EQUAL AND EXACT SPETION TO ALL.

THE ONLY ENGLISH DEMOCRATIC, NEWS-PRINTED AND PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY, BY

HENRY HAYS.

TERMS 41,50 in advance, or if paid within six another. $2,00 will be charged on all subscription from the pear.
ADVERTISEMENTS and Business Notices inserted at the usual rates, and every descript FOR PRINTING. EXECUTED in the nediest manner, at the lowest prices, and with the utmost despatch. Having purchased a large pelbotton of type, we are pre-pared to satisfy the orders of our friends.

FOR PRESIDENT. JAS. BUCHANAN

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE, OF KENTUCKY

TOR CANAL COMMISSIONER CEORGE SCOTT,

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL, JACOB FRY, Jr.,

OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY.

TIMOTHY IVES,

Democratic Electoral Ticket. SENATORIAL. OHARLES R. BUCKALEW, WILSON McCANDLESS.

District 1st—GEORGE W. NEBINGER,
Do. 2d—PIERCE BUTLER,
Do. 3d—EDWARD WAIRTMAN,
Do. 4th—WILLIAM H. WITTIE
Do. 5th—JOHN MENAR,
Do. 6th—JOHN H. BRINTON,
Do. 7th—DAVID LAURY,
Do. 8th—CHARLES KESSLER,
Do. 1sth—IFAAC SLENKER,
Do. 1th—FRANCI'S W. HUGHES,
Do. 1sth—FRANCI'S W. HUGHES,
Do. 1sth—ALEAN WILLER,
Do. 1sth—ALEAN WILLER,
Do. 1sth—GLORGE A. CRAWFORD,
Do. 1sth—GLORGE A. CRAWFORD,
Do. 1sth—JAMPS BLACK,
Do. 1sth—JAMPS BLACK,
Do. 1sth—JACOB TURNEY,
Do. 1sth—JACOB TURNEY,
Do. 1sth—JAMPS BLACK,
Do. 1sth—JACOB TURNEY,
Do. 1sth—JAMPS BLACK,
Do. 2d—TIDMAR CUNNINGHAM,

1sth—Statistical Control of the Statistical REPRESENTATIVE.

TO THE THE VINCENT PHELPS. PRINCIPLES, NOT MEN .- The conclusion of the leading editorial article in the Nashvilla Union of Tuesday last is as follows : "One thing we predict with the most perfeet certainty—all the bickerings they may have will be over men and not over principlen: They will be a unit on the question of Demogratic party would still remain intic.

Its foundation is based upon the great cardigives him. Mr. B. is younger than either Jackson, Cass or Taylor were on their nom-

THE PROPER WILL PURNISH HIM WITH A appeared in the New York Journal of Com-

"The Know-Nothing Councils of Philadel-James Buchanan. Never mind; the people will furnish him a call, after the 4th of March next, which will be 'sufficient for all-

(Florida) Peninsula, disclosing the fact that a band of white men have been organized in Hilliborough and Manatee counties for the purpose of committing depredations in the name of the Indians. The disclosurer were made by a man named William H. Willingham, who gives the names of a number of persons belonging to the band.

YORK COUNTY. Years ago, York county gaya a majoris of 1700 fdr Andrew Jackson. Be far, that result is without a parallel in the history of political contests; but York new promises to act equally as handsomely next November for "Old Buck," and "Young

The other day at a public meeting held in Faneiul Hall, Boston, a negronorator said that he would spit upon Washington as a slave holder. This assertion called forth immense applause from the aidience. Oh! shame where is thy blush!

all over the country

TO AN ABROD WAR

"Tis morn-the sea breeze seems to bring Joy, health, and freshness on its wing; Bright flowers, to me all strange and new. Are glittering in the early dow, And perfumes rise from every grove, Like spirits o'er you welkin clear; But I am sad—thou art not here!

'Tis noon-a calm, unbroken sleep In on the blue wave of the deep; A soft haze, like a fairy dream And many a broad and magnolis flower Within its shadowy woodland bower Is gleaming like a lonely star; But I am sad-thou art afar!

