

ALTOONA, PA.

TUESDAY, APRIL 7, 1863.

Stirring Times Ahead.

The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer, under date of the 6th inst., says that on Saturday the President was in consultation with different members of the Cabinet...

Both branches of the Legislature have agreed to adjourn on the 15th of April. A couple of Hollidaysburg boys, while out ducking a short time since, shot a white swan.

It is true, as our neighbor of the Standard asserts, that his party is the only one that can settle the questions which will remain to be adjusted after the military power of the South is broken down.

WASHINGTON, April 6. The report has reached here by way of Frederickburg, derived from rebel sources, that Charleston was bombarded by our fleet and attacked by our land forces on Thursday last.

THE 125TH SENDS GREETINGS.—In another column we publish the proceedings of a meeting of the 125th Regt. P. V., to which we invite the careful perusal of every reader of the Tribune.

TWO MEALS A DAY.—A late number of the Richmond Enquirer has a philosophical article upon the bad habit of eating three meals per day.

A Southerner's Opinion of Slavery.

The name of Henry D. Bascom is familiar to all who have a knowledge of the good and great men whom this country has produced.

"That's the Talk." At a meeting of the 12th Wisconsin regiment, at Camp Butler, Tennessee, some spirited resolutions were adopted with a hearty good will.

CONNECTICUT ELECTION.—At the time we go to press we have nothing definite from the Connecticut election.

Short Items. Both branches of the Legislature have agreed to adjourn on the 15th of April.

OUR THANKS ARE DUE CAPT. J. B. FINDLEY, CO. F. 76TH P. V., for late copies of the New South and Free South.

DR. J. I. STEEL, publisher of the Blainesville Record, has been convicted of libel in calling a citizen of that town an "Abolition traitor."

THE HARRISBURG PATRIOT AND UNION says that information has been received from Dayton, Ohio, to the effect that there is now a man in jail in that place, on a charge of murder.

WASHINGTON, April 6. The report has reached here by way of Frederickburg, derived from rebel sources, that Charleston was bombarded by our fleet and attacked by our land forces on Thursday last.

THE RESTRICTIONS upon the publication in the Southern papers of any adverse news are so stringent that it is not expected to find much in them in reference to the capture of Charleston.

REBEL ACCOUNTS. [From the Richmond Dispatch, April 3.] STARTLING FROM THE SOUTH CAROLINA COAST. The enemy have landed in force, on Seabrook's or John's Island.

The 125th Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers to its Loyal Friends, Sends Greetings.

We, your fellow citizens, composing the 125th Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers, are gathered in arms, not from love of war, not to gratify any selfish motives of ambition, but prompted solely by our love of country, and sense of duty.

WHEREAS, We the officers of the 17th Regiment Pennsylvania Militia, now stationed at Beaufort, South Carolina, the Colonel of the Regiment, Col. Leitcher, who is a Democrat in the true meaning of the word.

Resolved, That we view with indignation and contempt, the continued movements of individuals at the North, having for their object the virtual suppression of enlistments, by the cry of peace and compromise, as well calculated, while it tends to weaken the efforts of the executive for the suppression of the rebellion.

Resolved, That we condemn, with regret, the conduct of the enemies of the Union in our front; we exhort our brethren to the patriotism of the more contemtable foe in our rear.

Resolved, That we call on all good and loyal citizens at home to organize at once, with a view to counteract all plans or conspiracies of the enemy to every government that countenance or aid this rebellion.

Resolved, That, as the President of the United States is the constitutional representative of our Government, his administration must and shall be sustained by all true patriots, and that those who are denouncing his administration, are in fact, to the extent of their power, to throw hindrances in the way of a vigorous and successful prosecution of the war.

Resolved, That Gov. A. B. Curtis is deserving of our highest respect and esteem, (aside from his efforts to preserve the Union), for his eminently patriotic labors in behalf of Pennsylvania's wounded and sick soldiers, by which he has endeavored himself to us and them in a manner not to be forgotten.

Resolved, That we, drafted men from Lehigh and Monroe counties, acknowledging the right and necessity of the Government to draft her citizens, while we approve of the Government's policy, to enforce the conscription laws in any State wherein the same may be resisted.

A FIRE—A FOUNDRY AND MACHINE SHOP BURNED.—On Tuesday evening last, about 7 o'clock, the roof of the extensive Foundry and Machine Shop of J. C. McLannan, Watson & Co., the proprietors, was discovered to be on fire.

REMARKABLE ESCAPE.—A most remarkable incident occurred on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad the other day. It appears that as the train bounded east was running at a high rate of speed, a two-horse ambulance was discovered crossing the track a short distance ahead.

ACCIDENT.—Henry Fick, formerly a butcher of this place, but more recently a fireman on one of the Pennsylvania Railroad trains, was severely hurt one day last week, while going down the mountain towards Altoona.

NARROW ESCAPE.—On Saturday last, as Miss Blyne and Miss Hartler, were riding in a buggy across the breast of the dam at Zook's mill in Brown township, their horse took fright at a pile of plaster which had been very improperly placed on the turnpike.

How Drafted Men Talk.

Below we copy a few resolutions passed at a meeting of the 176th Regiment Penna. Militia—drafted men from Lehigh and Monroe counties—now stationed at Beaufort, South Carolina.

CONDUCT OF THE WAR. PHILADELPHIA, April 1.—An Inquirer special from Washington, says: The committee on the conduct of the war in session again to-day.

THE INVITATION TO GO NORTH.—The New York Express has a reputation as a copperhead sheet second to none. But it does not approve the invitation extended to the North-west.

THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE will be completed by Friday. It is divided into four heads—Bull Run, Bull's Bluff, the Army of the Potomac, and General Fremont's campaign.

IN ADDITION to these four reports, the whole mass of material taken will be submitted and probably printed. It will make about ten volumes the size of Covode's Investigation of Buchanan's Administration.
