CHAPTER V.

Prophetic Description of America

Continued.

No plainer history of America can be written than that given in the Prophet Ezekiel, as follows:

"But, O mountains of Israel, ye shall shew forth

your branches, and yield your fruit to my people of Israel, for they are my people."—Ezekiel xvi: 13.

This is fully fulfilled in the history of America.

The kings and queens of Spain, Portugal, France,

England and others sent their ships, their colonies,

their provisions, their raiment, and their gold to people and subdue the new world.

Although this

attention of royalty was paid for the benefit of monsieur, during which the un-

action would infallibly prevent any answer.