'Tis eve-on earth the sunset skies Are printing their own Eden dyes; The stars come down and trembling glow And like an unseen spirit, the breeze Seems lingring 'mid the orange trees, Breathing its music round the spot; But I am sad—I see thee not!

'Tis midnight-with a soothing spell The far-off tones of ocean swel Soft as the mother's cadence mild. And on each wandering breeze are beard The rich notes of the mocking bird, In many a wild and wondrous lay; But I am sad-thou art away !

I sink in dreams-low, sweet and clear Thy own dear voice is in my ear; Around my neck thy tresses twine-Thy own loved hand is clasped in mine Thy own soft lip to mine is pressed, Thy head is pillowed on my breast, Oh, I have all my heart helds dear. And I am happy-thou art here '

THE

Great West and Sunny South.

BY FRANK'M. STREAMER CHAPTER VII.

Chicago and Galena Rastroad—Description of the Counties—Stephenson, Elgin, Belvidere, Rockford and Freeport counties, etc.

We have now, carefully, in the foregoing chanter disposed of our views and descriptions of the country along the Chicago and St. Louis road. We shall now proceed to a short description of that country through which the Chicago and Galena railway

The Chicago and Galona road is said to be the best paying road in the United States, and judging from the amount of business done upon it, and the densely inhabited Wisconsin than in any other of the Westorn onvinced that it does an extraordinary bu-

have rode upon botter; at some places it is raise fruit of any kind in some portions of vary uneven and rough, and at others again the State, as the late spring; and sudden it is very nice and level. The cars are well changes of the weather, nip the buds of the where. Its nationality will secure it against fipished, but nothing extra, and their rate fruit trees before they are properly sheltered of speed is twenty-five miles per hour The by the leaves There is, probably, no any internal foods upon all the important of speed is twenty-flow miles per hour. The by the leaves There is, probably, no sists its strength and its pride-the safety and stability of the government. Every member of the Chrimmati Convention might include: but, was to accommodate every man internal convention might. turn black republican to morrow and the hiving in the North West, by running the provements, coasi lering its youthfulness, its provements and its thinly settled track close by his door. The distance from the track close by his door. The distance from the track close by his door. The distance from the track close by his door. The distance from the track close by his door. The distance from the track close by his door. The distance from the track close by his door. The distance from the track close by his door. The distance from the track close by his door. Cheeago to Freeport, which is now the ter- lands, we must confess that for its advanstrict construction of the constitution, and minus of the road, is one hundred and tages and facilities; it outrivals many of our

The Illmois Central company purchased MR. BUCHANAN'S AGE.—The New York the right of way from the Chicago and Ga-Tribune speaks of Mr. Buchanan as "past his sevantieth year." As Mr. B., says the Troy Budget was but sixty-five in April last, he will serve out his first presidential term before he reaches the age the Tribune the State line. Passengers who have no tifel elevation between the form Lake. through tickets to lows will have to pur-

the enjoyment of which, together with the time you leave the city until you arrive duced in Illinois, and Wisconsin; wheat will yanna of which was a substitute of his countrymen, he at the junction of the Rock Island or Bur-always bring from six to eight cents more on aincere confidence of his countrymen, he at the junction of the Book Island of the Junetic always oring from the Allington and Quincy road. The land interveming between those two places is marshy, counties border on the Illinois State line, though high and rolling lands are visible in and the faither north you go in this State HALL.—The following prophetic paragraph the distance. Junction is in Dubuque county. the heavier and more extensive the bodies of Kane and Brown counties are two of the timber become. oldest settled counties along the route. The land lays high and rolling, with plenty of Lake Michigan, to Savannah on the Missis-her lips' tremble with emotion as she have refused the use of the Hall of imber, good running water, and pretty good sippi river, a railroad, which is an air-line independence for the reception of the Hone soil. The principal town in the former running south west, and which will give tered by the limpid waves of Fox river. are Racine, Walworth and Rock, in Wis-There are many handsome buildings in Elgin, it presents quite a city-like appearance. Extensive beds of yellow building stone are ers to make one continuous route of it, found within its vicinity, and the quarry- through to Fort Des Moines, Iowa. If they her business with me. ing of stone has become quite a business. fulfil their designs, and we have no doubts Belvidere, is the county seat of Boone to the contrary, the road will pass through county. It is tastefully laid out; Pulaski some of the prettiest and largest populated river forms the eastern boundary of the town, counties of Iowa, namely; Clinton, Cedar, and emptics its waters into Rock river a few miles south west of the town.

