The Hollidaysburg Register and L. W. Hall.

There is so much that is merely professional, in the articles of political newspapers, when those who write for them, have a political end to accomplish...

These reflections are forced upon us by a very malignant article in the last issue of the Hollidaysburg Register, evidently intended to injure and degrade, personally, Col. Hall, and to gratify the personal malignity of somebody.

When he published that Col. Hall got himself passed over in the enrollment to escape the chance of having to do what he did, - pay $300, to keep himself out of the way of rebel bullets...

This unscrupulous creature now asserts that Mr. Hall is worth forty or sixty thousand dollars, and insinuates that he made it dishonestly.

that he does not. If he does not know whether he is worth forty or sixty thousand dollars, how does he know that he is worth either sum?

The remaining charge is that Mr. Hall entered into a corrupt bargain with Mr. McAllister, or his friends, to sacrifice Mr. Blair.

A Mean Attempt. Messrs. Editors:—On last Tuesday evening, a little son of the writer's, not four years old, in company with some other little boys...

GEN. WESSEL NOT SURRENDERED. Newbern, April 28.—Reports from Plymouth have been received, that our flag still floats over our fortifications in the place, though the enemy have possession of the town and river.

LET US ADD, in conclusion, that if the party was ever beaten in consequence of an exceptional candidate forcing himself upon it, such a result will not happen, through any aspirations of Mr. Hall.

HO! MILITIA.—The Militia of 1862 are at last to be paid. Maj. Stryker, Paymaster, gives notice in the Harrisburg Telegraph that he will be in Hollidaysburg on Tuesday, May 24th, to pay the company of Militia commanded by Capt. McFarland...
