INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING HOSPITAL SPRINGS.

Some time since we published a short article giving instructions how to prepare lint for hospital use, but we presume it escaped the notice of all not engaged in the work. The following very plain instructions have been sent us by a lady who is deeply interested in the work; and as the most of the ladies in the town and country are engaged in preparing hospital stores, it may be of great advantage to them—

In the first place, the surgeons state that much of the lint sent is not properly prepared, and, in most cases, cannot be used. Most persons who prepare lint go to the trouble of scrubbing it, which is not only unnecessary labor, but the lint thus prepared can be used only in exceptional cases.
The proper way to prepare it is to take old sheets, or any other article of pure linen, old being rather preferable to new, and cut it in pieces from three sixths and twelve inches in length. These pieces should then be singly scoured, thread by thread, and laid together in skeins or bundles, and tied or rolled up in paper, different lengths in separate packages. The surgeons can then roll it up as it is in any shape wanted in a moment.
When scoured lint is used in most wounds, it closes up the wounds, and the blood or pus uniting with it forms a hard mass, which not only irritates, but it is difficult to remove; while the unrinsed lint keeps the wound cool and in a healthy condition. The reader will see also that it is much more easily prepared than the scoured lint.
Bandages should be made of unbleached muslin of medium quality, such as can be bought for ten or twelve cents per yard. They should be cut, six, eight and ten yards long, and ranging in width from one-half to four inches wide—1 1/2, 1, 1 1/2, 2, 2 1/2, 3, 4 inches. The edges should be cleared of all ravel or loose threads, which cause delay or annoyance to the surgeon in applying them in an emergency. Each size of bandage may be rolled up in ribbon paper, and Pads for wounded limbs are in demand. These are made of old calico, or anything that will hold as dust or bran—the latter being preferable.— They are made in the form of bags, of three sizes—4 inches by 6, 6 by 12, and 12 by 18. When filled there is enough lint put in to make them of a uniform thickness. These are to be used to wound limbs. They may be filled by the nurse who makes them, if preferred, though the material for filling can usually be had convenient to the hospital.

Another article much in demand is sand bags.
These are muslin bags which go in pairs, and are used in the improved method of treating fractures of the lower extremities. One of these should be long enough to reach from the hip on the outside, and the other from the crochot, on the inside of the leg, to a point two or three inches below the foot. They should be 3 or 4 inches wide at the lower end and 5 or 6 at the top. They are filled with sand at the hospital, and tied with string instead of splints for fractures of the lower extremities, which is said to be a great improvement over the old style of treating fractures.

In addition to the foregoing, old handkerchiefs, common shirts (cut up in small pieces) and under-clothes of all kinds are constantly in demand. Jellies suitable for convalescents, and oranges and lemons, are also always acceptable; and cakes, pies, and pastry generally should be kept out of both hospital and home.

To persons visiting military hospitals we would also say a word. In entering a ward you should not distribute oranges or the like to the inmates unless you have enough to give to all. Surgeons and nurses say that it is no pains to them than to the slightest ones to see a distinction made among men who are equally brave and deserving. Sick and wounded soldiers are naturally sensitive. Away from home, with nothing to engage their attention but their own sufferings, their thoughts naturally run on the friends, the affections and the comforts which they sacrificed for the sake of their country. They, therefore, see and feel a slight where none may have been intended. If you have anything to give, and cannot treat all alike, it is better to give it to the nurse or surgeon, to be added to the general stock, out of which all will be supplied alike as their necessities may require.—Lancette Express.

Lint and other surgical dressings contributed for the benefit of the wounded soldiers, and directed to the office of the Surgeon General, will be forwarded to Washington by Adams' Express Company free of charge.

WHOM TO WRITE TO AT WASHINGTON.

As there are many persons who wish to communicate with the different bureaus of the War Department, a memorandum of the proper persons to address may be useful to our readers.

All letters relating to pay of soldiers on furlough or in hospitals should be addressed to Gen. B. F.
Larned, Paymaster General.

Applications for back pay and the $100 bounty of deceased soldiers should be addressed to Hon.
E. B. French, Second Auditor.

Applications for pay of teamsters, employees of Quartermaster's Department, or for horses killed in service, should be addressed to Hon. R. I. Atkinson, Third Auditor.

Applications relating to pay and bounty in the marine or naval service should be addressed to Hon. Robert Service, Fourth Auditor.

Letters concerning soldiers in the army should be addressed to Adjutant-Gen. Lorenzo Thomas.

The First Company.—The first company formed in this place, in compliance with the Governor's Proclamation, organized on Monday evening last by electing the following officers:—

Captain—H. E. Derlin.
1st Lieut.—J. T. Prendergast.
2nd Lieut.—Wm. A. Boyden.

The company is styled the "McClellan Guards," and the members are determined to drill, train or sue. Young men are cordially invited to join the company.

Proclamation by the Governor.

WHEREAS, in the present position of affairs, it is expedient that measures should be taken to arm and prepare our people for defence:

Now, therefore, I do earnestly recommend the immediate formation throughout the Commonwealth, of volunteer companies and regiments, in conformity with the militia act of 1828. Arms will be distributed to the organizations so to be formed, agreeably to the provisions of that act.

It is further recommended, that, in order to give due opportunities for drill and instruction, all places of business be closed daily at three o'clock, P. M., so that persons employed therein may, after that hour, be at liberty to attend to their military duties.

The cheerful alacrity with which the men of Pennsylvania have hitherto given themselves to the service of the country, has pressed heavily on her military resources. I am reluctant to ask her people to assume further burdens, but in their safety requires that they should do so, it is in their behalf that I put forth the recommendations herein contained, and urge a prompt compliance with them.

