No DEAFT IN BLAIR .- From the returns published elsewhere, it will be seen that "Little Blair" has largely exceeded her quota and avoided a draft, and besides, we have the assurance of the sells at small profits. He has always on hand Governor that Blair county is not to be drafted. This will be a great relief to certain weak-kneed gentlemen, who have been living miserable lives the public to visit his store and examine for themfor the past month. It is no pleasure to us, in most cases, to witness the misery of others but we must confess that it did do us good to behold the trepidation of those unhappy mortals who were everely troubled with the piles, or had lately felt symptoms of an attack of rheumatism, or were seriously ruptured, or possessed one or an other of the "thousand ills which flesh is heir to." We are of the opinion that it would pay the Government to buy Dr. Barnes' recipe for manufacturing his Pile Lotion, which is highly recommended. and go into the manufacture and gratuitous distribution of the article. It might not supply lack of courage, but it would help the disease.

EXCITEMENT AT ALTOONA-A REBEL RAID FEARED.—Considerable excitement prevailed at Altoona on Saturday, in consequence of reports abroad that a rebel raid on the place was contemplated. Orders were received from Harrisburg to have all the engines there fired up, and the roll ing stock of the railroad ready to move. Simultaneously with this, the companies there under orders to move to Harrisburg had their orders countermanded, and for a time the town was in a state of great consternation. Sunday morning, however, the danger, if there ever was any, appeared to have passed, and the former orders to the troops were re-affirmed. The locomotives, however, to the number of forty were still kept fired up, and

We take the above from the Pittsburg Chronical of Wednesday evening last. That part which reters to the town being in a state of consternation is news to us. We heard it remarked that orders had been given to keep all the locomotives fired up, but did not learn that orders had been given for our militia to remain at home. Undoubtedly Altoona is liable to a cavalry raid, should the rebels make their appearance at Cumberland, or in that vicinity, but we think there will soon be a regiment of drilled men ready to give them a warm reception.

If all the information given the public, by the Harrisburg correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer, approximates the truth as closely as his report of the companies from Altoona, encamped in Capital Park, on Monday last, we think his productions should be received with many grains of allowance. In Tuesday morning's paper he there are some six or seven ready to move as soon hand trash for sale. as the Governor gives the word, and that word may be given very soon.

ANOTHER MONSTER GUN CAST .- The first of the fifteen-inch guns for the new Monitors was shipped to Wall's Station on Saturday for proving to-day. t weighs in its present state upwards of thirty tons, and will throw a ball weighing four hundred and seventy-five pounds. It differs considerably from the fifteen-inch Rodman guns, being some two feet shorter and apparently much heavier in the breech. The Fort Pitt Works have a contract for supplying several of these guns and purpose turning them out at the rate of two or three a week.

The Pennsylvania Rail Road Company has ordered their shops, in this place, to be closed every Wednesday and Saturday afternoon at halfpast three o'clock, for the purpose giving the employees an opportunity to drill. All who join regularly organized companies and attend drill will be paid their time the same as if they had been at work in the shops.

GONE EAST.—Every day witnesses the passage of single car loads and train loads of troops bound for Harrisburg, in response to the Governor's call for malitia to defend the border. The Harrisburg Telegraph of this (Thursday) morning says that 72.000 men have responded to the Governor's call and are now on their way, or have already reached the border.

The ladies of Hollidaysburg have certainly one a great work within the past two weeks. indging from the report given in the papers of that place. They must certainly feel satisfied with themselves, and many blessings have been invoked upon them by the suffering soldiers. The ladies of this place have also been busy, but as yet we have no report of the amount of stores sent forward.

THE ENROLMENT.—We notice that some of the papers are publishing a statement of the returns of the Marshals of the different counties in the Western District of this State, but knowing that it is wrong in one or two instances we have not published it. We think the Marshal of the District will soon furnish a correct statement.