thousand, and that of Belvidere about two be the means of making this road s'very could convey. thousand. Winnebaro county is a very valuable one to the stockholders. Any hilly and uneven county, well timbered and quantity of land can be purchased at the watered. Rockford, the county seat, is a Land Vinces yet, in trisconsin, and is not so bad as you supported flourishing city, beautifully laid out. There handed for four to ten dollars per acre. But is not so bad as you supported."

"May Heaven grant that it be not!" watered. Rockford, the county seat, is a Land Offices yet, in Wisconsin, and second hotels in the place. Rock river runs to the nearly all taken up, and could not be bought cast side of it. It has a population of about for less than twenty dollars per acre. five thousand.

Winnebago, is one of the healthiest, pretti- Freeport, and consequently, passengers for you." est and best timbered counties in the State. Iowa are compelled to wait at that place un-The water is pure and good, the land rich til the Illinois Central trains arrive. The ed to my law books, so, as not to embarass litive, and is ready to swear it is the very bill "I was wrong, and the events of this day law books, so, as not to embarass litive, and is ready to swear it is the very bill "I was wrong, and the events of this day law books, so, as not to embarass litive, and is ready to swear it is the very bill "I was wrong, and the events of this day law books, so, as not to embarass litive, and is ready to swear it is the very bill "I was wrong, and the events of this day law books, so, as not to embarass litive, and is ready to swear it is the very bill "I was wrong, and the events of this day law books, so, as not to embarass litive, and is ready to swear it is the very bill "I was wrong, and the events of this day law books, so, as not to embarass litive, and is ready to swear it is the very bill "I was wrong, and the events of this day law books, so, as not to embarass litive, and is ready to swear it is the very bill "I was wrong, and the events of this day law books, so, as not to embarass litive, and is ready to swear it is the very bill "I was wrong, and the events of this day law books, so, as not to embarass litive, and is ready to swear it is the very bill "I was wrong, and the events of this day law books, so, as not to embarass litive, and is ready to swear it is the very bill "I was wrong, and the events of this day law books, so, as not to embaras litive, and is ready to swear it is the very bill "I was wrong, and the events of this day law books, so, as not to embaras litive, and is ready to swear it is the very bill "I was wrong, and the events of this day law books, so, as not to embaras litive, and the law books, so, as not to embaras litive, and the law books, so, as not to embaras litive, and the law books, so, as not to embaras litive, and the law books, so, as not to embaras litive, and the law books, so, as not to embaras litive, and the law books, so, as not to embaras l Know-Normore in the caverns of Dark-Lanit was nover our good fortune in fall our form Galena to opposite of the caverns of Dark-Lanit was nover our good fortune in fall our form Galena to opposite of the caverns of Dark-Lanit was nover our good fortune in fall our form Galena to opposite of the caverns of Dark-Lanit was nover our good fortune in fall our form Galena to opposite of the caverns of Dark-Lanit was nover our good fortune in fall our form Galena to opposite of the caverns of Dark-Lanit was nover our good fortune in fall our form Galena to opposite of the caverns of Dark-Lanit was nover our good fortune in fall our form Galena to opposite of the caverns of Dark-Lanit was nover our good fortune in fall our form Galena to opposite of the caverns of Dark-Lanit was nover our good fortune in fall our form Galena to opposite of the caverns of Dark-Lanit was nover our good fortune in fall our form Galena to opposite of the caverns of Dark-Lanit was nover our good fortune in fall our form Galena to opposite of the caverns of Dark-Lanit was nover our good fortune in fall our form Galena to opposite of the caverns of Dark-Lanit was nover our good fortune in fall our form Galena to opposite of the caverns of Dark-Lanit was nover our good fortune in fall our form Galena to opposite of the caverns of Dark-Lanit was nover our good fortune in fall our form Galena to opposite of the caverns of Dark-Lanit was nover our good fortune in fall our form Galena to opposite of the caverns of Dark-Lanit was nover our good fortune in fall our form Galena to opposite of the caverns of Dark-Lanit was nover our good fortune in fall our form Galena to opposite of the caverns of Dark-Lanit was nover our good fortune in fall our form Galena to opposite of the caverns of Dark-Lanit was nover our good fortune in fall our form Galena to opposite of the caverns of Dark-Lanit was nover our good fortune in fall our form Galena to opposite of the caverns of Dark-Lanit was nover our good fortune i ard caving in of the caverns of Dark-Lan- It was never our good fortune in All our terndom. Eight of the fifteen Know-Noth- journey South or West, to get into a country Dubuque, is ten miles. The fare to Du-its mingled beauty, and the "heavy gears" the road, but in the distance some high and and "big red barns" are frequently seen. And the password of "Pennsylvania" gives ber land is plenty in this county, and sells charitable gentleman, and I have ventured young man's sadness in view of his unpaid reader. Since that day, I have been proud you a credit and confidence among all classes for ten to fifteen dollars per sere, and prai- to seek your aid." of men, that makes the long subdued and rie land from twenty to thirty for good locaoppressed heart beat proudly with ambitious tions, and from ten to twenty dollars for aspirations. Freeport, the county seat of common uncultivated ones. Stophenson county, is a flourishing city. It buildings, and their proprietors are "good ted up in style and well worthy of the paworks, two City Halls, the Plymouth and sale and retail stores west of Chicago. There is also three Banks which do an exbeautiful site of the city, the splendid edifices erected in Gothic, Cottage, Spanish and French styles, the wide and beautiful streets, the ornamented and shrubbery planted yards, and the well shaded avenues. There are two English papers and one German paper published in Freeport. . The population of the city proper is about six thousand.