Given under my hand and the great Seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this Fourth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and of the Commonwealth the eighty-seventh.

By the Governor, ELI SLIFER, Secretary of Commonwealth.

Our citizens have entered with spirit into the organization recommended by the governor in the above proclamation. On Monday evening last a meeting was held in front of the Post Office, at which addresses were made by L. W. Hall, Esq., and others, and meetings appointed in the different wards for Tuesday evening to see what could be done in the way of forming companies. Previous to the meeting of Monday evening, the nucleus of some two or three companies had been formed and the persons engaged in getting them up proceeded to fill them out. The arrangement of the meeting on Monday evening was for each ward to form its own organization, but this could not be strictly carried out in all cases, as in such organizations, where the companies are to be permanent, and liable to be marched to the border and engaged in battle, men have to enlist under good officers and have a right to their preferences.

According to arrangement, meetings were held in each ward on Tuesday evening, and those who had not enlisted in any of the companies previously formed, attached their names to rolls opened to receive them. There may be more companies forming than will receive a full complement of men, and in this case some of them will have to throw together. We believe there are now some seven or eight companies formed and forming, and there are enough men enrolled in the Marshals to fill all of them to the required standard, if they will come forward and do their duty. In a few days we will know how many companies can be formed and who are to be the officers, and next week we will announce the titles of different organizations and their officers.

There is an important matter which we wish to be distinctly understood, and it is this.—The organizations now being made are not intended to take in the laboring class of our people and let business men escape. If such be the case the whole organization must fail. Our business men and men of property, are more directly interested in this matter than the mechanics in the shops, and if they would place the town on a footing to protect their property they must themselves enroll the ranks and bear their share of the burden.
They must close their places of business every Wednesday and Saturday afternoon and take their places in the ranks alongside of the working men of the town. If they do this, all will go well; if not, the whole thing is a failure. No man who has the welfare of his country at heart will refuse to give two afternoons in each week toward preparing himself for an emergency that may be upon him ere he is aware of it. Sickness, or positive disability, can alone be taken as an excuse for neglecting drill, and those who are physically incapable for drilling should close their places of business during drill hours for the purpose of encouraging others and take no undue advantage in the way of trade.

ENROLLMENT OF BLAIR COUNTY.

The Deputy Marshal of this county has furnished the following official statement of the enrollment, from which it will be seen that all the districts, with one or two exceptions, have nobly done their duty:—

District.	No. Enrolled.
Allegheny,	98
Antis,	188
Blair,	402
Catharine,	59
Easton,	48
Frankstown,	117
Greensfield,	50
Gayport,	47
Houston,	59
Hollidaysburg, W. W.	115
Johnstown,	95
Ligon,	21
Martinsburg,	152
Snyder,	37
Tyrone,	24
W. W.	58
Woodbury,	70
North Woodbury,	181
Taylor,	11
Altoona, N. W.	305
" W. W.	252
" E. W.	80
Total,	1771

From the Standard we learn that in the above statement the Marshal by direction of the proper authorities, has omitted from the credit to boroughs and townships all persons who have enlisted in the regular army, the navy, the marine service, all teamsters, blacksmiths, &c. According to a table issued from the Department at Harrisburg, the aggregate quota of troops to be raised in Blair county, under all requisitions to the present, is 1,634. The county now has in the field 1771, showing an excess of 137 in our favor. Since the above returns were made by the assessors 14 men have enlisted in Blair township, and an entire company is raising in Williamsburg and will go into camp this week. This will make our excess probably two hundred and fifty. Has any county in the State done better? If not, "Little Blair" claims the proud distinction of being the banner company of the Keystone.

HOME MANUFACTURE.

Our young friend, Jacob Wise, still continues the manufacture of candies and confectioneries generally, at his store on the corner of Virginia and Caroline streets. He is preparing to engage in the business still more extensively and his manufacture being equal to any in the country, he will no doubt have a large run of wholesale buyers. He also keeps fruits, nuts, cakes, of all kinds, bread, pies, a full assortment of groceries, flour, &c. Give him a call.

ARMING THE STATE MILITIA.

A telegraph from Harrisburg has the following in relation to the arming of the people under Governor Curtin's late proclamation—"Citizens organizing themselves into companies under the Governor's proclamation are not required to clothe or equip themselves. Arms will be promptly furnished upon application to Adjutant General Russell by the regularly elected Captain, and not necessarily through the Brigade Inspector. Captains will be required to give bond or some good security for their safe keeping. Companies can be organized to number from thirty-two to ninety-eight rank and file. Companies and regiments thus organizing should drill constantly and hold themselves in readiness to march to the defence of our border upon short notice.

REMOVAL.—Messrs. Hall and Neff have removed their law office from the room on Virginia street, to their new building on the Logan House lot, immediately back of the P. R. R. ticket office.— This building was put up specially for their accommodation, and is decidedly neat and comfortable in all its arrangements. They can now entertain their clients and friends in good style, and will be happy to meet them all in their new quarters.

CAVALRY.—The U. S. Government has called on Pennsylvania for three regiments of Cavalry, to be filled up by the 20th of this month. Capt.
A. J. Criesman is recruiting a company in this county. Young men who desire to enter the cavalry service have now another opportunity. Recruiting office at Martinsburg. Capt. Criesman has seen service on the battlefield, having been heretofore connected with the 84th Regiment.

NOTICE.—All persons knowing themselves indebted to the undersigned, are notified to call and settle the same on or before the 15th inst., as I am about changing my business, and desire to close all old standing accounts. Those neglecting this notice will have their bills placed in an officer's hands for collection.
