OUR APOLOGY.

For some time past we have been promising our readers that if those who are indebted to us would come forward and settle up, we would, on or about the first of October, show them something never seen in this section of the country.

We copy the following paragraph from a correspondent of the Pittsburgh Post, who is in Col. Black's regiment. We are informed by one who was present, that Capt. Crozier, and not Capt. Patterson, was in command of the pickets. It will be seen that the Blair County Sharpshooters are getting a touch of Picket life.

Two or Three days since, companies Band M. Captains Patterson and Crozier, were detailed from our regiment to go out on picket, about two miles from camp on the Lewinsville road, north of Falls Church. Capt. P. and Lieutenants Macke and Salisbury, with Capt. Crozier and Lieutenants Potts and Murray, with their men, responded promptly and reported themselves to Col. Skellan, of the New York Fourteenth, who was in command of a battalion of pickets from our Division. Capt. Patterson was placed in command of one hundred and fifty men, and during the three days the boys were out they had a good time. While out, one of his command captured seven cows, supposed to belong to a secessionist named Sherwood, and reported them to Captain Patterson. The Captain was disposed to consider them contraband and drive them to the rear, but when a woman presented herself and stated that her husband was absent from home, and that these cows were the main support of several children, the Captain caved in and permitted the woman to send after the stock. A great many other little incidents occurred while we were out, but I have not time to note them, you have not room to publish them, will let them go.

THE EFFECTS OF CIVIL WAR.

The division of families caused by the war, particularly in some of the border States, is painfully illustrated in two instances. A Louisville correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial writes as follows:—Capt. Henry Clay, who has just received a commission as assistant Adjutant under Brigadier General Richard W. Johnson, is a young man of fine abilities, a West Pointer, though not a graduate, and of undoubted and strong Union sentiments. His position is a very strange one, and is one among the many romantic stories of the day. His grandfather was the sage of Ashland, and his father died at Buena Vista. His uncle, James B. Clay, is a secessionist, now under bonds to appear for trial for treason. Another uncle, Thomas, in the U. S. service, is responsible for the appearance for trial of James B. Clay. A brother, Thomas Clay, Jr., is in the rebel General Beauregard's staff. His sister's husband, with whom young Clay resides in this city, has lately entered the U. S. service with two other brothers, for the war, and now comes young Harry's turn, and he accepts the unsolicited commission which General Johnson has tendered him. Here is another example:—John J. Crittenden has one son who is a Brigadier General in the rebel service. Another son is a Brigadier General in the army of the Union, but holding his commission from the State of Kentucky.—Another holds the rank of Captain in the Federal Army. John J. Crittenden himself, at the age of 70, bears arms as a private in the Home Guard of Frankfort.

Bilious Affections, LIVER COMPLAINT, SICK HEADACHE, DYSPEPSIA, &c. JAYNE'S NATIVE PILLS.

A MILD, PROMPT & EFFECTIVE REMEDY.

THERE is scarcely any disease in which purgative medicines are not required, and such ailments and sufferings might be prevented were they generally used. No person of sound mind and body can afford to neglect his health, and he who neglects it is liable to incur a habit of body prevailing, besides, it soon generates nervous and often chronic diseases, which might be avoided by the timely and judicious use of proper Cathartic medicines. Convicted of the correctness of these views.

JAYNE'S NATIVE PILLS

Are recommended by the most eminent medical authorities, and have demonstrated them to be far superior to any other in use, being more mild, prompt, safe and uniform in their operation. While acting, no particular care is required, and patients may eat and drink as usual. Age will not impair their efficacy, as they are equally adapted to the young and the old, and are equally effective in all cases of Biliousness, Constipation, Headache, Dizziness, Indigestion, and all the ailments which result from a disordered Liver and Bowels. These Pills are really an invaluable article, gradually changing the vitiated secretions of the Liver and Bowels, and producing healthy action in these organs, and in all cases of Biliousness, Headache, Dizziness, Indigestion, and all the ailments which result from a disordered Liver and Bowels.
