The following is a synopsis of the new Tavern License Bill, as it has passed the Senate:

The first section provides that no license shall be granted to any person who is not a resident of the county in which he proposes to keep a tavern.

THE WIDOW'S BEAU.

Services had commenced in the neat little sanctuary, which the inhabitants of Harlem had consecrated to the service of God.

The first syllable of the second line was leaping on his lips, when a rattle at the door, and the entrance of two persons, a lady and a gentleman, dissolved the charm.

A LEAP FOR LIFE.

After my discharge from the hospital at Havana, I shipped in the American barque Independence, Captain Robert L., bound to Valparaiso, and thence round the Horn to the Western coast of North America.

My first mate often remonstrated with the captain on his conduct, and plainly told him that the men would not submit to it; but the only reply the captain made was, to tell him to mind what he was about, or he would break him and Azz him up!

CASUALTIES FOR A YEAR.

It is not surprising that in these days of travel, and of peril by land or by sea, the number of accidents and casualties should be so large.

During the year 1855, the number of railroad accidents in various parts of the country, resulting in loss of life or limb, was 128, by which 716 persons were killed and 8600 bodily wounded.
