TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.—At a meeting of the M. E. Sabbath School, of Altoona, held September 28, 1862, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted: WHEREAS, In the inscrutable but wise providence of Almighty God, our beloved brother, Frederick C. Ward, has been removed from among us by death, being slain on the battle field, whilst engaged against the enemy of our beloved country, therefore, be it

Resolved, that we regard the death of our brother as a sad bereavement, both to the school and to the church to which we are attached. Resolved, that while our brother was amongst us, we had constantly presented for our admiration and imitation, an eminent example of sincerity, truthfulness, integrity, entire freedom from guile, genial humor, bright intelligence, christian devotion and moral purity.

CONDITION OF THE WOUNDED.—We have heard but little from the wounded of the 125th week. They are now all in hospitals where they will receive proper attention. Sergt. Hawke-worth, of Capt. Hostetter's company, who arrived at home on the Fast Line last evening, informs us that Capt. Hostetter was brought to Mechanicsburg on yesterday morning, and left in care of his friends at that place, and that Sergt. Russ was brought to Harrisburg, with the intention of sending him to his home in this place. He reports both as being on a fair way of recovery.

THE GREAT BATTLES OF SOUTH MOUNTAIN AND ANTIETAM. Union Losses, Killed, Wounded and Missing, 14,794. WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The following report of the victories of South Mountain and Antietam has been forwarded to the head-quarters of the army by Gen. McClellan: NEAR SHARPSBURG, Sept. 29, 1.30 P. M.—Maj. Genl. Halleck, General-in-Chief of the United States Army—General I have the honor to report the following as some of the results of the battles of South Mountain and Antietam: At South Mountain our loss was— Killed, 433 Wounded, 1,800 Missing, 76 Total, 2,325 At Antietam our loss was— Killed, 2,016 Wounded, 9,416 Missing, 1,043 Total, 12,499

BOUNDED WEST.—The paroled prisoners from that disgraceful surrender, at Harper's Ferry, passed over the Pennsylvania Rail Road last week, on their way to settle the Indian difficulties in Minnesota. While it was a disgraceful surrender, so far as the officers in charge were concerned, no stigma attaches to the subordinate officers or private soldiers, nor did our citizens regard it, if they supplied every train load with an abundance of coffee, bread, cakes, pies, meat, etc., in fact, on one or two occasions they almost did the town of Richmond. They were imprisoned in a room over what was used as a dead house and which was also used as a horse stable. The food given them was often stronger than their stomachs were able to bear, and contained more meat than came out of the beef. The guards would not permit them to look out of the windows. He was at one time shot at by his temerity in this respect, the ball grazing his wrist. They are indebted to Lieut. C. for several copies of Richmond papers, but we have not yet had time to examine them.

LETTERS FROM THE ARMY.—We have on hand two letters from the army, which contain near about the same information given in our last issue, and in our report of our visit to the late battle-field, in this issue, consequently we have omitted them. We hope our friends will not take umbrage at this, but continue to report their proceedings, which are always interesting to the folks at home.

INTERNAL REVENUE STAMPS.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has established the following regulations concerning the commissions allowed to purchasers of stamps: The commissions will be paid in stamps—that is, a remittance of $50 will entitle the purchaser to stamps amounting to $51. A remittance of $1,000 will entitle the purchaser to $1,050 worth of stamps. The Solicitor of the Treasury has given an opinion upon the liability of manufacturers to taxation upon goods removed from the place of manufacture prior to September 1, 1862. This opinion is in the hands of the printer and will be published in a few days. The collectors of customs at the several ports are instructed to receive in payment of duties all de-duced certificates issued by them, the same being reduced prices. Those in want of anything in this line will save money by giving us a call. J. J. LOWTHER, Sept. 17, 1862.—2t

Terrible Railroad Accident. Yesterday morning, about 7 o'clock, one of the most terrible railroad accidents that has occurred for many years took place on the Cumberland Valley Railroad, just beyond the bridge over the Susquehanna, and almost opposite the city. It appears that a troop train, consisting of some twenty freight cars, drawn by a single engine, and having the 125th Regiment of Pennsylvania Cavalry on board, was coming to this city from Greencastle, a small town near the border, where the regiment had been encamped for the past few days. The train was behind time, and had been waiting for trains to Carlisle, but none coming the train proceeded.

Who is SHE?—A day or two since, Mr. Patton, Post Master at this place, received a letter to be handed to some lady whose name was unknown to the writer. The following note, which accompanied the letter, will partly explain the circumstance, and may enable Mr. Patton to discover the lady to whom the letter should be delivered: E. FARRINGTON Co. Ohio, September 27, 1862. P. M., ALTOONA.—This letter is wished to be delivered to the hands of a lady of your place—name unknown. She traveled recently, (on the 18th and 19th of the present month) from Lithopolis, in Fairfield county, Ohio, to your place, and arrived there on Friday afternoon, if not detained; is supposed to be unmarried; is in company with her mother and little brother; of medium height; hair thought to be black; if this can reach the right person it will inform them of the whereabouts of a valuable dropped in the cars. I hope you will endeavor to find the lady. I think she is a resident of your place and had been to Lithopolis for four months, staying with a brother, I believe. If not mistaken in what she has heard to say. JOHN RALEY.

DESPERATE COUNTERFEITER CAPTURED AT CLEVELAND. On Tuesday last a man giving his name as Joseph H. Jones entered the banking house of Messrs. Wasson, Everett & Company, Cleveland, Ohio, and asked to exchange $1,000 note of the bank of Geneva for Treasury notes. Mr. S. J. Everett, the cashier, saw at once his cure, and was suspicious; but making no remark, proceeded to a clerk to procure a policeman, and proceeded at once to reckon the money. In a short time officer Whitney arrived and arrested Jones. The two went away together, but on crossing Niagara street, Jones, who had a revolver in his pocket, drew it and fired, striking Whitney in the arm around the ruffian, and with the help of two citizens succeeded in securing him. He was safely lodged in jail, and assured the policeman that he drew the revolver only in the excitement of him. Jones is from St. Cloud, Minnesota, and is an old offender. The ready dexterity of Mr. Everett thus secured one of the most daring counterfeiter's now swarming over the country.

SINGULAR COINCIDENCE.—It is a curious coincidence, well worthy of remark, that the recent decisive battle fought by Gen. McClellan took place on the 17th of September—the very day on which, seventy-five years ago, the Constitution of the United States was signed and adopted. The battle was fought on the one side for the preservation of this invaluable instrument, which has conferred so many lasting blessings on the human race, and on the other for its destruction, with all the benefits attendant upon it.