Lancaster, Rock Rup, Cedarville and Rock Grove townships in this county, we give the preference to for all agricultural purposes. Land can be bought in these townships for twenty to thirty dollars per acre, and some probably, for less. Cheaper lands can be bought in Lena, but they are not as well

CHAPTER VIII. .

Wisconsin, its Lands etc - Racine and Mississippi Railroad - Illinois Central Cars - Ga "sissippi Railroad -- lena -- Dunlevth, etc.

Much has been said about the good lands of Wisconsin, and it may be not out of place in this chapter to give a twin of the countries a passing notice.

It is true that there is more fumber country it passes through, we would feel States. But it is also true, that the land is not near so good or the soil so rich. The climate, also, is to a great extent colder, and The road is a pretty good one, but we it is the next thing to an impossibility to the sovereignty of the States. Men are, twenty-one miles, and the fare is three dol-therefore, but its advocates, not its vital lars and sixty cents. terprisé, must, at some future day, stand a one of the chief of Western States.

The principal cities of Wisconsin are Milinations, and is in the full ripeness and vigor chase a ticket at Presport for their destiof intellect and physical health. His recent sojourn in England, where he won the admiration and respect of all Europe by his solid hours. There is not much to hours from the full in the countries. There is not much to hours from the first their depot every six of timber. There is raised in these countries. Kenosha, Walworth, Green, Lafayette and hours. There is not much to be seen from ties a better quality of wheat than is pro-

There is now building from Racine on consin, and Stephenson and Carroll in Illinois. It is the intention of the stockholdsome of the prettiest and largest populated obstructed her vision. Her heart seemed Johnston, Iowa, Powesheek, Jasper and Polk. Should Fort Des Moines be the place The population of Elgin is about four settled upon for the Capital of Iowa, it will all the encouragement which gentle tones

We stated in our seventh chapter that the from Galena to Dunleith, which is opposite corer her calmness.

Richard was thrown into prison. Of course forget," replied the marchant. "I shall april as a see in my power, will probably all for $5,000.

