Great Rebellion; -OR-

THE HEROISM OF Our SOLDIERS & SAILORS.

ILLUSTRATED.

1 VOL., LARGE 12MO. PRICE $1.25. The critics and the public are right in predicting that this will surpass, in graphic narrative, exciting interest, and extensive popularity, all other histories of the War for the Union. Its theme will be the heroic daring, patient suffering and hair-breadth escapes of our S.Jdiers and Saliors, and its incidents will form the theme of conversation at innumerable firesides for years to some. It will contain, in addition to its stirring details, the philosophical Analysis of the causes of the War, by John Lathrop Motley, L.L. D., Author of "The Rise of the Dutch Republic," etc., the dates of all the important events from the John Browa raid, and an accurate and revised account of the principal battles, with engravings.

One-third the proceeds of all Subscriptions sent direct to us will be given for the Relief of Disabled Soldiers, and all persons who wish a copy of the work, and also to beneat the soldiers, should send their name and address at once. Also, any officer or private, or person in any section of the country, having knowledge of any heroic act or stirring incident, will oblige us by sending us an account of it. account of ft.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS

Immediately Cured, and full Vigor Restored.

This Distressing Affection—which renders Life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgences. Young persons are to apt to commit excesses from not being awaie of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived the pleasures of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms to both hody and mind arise. TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, society or marriage.

There are some of the sad and melancholy effects pro-tion, &c.

MRNTALLY.—The fearful effects of the mind are much to be dreaded—Loss of. Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of spirits, Evil-Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Sel-Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Thousams of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emsciated, liaving a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of consumption.

reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, with out these, the journey through life becomes a weary pigrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own.

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the minguided-and imprudent votary of pleasur finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happeus that an ill-timed some of shame or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to the who, from education and respectability, can alone be friend him, delaying till the constitutional aymptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerted sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the heat and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shall hones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extrem ties, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, an the rictim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object commiseration, till death puts a period to his dreadfings, by sending him to "that Undiscovered Count from whence no traveller returns."

It is a melanchely fact that thousands fall victims this terrible disease, owing to the unskillfulness of ign rant pretenders, who, by the use of that Deadly Poiso Agreesty, ruin the constitution and make the residue life miserable.
