

ALTOONA. PA. TUESDAY, MARCH 17, 1863.

Trip to Sast Baltimore Conference. Convinced of the truth of the adage that "all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy," we, on Friday week, slipped the cords which bound us to effice datise, and stepping on board the Eastward be heard to be appreciated. In the evening we sat Mail Train, headed for York, Pa., where the East | under the ministry of Dr. Thompson, of New Baltimere, Conference of the M. E. Church was in York. His sermon was plain-beautifully soension. Our calculations as to the time of our yet the ideas he advanced and substantiated, were arrival at that place were knocked into "ui" by the freak of a freight train, which took a notion to make things rip miscellaneously," in the neighborhood of Birmingham station. A detention of two house at this point prevented our connecting with the Baltimore Train, at Harrisburg, and, like many others, we had to wait for the next train, or take it on foot.

.We are not sorry now that we were detained. On taking a walk up street we learned that Gov. Johnson, of Tennessee, was delivering an address in the Court House. Of course we wanted to see this noble champion of Liberty and Union, even if we should not be able to hear his remarks. We found the Court Room perfectly packed, but we successed by dist of pushing and crowding, in obtaining an eligible position. Although the Governor has a stentorian voice, the shuffling and confusion about the entrance prevented our hearing all his pressions of approbation. remarks. Enough reached us, however, to convince us that he is sound on the Union question, down on traitors in front and rear, in favor of prosecuting the war with vigor, and most strennously opposed to all compromises with traitors .-His arguments on this point were unanswerable, but our space will not permit us to refer to them here. The picture he drew of the condition of the Union men of Tennessee, the wrongs perpetrated upon himself, his family and his friends by the Revs. Spottswood, Chenowith and Guver, and merciless plunderers of the Southern Confederacy, in destroying their property and driving women and children from their homes to starve or perish (by rising and counting) was taken in favor of from cold in the mountains; the employment of In- | that place first. The clerk announced veins, enlisted the sympathies of all patriots under 74 in favor of Danville. The Altoonians were the sound of his voice. But we are sorry to say then called to their feet. But the meanes transaction connected with Governor Johnson's Johnny. If you printed tickets for them we told visit to the Capitol of Pennaylvania, was the refu- them to pay you. But we told them not to pay sal of a portion of the Members of the House of you for tickets furnished by the Register. You ber to deliver his address. It is no disgrace to the State that this courtesy was denied the loval and self-merificing Governor of Tennessee, but it is an eternal disgrace to the members of the House, who misrepresented a large majority of their conshow to Southern traitors that they are their friends, and, consequently, the enemies of a man who has stood by the Union at all times and under all circumstances. But we need not extend our remarks hereon. The head of the reptile was raised high enough above the grass to be distinctly seen, and we do not envy the opponent of Gov. Johnson the position they occupy. At an early hour on Saturday morning we lefi the town containing such men as we have referred to above, glad to get away from such associations, and reliefed York about five o'clock, Many of We agreed to accept it only on the terms accepted our readers visited this place during the three by the other county papers. At nine o'clock we dropped into the Methodist Church where the Conference was in session, and found Bishop Scott in the chair. He is a venerable looking man, with firmness plainly depicted in his countenance, and the stranger at once recognizes in him the controller of the assemblage .-While he presides with dignity and firmness, and executes business with great despatch, out of the chair he is particularly agreeable, making those privates. Two Federals were slighty wounded .who obtain an introduction feel at once that they. have met an old friend and are perfectly at home.

A number of distinguished ministers were in attendance from other conferences, among whom we may note Dr. Thompson, editor of the Christian Advocate and Journal, New York, and Dr. Porter. one of the publishers of the same paper, and manaser of the Book Concern. Dr. Thompson is a man well up in years, with a countenance which betokens his true character-honesty of purpose, sound jadgement, deep piety and humor to spice the whole. Dr. Porter is middle aged, with an excoodingly plesant countenance, a fine lecturer, somewhat of a Yankee, and just the man to have charge of the Book Concern. The East Baltimore Conference it is said contains more old men than any other in the country. We observed quite a number of silvery heads and heards which at once commanded our respect and sympathy-