Dubuque, is ten miles. The fare to Du. But I had lost the circulation to the investigation be could not produce the person who lent make you such amends as are in my power, will probably all for $5,000.

and some portions of Joe Davies county, and then carefully approached the object of good "old Dutch" is spoken out there in all The land is either lilly or marshy along her visit. beautiful prairies present themselves. Tim-contains four large hotels, viz: the Clark, county, Illinois, and the principal town in pose. "Pennsylvania," "Bloss," and Freeport the lead region, is situated on Fever river, Exchange. The three former are situated pine miles east of the Mississippi river, and shall be done with the greatest pleasure," I positively swear. on Stephenson street and the latter on (la. about four hundred and thirty miles above added. lena street. Mr. Georgo Lohr, formerly St. Louis. It derives its great importance of Centre county, is the proprietor of the from the lead buspess which is here extensively carried on. Immense quantities of your case, It law, we regard a man as in- little hope of establishing his innocence for and has long since made his fortune: lead ore are found in the north western nocent, till he is proved to be guilty; and my feason assured me that Richard, good port Exchange" are both large three story corner of this county. From twenty to you must not regard anything as hopeless son though he was, was guilty of the crime INCIDENTS IN THE WAR OF 1812. thirty millions of jounds are smelted in one until all efforts to redoom it have failed," with which he was charged. year, and the suppy of ore is supposed to I continued, with a smile, from which she be inexhaustible. There are some fine beemed to gather the hope I desired to im- that her brother would be restored to her, tronage they receive. There is also in this buildings in Galena, and the city presents a part. city a large machine sliop, car works, gas lively appearance at all times. Population about eight thousand. There are several Phoenix, a Court House, eight splendid churches, three priming offices, several exchurches, and several of the largest whole | tensive manufactories, including mills, (flouring and saw mills) sheeflead manufactories, &c. An immense amount of business tendive business. The Penatonion sives is transacted here and in particular continuous story extending the north-east portion of the place. On first entering Freeport city from sive and firtile country, the river is navelther road, the beholder is struck with the igable to Galona in all many for the largest > Dunleith in the same county and oppo site Dubuque, is the terminus of the Illinois Central road. It is a flourishing place, cautifully situated upon the cast bank of the Mississippi. It contains several hand- ness. some buildings and a population of nearly one thousand.

Taking everything into consideration, this the most interesting of any one route in the densely inhabited country, as well as the healthiest in Illinois.

- [TO BELCONTINUED ] THE LOST BANK NOTE. BY A R'TIRED ATTORNEY.

For the present, with its serene joys, I ometimes look back upon the past, with its trials and its struggles. In my quiet home in the country I feel as though the battle had life has been a busy, bustling scene, and here, in my quiet library, carrounded by the well-thumbed columes of Diagstone, Chitty, and their fellows, I feel as though I had completely emerged from the din of the here on eacth In thirty years of practice I have been possess to others some portion of the sater- Yet I could not reconcile the glowing culoedification of the reader-though I trust my narrative may not be without it4 moral-I transcribe from the page of memory an inci-

some importance, when the door was timidly opened, and a young lady, apparently not more than seventeen years of age, stepped into the room. Without being very pretty, the case, I will make a incinorandum of she had a countenance and an expression them, and I doubt not we shall be able to which failed not to attract the interest of the

She was quite pale, and seemed to shrink | brother's finances down to the lowest ebbwith instinctive dread from the glance 50 low that we had not even enough to pay I bestowed upon her. But her sweet our quarter's rent, and the quarter bills. face and gentle manners had already won Richard was much disturbed by this diffimy sympathy. Her sad face and timid culty, and for several days he was very sad. movements assured me that whe had a pain. But one day he came home with an enunciful tale to tell; yet I was not indisposed to ally cheerful face, and informed us that he hear it.

