the number of males in the loyal States fit to bear arms, between the ages of eighteen and forty-five years, together with the population of each State, and the number of men each should send to the army to make up the half million ordered into service by act of Congress:

Part of the Naval Expedition Sailed. The great naval expedition that has been in the course of preparation in New York for some weeks begins to assume a colossal proportion. The Steamers Cahawba and Coatzacoalcas sailed on Saturday evening, carrying the Rhode Island regiment lately encamped at Fort Hamilton, besides a force of experienced surfmen, with their boats. On Sunday morning the Star of the South followed, having on board Col. Serrell's Engineer regiment, previously announced as having gone to Washington. This regiment numbers about five hundred men, all of whom are practical engineers or mechanics. During the day the transports Ocean Queen, Eagle, Daniel Webster, Ariel and Oriental also sailed on the same errand. The remainder of the fleet probably left on Monday. The transport Rhode Island on Sunday afternoon, went down as far as Quarantine, and anchored. It is understood that the fleet will rendezvous at Annapolis, where it is stated the number of troops will be largely augmented, including infantry, artillery and cavalry. Among the troops who are to participate in the expedition are Col. Wilson's Massachusetts regiment.

It is impossible to give a full list of the vessels that will compose the fleet, as many of them leave other ports beside New York. Among those that sailed from that port, besides the ones above mentioned are the Wahash—flag ship; the gunboats Ottawa and Andulla, transports, Baltic, Atlantic Cahawba, Vanderbilt, Empire City, Parkersburgh, Roanoke, Great Republic, steamships Augusta, James Adger, Florida, Curlew, Alabama, Mercury, O. M. Pettit, besides a large number of other craft of various dimensions. The Atlantic and Baltic, and others among the transports, have guns mounted. Some idea may be formed of the magnitude of the expedition, when it is stated that one of the transports—the Daniel Webster—carries little else but water for the troops. Of the destination of this large force, of course we have nothing to say. It may probably be New Orleans, or Mobile, or St. Augustine, or Brunswick, or Savannah, or Charleston, or one of the Beauforts, or Wilmington—the reader, however, is at liberty to fix the locality for himself. That the expedition will be a very formidable one, is not to be doubted. A Baltimore correspondent notes the important fact that on Thursday last fifteen thousand troops passed over the Annapolis Railroad from Washington, bound for some unknown destination, and we hear of preparations for the immediate embarkation of others. This large body of men is undoubtedly intended to form a portion of this great expedition.

Total, 19,322,680 3,800,000 500,000. The troops which may be raised in Virginia, Maryland, Kentucky and Missouri, are not estimated, but considered as Home Guards or police for their respective States.

At the commencement of the battle of Bull Run, Lieut. Hasbrouck, of the West Point battery, was riding a little sorrel horse, which was shot three times, and from loss of blood became too weak for further service. He was stripped of bridle and saddle and turned loose as his owner supposed to die. In the heat of the conflict nothing more was thought of the little sorrel, nor was he seen again until the remnant of the battery was far towards Washington on the retreat. It passed at Centreville, and while resting there Lieut. Hasbrouck was delighted to be joined by his faithful horse, which by a strong instinct had obeyed the bugle call to retreat, and had found his true position with the battery, which most of the human mass engaged on the field cannot boast of doing. he came safely into Washington, is now recovered of his wounds and ready for another fight.

SHOCKING RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—The Fast Line West, on Friday afternoon ran over and instantly killed a little girl aged three years, daughter of Mrs. Hopkin, while playing on the track at Kinzer's station, Lancaster county. The child, horribly mutilated, was picked up by its mother. The engineer saw the child too late to check the speed of the locomotive, but blew the whistle as an alarm. A gentleman who was on the train says he never saw a more heartrending spectacle.

The Huntingdon ladies have organized a knitting society for the purpose of knitting stockings for the soldiers.

THE METHODISTS AND THE WAR.—Rev. Bishop Ames, of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Indiana, lately advised his son, a young man of eighteen years to enlist for the war, and has expressed a determination to spend the winter in camp himself. The conference will meet on board Col. Serrell's Engineer regiment, previously announced as having gone to Washington. This regiment numbers about five hundred men, all of whom are practical engineers or mechanics. During the day the transports Ocean Queen, Eagle, Daniel Webster, Ariel and Oriental also sailed on the same errand. The remainder of the fleet probably left on Monday. The transport Rhode Island on Sunday afternoon, went down as far as Quarantine, and anchored. It is understood that the fleet will rendezvous at Annapolis, where it is stated the number of troops will be largely augmented, including infantry, artillery and cavalry. Among the troops who are to participate in the expedition are Col. Wilson's Massachusetts regiment.

DEATH OF AN IOWA SOLDIER.—Peter Bowers, of Fort Dodge, Iowa, attached to Captain Stratton's company, Harlan's Light Cavalry, met with an accident on Wednesday last, between Newton Hamilton and Mt. Union, from the effects of which he died on Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock. It appears he was in the act of getting on the train after it was in motion, and had succeeded in getting hold of the engine, when he fell, and was killed.

ATTACK ON A COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT.—On last Saturday week, Mr. Swank, School Superintendent of Cambria county, was going to the station at Wilmore, where he had been holding a teachers' examination, when he was struck with a stone on the head, by some one concealed in a fence corner, inflicting a painful wound. He afterwards recognized in his assailant a young man whom he had that day refused a certificate, for incompetency. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

Henry A. Wise has been released of his command of a division of the rebel army in Western Virginia. He is called to report to the authorities at Richmond, and will be assigned some new department. That is to say, he is a failure, and is dropped at the first opportunity.

A BALTIMORE LADY TAKEN DOWN.—A letter from Baltimore says:—An officer who came up from Annapolis was waiting in the street, when he met a lady who gathered up her skirts close to her and said, "Don't touch me, you vile wretch," and passed on. The gentleman made no reply, but, turning round, followed her to a handsome house on a fashionable street, and, as soon as she entered he ascended the steps and rang the bell. A servant answered the summons, and the officer asked the name of the gentleman residing there, and said that he wished to see him. When he appeared the officer said to him: "Sir, a woman has just entered this house who grossly insulted me on the street a few moments since, and I wish to know if you are responsible for her behavior?" The gentleman turned to the lady, who was standing behind him, and said, "Annie, come here and apologize to this gentleman. I will not be drawn into scrap by your insolence. I have told you all along that you would get yourself into trouble by your unbridled tongue, and you wouldn't listen to me; now you may take the consequences." The lady came forward and made a full apology, and the officer left the house.

To Consumptives. The advertiser prescribes a remedy to health in a few weeks by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease consumption—is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge), with the directions for preparing the same. They will find a sure cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, &c. The only object of the advertiser in sending the Prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable, and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing. Parties wishing the prescription will fill the enclosed card, and send it to the advertiser, who will send it to them free of charge.

Military Uniforms.—There is, perhaps, no department of military business in which there has been a more marked improvement than in the clothing of soldiers. Not many years since, officers and privates were clad in garments which were almost skin-tight. They wore leather stocks, with some ornamental buttons, and their hats were worn in a ridiculous way; while their padded trousers and tight breeches made volition a matter of great difficulty. During the present war, such of our volunteers as procure their uniforms at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 693 and 695 Chestnut street above Sixth, Philadelphia, obtain clothing that is perfectly correct, substantial and becoming. The firm named here got largely into the business of making Military Clothing, and their facilities enable them to fill the largest orders in the shortest possible time.

A Card to the Suffering. The Rev. Wm.
