EXCHANGE HOTEL.—THE SUBSCRIBER would respectfully inform the public that he has recently refitted the above Hotel, and is now prepared to accommodate his friends and patrons in a comfortable mainer, and he will spare no pains in making it an agreeable home for all sojourners. His Table will always be luxuriously supplied from the markets of the country and cities, and his Bar filled with signors of choice brands. His charges are as reasonable as those of any other Hotel in the place; and he feels satisfied they can not be complained of by those who favor him with their custom. Expecting to receive a share of public patronago, and fully intending to deserve it, he throws open his house to the public and invites a trial.