A visitor with a less prepossessing face investigation which promised to reward my search in a satisfactory manner. She advanced towards my desk, and l closed my book, and rose to receive her. "Mr. Dockett!" said she, and I saw spoke. I signified to her that I was the person county is Elgin, which is handsomely situa- great inducements for persons to settle in the sought, and handed her a chair; a civilted on a high table land, whose base is wat the countres through which it passes. They ity which her trembling frame enabled her to appreciate, for her agitation seemed to be entirely beyond her control. After allowing her a few moments to recover her self possession, I gently inquired "I have a brother," she began, and the hot tears filled her eyes, and for a moment to choke with its wild beatings. "May I know whom I address?" I asked, moderating my voice, so as to afford her

"Take your own time, Miss Wade. Perhaps you had better wat a few moments, till you fed better able topreceed, and in the from Richard in payment of his rent, which humble terms to his book-keeper. Stephenson county, which lays west of Galena and Chicago cars ran no farther than meantine I assure you of my desire to serve had been delayed several days.

"Thank you, sir," sobbed she, as I turn-terndom. Eight of the fifteen Know-Nothjourney South or west, to get most a country to san invalige. The condition of the fifteen Know-Nothjourney South or west, to get most a country to san invalige. The condition of the fifteen Know-Nothjourney South or west, to get most a country to san invalige. The condition and though I fixed my eyes on the him the money, and Mr. Dealey chooses to limit the money and though I make you such that the money and though I make you such the money and I begin the make you such the make you such the limit the money and though I make you such that the money and though I make you such the money and I begin the make you such that the money and the mr. Dealey chooses to limit the money and though I make you such that the money and the mr. Dealey choose to limit the money and the mr. Dealey choose to limit the money and the mr. Dealey choose to limit the money and the mr. Dealey cho

"I am taking up your time, Mr. Docket; mother. but I have heard that you were a kind and It certainly looked like a bad case.

It was a very blunt compliment, but doubted not its sincerity. There could be the positive nature of Mr. Denley's evidence, no hypocrisy in that gentle maiden-none, Galena, the county seat of Joe Davies even to accomplish the most cherished pur

"Whatever I can do for you, Miss Wade

"Thank you, sir. '

"I have a brother, an only brother, who left. s in the deepest distress."

"His name ?" I asked, taking a pen, ready to note down the facts in the case as she de- Here are twenty dollars; it is all we have, 🔽 As the British and Indians, in their opera-"Richard Wade."

ley & Co."

"Ah," and I wrote it down, and being acquainted with the firm, I began to feel more again, and I proceeded to consider the case. tually agreed to stand their ground to confidence in my ability to aid my fair lished reputation for integrity and upright. Jury found a true bill, and he was arraigned der sent a messenger, under a flag of truce,

"My mother is a widow, and dependent upon Richard for support. She has been quence could accomplish for the prisoner was claimed: afflicted with a cancer for more than three oute, from Dunleith to Chicago, is certainly years, so that I can do nothing but take care nation, the jury brought him in guilty, after of her and do the work at home. It takes being out five hours. West, and it is, undoubtedly the most all of Richard's salary to support us and such a good brother!"

son, and you fer such a brother.11 "Oh, we are, sir! But, poor Richard! he and Rgain who solbed as though her heart would break.

"Indeed ( In itil it' ..... I was not quite prepared for such a catastrophe as this, and I confess that my feelings, lawyer as I was, were much med. the guilty." world, and that my heaven had commenced But it was possible that the poor girl was decrived in regard to her brother -- that he was an angel at home, and a demon abroad, an actor in many a life-diama, which may as I have known more than one man to be. ast with which I regard them; but more for gum which the roung lady had pronoun. have sworn to it, of course ced upon his character with such a conclu-

> "Of what is he accused, Miss Wade" Nay, do not weep, he may be innocent." "I know he is !" she answered, with co siderable vehemence. "Then be assured his innocunce-shall b made apparent to the world." " Would that I could feel so"

" Now, if you will please state the facts of make a good case of it."

"Why, mother's sickness had reduced my had paid the rent all the bills.

