information that the 125th Regiment, whose term of service expired to-day, left Baltimore for Hardisburg at 6 o'clock this morning. At Harrisburg he regiment is to be paid off and mustered out of service. How soon this will be attended to, and he boys allowed to get home, we cannot tell, but we hope there will be no such meedless delays and apparent working to the interest of Harrisburg notel and restaurant keepers and ready-made clothing dealers, as there was when the three month men were paid off.

We are pleased to note that it is the intention of our citizens to give the companies from this place a proper reception. A meeting of the Good Will Engine and Hose Company is advertised for this evening, to make arrangements therefor. Let our citizens join heartily together and make the reception worthy the soldiers and the town. THE CONCERT .- Our readers will remember that
