FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Monday morning last, a freight engine, Joseph Kearney engineer, while descending the mountain, near Alagripa station, struck an unknown man, knocking him off the track and killing him instantly. There were two men in company, but one of them stepped to the side of the track and escaped unhurt. The Hollidaysburg Branch coal train was passing up the mountain at the time and it is supposed that the unfortunate man, while endeavoring to get out of the way of it, did not observe the engine descending the track on which he was standing, and the engineer thinking that the men both observed his engine, did not try to stop, and did not know that he had struck the man until after he had passed. He then ran back to the spot, had the man put on the engine and brought him to this place where an inquest was held.

REJOICING.-We notice in our exchanges that there has been general rejoicing throughout the country over the Roanoke, Fort Henry and Fort Donelson, victories. On Saturday and Monday evenings last, the proprietors of the little piece of artillery in this place, had it out in the streets and fired a number of rounds in honor of the victories of the arms of the Union. The news would only sacrifice more of them. By order o is certainly enough to rejoice the heart of any patriot. On Tuesday afternoon the excitement ran quite high. Those who had flags unfurled them to the breeze, and by arrangement all the bells were rung at the same time, while little "Union" did her best to add to the general rejoicing. The juveniles, dismissed for a time from the schools,

WANTS TO DROP IT-The editor of the Hollidaysburg Whig evidently wants to drop the Altoona P. O. clerkship question, but like a little boy backed out in a fight, he wants to appear brave by having the "last word" if it should only be in making faces. If any one can make head or tail out of his last article on the subject, they can do more than we can. We understand that he intends to call one of us sleepy, but we submit whether it is in place for pot to call kettle black. We believe we can see as far as he can on a hot day.

WITHDRAWN .- Jos. P. Trout has withdrawn from the field as a candidate for Justice of the Peace, leaving the contest between Wm. H. Perelval, independent, and Jonathan Conrad, nominated at the citizens' meeting.

On Tuesday and Wednesday some 800 or 1000 troops passed west to man the boats of the flotilla now fitting out at Cairo, to proceed down selected on account of their knowledge of the business for which they are intended, being principally sailors, coastmen and boatmen. FOR CONSTABLE.—By reference to the candidates' cards in another column, it will be seen that our young friend, Pinckney J. Clark, is a candidate for High Constable. Pinck is one of the light-weights, and would evidently make good the race in this respect would be about "neck and neck," but how it will be otherwise, we can't say. Both have their friends and there will, no doubt be a pretty good vote polled.

The lectures of Dr Bettleheim, on Sunday last, were well attended and well received. He is an able and interesting lecturer, although a little difficult to understand in his pronunciation.

The Lutheran congregation of Hollidaysburg, have chosen Rev. M. Schindler as their future pastor.

F. W. LANDER, Brig. Gen. (Signed,)

A Rebel Officer's Account.

Capt. Taylor, chief of the rebel artillery at Fort Henry, is a young Tennessecau, formerly of the of the U.S. Navy. He says that the first intimation they had of any design to attack Fort Henry was given by the appearance of our gunboats, as they came to sight on Tuesday, and threw in a few experimental shots. 'After that, learning that our troops had landed four miles below, he was in hourly expectation of hombardment, and kept his men on duty all that night. When the attack began, he directed his guns principally at the flag ship, as he could easily distinguish Commodore Foote's ensign flying from her. This accounts for the great number of shots which struck the Cincinnati. After firing the sixth round Capt. Taylor's rifled 24-pounder exploded, stunning and disabling every man near her. Shortly after, one of our shots struck the parapet and exploded near his 10-inch columbiad, the only large gun he had, filling her with mud, and rendering it impossible to work her. Next a shot cut through the wheel of a 32pounder, and silenced her, as she could not afterward be brought forward in position. Then a shell burst in the embrazure of another 32 pounder shattering and tearing off her muzzle, and killing and wounding all the men who were serving her.

Captain Taylor was standing beside her, and a fragment of a shell struck him in the back, but without serious injury. "One of my men," said he, "was at my side when the shell exploded.— That was the last I saw of him; but as soon as I could look again, the parapat and embrazure were stained with blood, and strewed with fragments of his body." Thus, early in the fight, four of his eleven guns which bore upon our boats were disabled. Capt. Taylor wished to report to General Tilghman, and they sat down for a moment's conversation on the banquette, when a shell struck the parapet and exploded, burying them under two feet of earth and hurdles. Several of the other guns became dismantled, and it was evident that the fort could not hold out much longer. The men, weak from recent attacks of the measles which had gone through the garrison, and worn by their vigils of the previous night, were greatly exhausted, and to prolong the defence further Gen. Tilgham a white flag was raised, but it did not seem to attract the notice of these on board the gunboats, and their firing continued vigorously.— The great flag of the fort was then hauled down, and the attack was ended. THE FAMINE IN IRELAND .- The returns of seventy-five Protestaut clergymen in reply to a circular from Bishop Plunkett, of Tuam, show that in paraded the streets, shouting at the top of their | their opinion the potato crop is less than half of what it was last year. But the cat crop is up to the average. Of fuel, a large proportion would be useless. There was an increase in the number in the poorhouses. Lord Plunkett concludes that. while there can be no doubt that distress will pre vail, no actual famine need be apprehended. James D. Meldon, of the county of Galway, ha purchased one hundred tons of Indian meal for listribution among the poor on his estates at Belmont, Coolarne and Turlohmore. DEAD BODIES FOUND .- No less than nineteen dead bodies have been exhumed in Fort Henry, which had been hurriedly buried in one heap after the fight, and before we reached the fort. The apparent slight loss of the rebels has been a matter of great surprise, but this recent discovery puts rather a new light on the matter, and it would not be surprising if still more were found. It will be re-membered that only four dead men were found in the fort when we took possession. This will make at least twenty-three who fell beneath the unerring shots of our sailors.

LIVER COMPLAINT. SICK HEADACHE, DYSPEPSIA, AC. AC. JAYNES SANATIVE PILLS.

MILD, PROMPT & EFFECTIVE REMEDY, THERE is scarcely any disease in which purgative medicines are not required; and much sickness and suffering might be persented when they make generally used. No person can find well while a destine habit of body persons, which might be stooked by the timely and judicious use of proper Cathartic heditines. Convinced of the currectness of these views. JAYNE'S SANATIVE PILLS

Ar precident with the greatest confidence, the biliness having demonstrated them to be far raperied to any ether in use, being more mild, prompt, safe and uniform in their operation. While using them no particular care is required, and patients may eat and drink as usual. Age will not impair them, as to always readily dissolve in the stomach. In small doses they are alterative and generaly laxastive, but in large doses are actively cathartic cleanaing the whole alimentary cural from all putrid, irritating and feest matters.

whole alimentary canal from all putrid, irresting and recus matters.

Tor DYSPEPSIA, these Pills are really an invaluable article, gradually changing the vitiated secretions of the 8tomach and Liver, and producing healthy action in those important organs. In cases of long standing, a carle will be more speedily effected by using, in conjunction with the Pills, either JAYNE'S ALTERATIVE of TONIC VERMING Edge, according to directions.

For Liver Complaint, Gout, Jaundice, Affections of the 8kin, Impurity of the Blood, 8fk Headdache, Optivionesis, Piles, Female Diseases, and Billious Affections, these Pills have proved themselves eminently successful. All that the asked for them is a fair trial.

As these Pills have proved themselves ob eminety accessful in removing diseases of the Liver, Dyspopsia and diseases of the Skin, I have thought it advisable to add the following remarks on