"We inquired where he had obtained the would have called forth a frown and a short money. He told us he had borro ed it of a answer, for I was in the very midst of an Iffend, who had started that day for New Orleans. We thought nothing more about it till a week after-that was yesterdaywhen he did not come home to dinner. garment. We were not alarmed, however; but when he did not come home to supper, we were much disturbed; and I went to the store to

"Mr. Denley told mu that he had been ar- paper. rested for stealing a hundred dollars from him about a week before. I was horrified the charge, and had nearly fallen upon the dollar bill in a letter to send away by mail, the court house. at the desk where Richard was writing, when a runaway horse dashed by the store. He flew to the door to observe the beg of you to be calm; perhaps your case Scarch was instituted, but it could not be a tarill of joy ran through the veins of that freely flowers that may become pure and holy is not so bad as you suppose. Scarch was instituted, but it could not be a tarill of joy ran through the veins of that freely flowers that may become pure and holy is not so bad as you suppose. It happened that our landlord, who fair oir!

The poor girl wined her eyes, and I inquired the ground upon which her brother was accused.

bill as the one he had lost. He is very pos- of his forgiveness.

It was a heavy blow to the poor girl, and heavier still to her sick and suffering bills, his sudden cheerfulness, though the to number among my personal friends the debt itself still remained, and worse than all, were all against a successful defence. But was any such thing even to clear him on a Denley kept his word with Richard; the "You must not look on the dark side of quibble, if no other means offered. I had year after he was admitted as a partner,

> I succeeded so well in assuring Alice Wade that she was tolerably cheerful before she

"You are very kind, Mr. Docket; and I fear we shall never be able fully to repay you.

but you are very kind; and she tendered thous, had stonated the process, and she was a covered warrane, by wantedly mandered the process of the covered warrane, by wantedly mandered the process of the covered warrane, by wantedly mandered the process of the process of the covered warrane, by wantedly mandered to be process.

She took her leave, after thanking me I need not detail to the reader the particu- last, and sell their lives as dearly as possilars of Richard Wade's examination, upon ble. which he was fully committed. The Grand insuccessful, and, to my grief and conster-

Poor Alice! I could not culture the pay the doctor's bill; but he has labored thought of meeting her and telling her of ther. Richard is very kind, and never of going to my office, where I knew she thinks of the many deprivations which our awaited my coming, I took Mr. Denley's arm, plied: circumstances compel him to endure. He is with the intention of getting him to make a contented to work early and late, and never statement, by the aid of which a mitigation spends a dollar upon himself. Oh, sir, he is of the unfortunate young man's sentence might be obtained. Almost unconsciously "Your mother must be grateful for such a led him into Parker's, where we seated ourselves at a table, and called for a lunch. "It is a very hard case, Mr. Denley," said I; "poor Wade's mother will suffer more than he." .... know .... olundered in this manner. Besides it is a duty we owe to society to assist in punishing

"True; but after all, Mr. Denley, you may be mistaken about the bill.'

"Mistaken! Impossible. I am sure of the lette. Shipp, who was a man of Herculean a particle of doubt about it, I should not said furning to the envoy, coolly said; "It hight have blown out of the win-

"The window was closed."

4You must think Righard Wade un. a ool to take such an opportunity of robbing ou, when, as you testified, hu handled hun-tithe instant I give hun the signal, therefore dreds of dollars of your maney every day restrain these men and respect the laws of "The fact is undeniable. "Oh, no; I could mention a dozen plainer cases than this, where introcent men have ensued, and obtained promotion for his bra-

been punished." "There is no Phance for a mistake. '

"You might have thrust the bill into your of our paragraph was as follows. ocket and lost it." But the same bill reached me again through my brother, in-law, who received it who had belonged to their little band and all from Wade, a replied her involved to their little band and all from Wade, a replied her involved to the little band and all from Wade, a replied her involved to the little band and all them.

fumble with great violence at the left hand was cut in two by a cannon ball. pocket. He had thrust one finger through a hole near the top of the pecket, and was exploring the recess inside of the lining of the

from his chair, in the highest excitement, be the only man that proved himself a cowwhile with a nervous twitch he tore away the pocket and drew out a bit of crumpled

My heart leaped as h's trembling hand unfolded the paper. It was a hundred dolfor bill!

