The Naval Expedition Sailed.

The despatches from Fortress Monroe state that the great naval expedition, which has been making preparations for some time back, sailed from Hampton Roads on Tuesday morning at daylight.

The objects expected to be attained, should this raid upon the Southern coast be successful, are fourfold, and may be stated thus:—First. To carry the war into the cotton States...

A THOUSAND UNION MEN HUNG.—The Mt. Sterling, Kentucky, Whig, of last week gives an account of speeches made in that place on Monday of last week.

REALIZING THEIR CONDITION.—The Richmond Enquirer acknowledges that the rebels can not defend their seaboard...

Our true policy of defence lies in vigorous push for the banks of the Ohio. We can afford to suffer raids on the Southern seaboard...

The Tribune, like many other of its contemporaries, has been compelled to succumb to the "pressure of the times," and accordingly it makes its appearance to-day in materially curtailed dimensions.

An Important Movement Frustrated.

It is said, on good authority, that Gen. McClellan had resolved upon a movement upon Leesburg, in which he has been most unfortunately defeated by the injudicious advance of Gen. Stone.

OFFICIAL REPORT OF THE VICTORY.

SPRINGFIELD, Saturday, Oct. 26. The following is a special despatch to the St. Louis Republican:—The following despatch has been received, announcing a most brilliant victory at Springfield by Gen. FREMONT's Body Guard...

By Telegraph from Salt Lake.

The Pacific Telegraph Line has been completed as far as Great Salt Lake City, and on Friday last the first messages through from that far-off station were received in the States.
