At the residence of the bride's father, on Tuesday morning Dec. 30th, 1862, by the Rev. Jas. M. Clarke, S. MA. CAULAY WOODKOK, Esq., of Altoona, to Miss LIBBLE ETNIER, of Vineyard Mills, Huntingdon Co., Pa. We always knew that lawyers were good at keeping their own counsel in important cases, but we did not imagine that Macaulay would so quietly slip cable in Batchelor Bay and stand out into the Sea of Matrimony, without giving us a wink of it. Considering the accompaniment the above notice, we'll pardon this oversight. We are of going togelf what we did get, a ffice it to say it was eautiful, useful and ornamental, and our wish is that he ay never lack a pocketful of the same. We hope he may dways be as successful in Court as he has been at ourting, and his cases and name be multiplied.

He treats all diseases that flesh is heir to. He invited all females that may be suffering with diseases peculiar to their sex. to call and examine his new mode of treatment as thousands have been restored to health who have been abandoned by others. He is in possesion of perfect instruments for sounding the lungs and chest, and is therefore able to determine the exact condition of the vital or gans—consequently can treat such complaints with greater satety and certainty than it is possible for those who guest the disease and experiment for its cure. He believes that for every maindy, there is found in our soil a sure and never-failing remedy.