"God forgive me!" exclaimed he, and his check glowed with shame. "You were mistaken, then?" "I was; come to the Judge with ma,

I need not inform the reader by what for row becomes the master. When troubles malities the Judgment was reversed but it slow dark and heavy, toil not with the waves was done at once. Perhaps some violence was done to the forms; but Richard Wade by occupation to divert the dark waves that to obange a hundred dollar bill, and casu- ley, who took to himself much blame for the after all, is but a solfish feeling; and most ally mentioned that he had received it part he had acted. He apologised in very stellish is the man who yields himself to the

"You meant right," Mr. Denley," said to his fellow man. "Mr. Denley immediately indentified the Richard, taking his proffered hand, in token consequence to me than anything else." The parties left my office soon after, The scene, when the poor mother was informed of the result, can easily be imagined by the members of the Wade family. Richard's friend returned from the South a few days after. He had not received the I had hopes of getting him off, for the iden- letter Richard had sent him, and was ignotity of the bill, unless actually registered by rant of the events which had occurred in his number, was a matter to which few could absence. Richard pridhim, and it is not very singular that this same friends became the I made up any mind to clear him, if there husband of Alice two years after. Mr.

" "FORTUNE FAVORS THE BRAVE."

A military officer with whom we have long cen intimate, relatés two incidents connectd with Crowhan's callant defence of Fort Stephenson ; both of which afford strong positive proof of the above quoted adage.

roops and that umaber of Indians,) had mu-

When all was ready, the British commanto treat for a surrender of the Fort. Crog-All that my poor skill and humble elo- han pointing to him as he approached, ex-

"It will not do to let him enter here and see our weakness; who will volunteer to meet bim ?"

As it was prefty certain that whoever should leave the Fort on such a mission, cheerfully for us, for his poor suffering mo- the destruction of all her hopes, and instead would be murdered by the dastard foe there was a brief pause, when Ensign Shipp re-

> "I will, upon one condition." "What is that?" asked the captain: "Pledge your word, as an officer and & nan of honor, that you will keep that gun bearing directly upon me, and that you will fire it off the moment you see me raise my The pledge was given, and Shipp went

To all the arguments and persuadous of the enemy, his unvarying reply was: "I am instructed to say that we defend the Soon the Indians began to surround him One clutched his sword, another his epau-bill. It was the same one; if there had been frame, released minself by powerful effort, "Sir, I have put myself under the protection of your truce without knowing your mode of warfarc. You see that gun, said he pointing to saix pounder; this well charged wither upe, and I have the colemn pledge of mycommander that it shall be fired at me

If he had meant to rob you, it seems to war, or you shall instantly accompany me he would have chosen a better opportu- to the other world." This was enough. Shipp. was no more safety, fought out the desperate action that > terv... The other instance referred to at the head

After the British and Indians had with drawn, Croghan missed one man, (only one) thrusting his hands into his vest pockets.

Suddenly I observed a ner yousness in his discovered in the garret of one of the block manner, and with both hands he began to houses, where he had crept for safety and

All the rest, considered their chances of to do their duty, and escape alive from perhaps the most desperate fight on record .-The only man that was killed happened to ard .- New York Atlas.

OCCUPATION.

What a good thing it is for the human heart. Those who work hard seldom yield themselves up to fancied or real sorrow. When grief sits down, folds its hands, and mournfully feeds upon its own tears, wearing the dim shadows that a little exertion "Mr. Denley was inclosing a hundred Docket," and he rushed furiously towards might sweep away, into a funeral pall, the strong spirit is shorn of its might, and sor-- wrestle not with the torrent !- rather seek as he declared, and the half written letter, on the declared, and the half written letter, on folded in the arms of his loving and devoted channels which the duty of life always prethe desk.

"Alice Wade," she replied.

"On his return, the money was nowhere to be in distress. Let me to be found. Richard had not seen it.—

If olded in the arms of the loving and devoted some.

Some some to be in distress. Let me to be found. Richard had not seen it.—

If was saved! He was innocent! What will furtilize the present, and give birth to the found. Richard had not seen it.—

If was saved! He was innocent! What will furtilize the present, and give birth to the found. Richard had not seen it.—

If was saved! He was innocent! What will furtilize the present may become pure and holy We were immediately joined by Mr. Den- of daty in spite of every obstacle. Grief

A DERFUL LESSON .--- A farmer in Ohio, last