WEDNESDAY, APRIL 38, 1854. THÉ NEWS.

-The Baltie, with news to the 24 inst. arrived at New York on Thursday afternoon bringing the glad news that the treaty of trace had been signed at Paris on Sunday the 8th uft. The declaration of peace was announced in Paris and London by salvos of artillery. Paris was illuminated. in accordence with previous arrangements. In England the church bells were peaked in joy over the event. Three or four weeks will probably churse before the final ratifications will be exchanged, the details of the adjustment having been referred to a commission. The Paris correspondent of the London Times says a council of Ministers was held at the Tuilcries at 114 o'clock, and remained. till 12 on Sunday, at which the Emperor presided. He gave his last instructions Count Walewaki returned to his official residence to receive the Plenipotentiaries. They came at half past 12 o'clock, and after the treaty had, been read over they proceeded to sign it. The moment the Signatures were completed, the signal was given and a soluto proclaimed the news. The English Parhament re assumbled on Monday, the 31st ult. In rophy to a query, Lord Palmerston said that although the treaty of peace was signed , yet it was detarmined by the Conference that the particular conditions should not be unde public until the ratifications were axcharged. At the same time he would express his conviction that the tristy would be deemed satisfactory by England and by Europe. It would be found that the objects for which this was undertaken had been ful ly accomplished, and it would be found that the integrity and undependence of the Turkish Empiry had been secured. The treaty, he said, was honorable to all the contracting known to fame, equally as well fitted for the put an cud to the war, which every friend of of those who claim a title to greatness, be-

"Shama on the man or boy who kills "Shama on the man or boy who allow robins at this season of the year! It is a Austainly. thing --unsportsmanlike. The Costantly. thing --unsportamanlike. The youth who murders robins in the spring is the same young man who kills hired horses because they are hired, cheats his creditors, and abuses his mother. These qualities go in clusters; and where you find a boy or man mean enough to shoot a robin in April, you find a coward! Pass the boy who kills robins in April on to his moral pillory."

A SURPRISE PARTY WORTH HAVING .--- On Thursday evening of last week a number of gentlemen connected with the Central Ortho-dox Church and Society in Lynn, Mass., made a call on their pastor, the Rev. Mr. Sewall, and when the company withdrew one of the number placed in the clergyman's hand a package containing over one thousand
