THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS, -After a session of nine onths, the public schools of our borough came to place on Friday last. It is the opinion of the birectors that the teachers and scholars have all mitted themselves nobly, during that time, and at the parents, and citizens generally, have cause ongratulate themselves on securing the services such faithful and efficient teachers; and, while the children have done well, some have even lyanced beyond the most sanguine expectations their friends.' If others have not progressed in eir studies as rapidly as it was desired they hould, perhaps the fault lies at home; the boy av have played truant occasionally, or he may re been permitted to remain at home day after on the most trivial pretexts. . If such is the se, and the boy's classmates have outstripped in learning, it is no fault of the teachers.- t so far as we are informed, such cases have een exceedingly rare; and they generally are, here the parents do their duty and where teachers derstand the knack of winning the affections and onndence of the pupil. With such schools as we we, ignorance in the rising generation would be most inexcusable. Since the close of the free hools, Mr. Elder and Miss McCrum have opened looms, where instructions will be given in all the anches usually taught in common schools. The defence of our beloved country, have met with misfortune. Especially do we think the young

She was decently buried in the Lutheran graveyard in this place, and her funeral was attended by the clergy and a large number of our citizens, who, with sad hearts, paid the last tribute of respect to the stranger.—Register.

POISONED PAPER HANGINGS,-It would seem to be a fact that the colored green paper hangings, so generally in use for the walls of our houses, have an unfavorable effect upon the inmates from the quantity of arsenic evolved and taken into the system through the lungs. The Boston Traveler

We are informed upon the best authority of a late case at the West End., The wife of one of our prominent citizens some time since sickened and seemed to be going into a decline. An eminent physician was called in, but was puzzled at the symptoms of the case, weich seemed to be one of the most mysterious character. The husband iso began to complain of an unusual feeling of deression. At last one day the Doctor called at the house, when the door of the sleeping room of the patients was open. Looking at the room, the cause of the trouble was apparent in the green paper upon the walls. He ordered the paper to be stripped off and other paper substituted, when the usual good health.

THE 4TH OF JULY.—This old-fashioned but ever welcome institution will be around this way just three weeks from to-morrow, and if we are to have a public celebration, it is time the arrangements were being made. Who will take the lead? Two pic-nics-the German Lutheran and the German Catholic—are on the programme for that day, but aside from everying of this kind, we should have a public clebration; the Declaration of Independence should be read; we should have a few "spreadeagle" speeches, interspersed with National songs and "music by the Band," if nothing more. It should be a general holiday for everybody, and all should esteem it their duty, as it certainly is their glorious privilege, to celebrate the day in a becom-

INTERESTING TO PARENTS.—A correspondent of the Chicago Tribune calls the attention of parents to the prevailing practice of causing children to ride backward in their carriages, as a manner of locomotion attended with very injurious consequences. It is said that those physicians who have examined into the matter are of the opinion that diseases of the brain may, in a great number of cases, be traced to this practice alone, and that many suffer in after life from the effects of this manner of riding. If this be true, it is certainly a duty to give the thoughtless a word of caution, the health and comfort of children being a subject of vital importance to parents.

Spring Bonnets.—The milliners of our town are busily engaged in supplying their customers ligh School, Prof. Miller, principal, will have a with new spring Bonnets. There is nothing more noticeable, or adds more to a lady's appearance than a pretty bonnet, "a love of a bonnet," as they term them. The spring style is a little above anything that has been worn recently, and if the system of extension continues another year or two, the bonnets worn by the "Old Folks," at their ad all should take an active part in helping concerts, will not be so "outlandish" looking affairs as they were a year or two ago. The present height of the fashion requires a small flower garden to fill the space above the top of the head. BROWNLOW'S BOOK .- This excellent work is out at last, and we bespeak for it a ready sale. It contains over 450 beautiful printed pages; is illustrated with spirited engravings, and is handsomely bound. It has been prepared, as the parson says, "from the single stand-point of uncompromising devotion to the American Union as established by our fathers, and unmitigated hostility to the armed rebels who are seeking its destruction." Every American should have this book. Price, $1.25.— Andy Clabaugh, Agent for Altoona

FIRE.—The residence of Wm. Forbest Esq., manager at Lower Maria Forge, was considerably damaged by fire last Monday. Fortunately a couple of gentlemen, passing in a buggy, saw the flames bursting through the roof, and alighted and assisted in extinguishing them before any serious damage was done. Had they not passed just as they did, the probability is that the fire would have gained such headway before discovered as to have rendered useless all efforts to subdue it, and the building would have been entirely destroyed .-The fire originated from a stove-pipe.—Standard.

HOMEWARD BOUND .- One day last week two car-loads of Michigan volunteers who had been wounded or otherwise unfitted for service at the battle of Williamsburg, passed through this place en route for "home, sweet home." They were mostly of those who encountered the Louisiana Tigers in that hard fought battle, and it is said that the appearance of these gallant defenders of the Union, with their various wounds, gave the beie.
