The County Convention.—The following resolutions were adopted at the County Convention held on the 20th instant:

WHEREAS, The representatives of the Democracy of Centre county, in convention assembled, believe that the time has arrived to declare anew the principles which heretofore gave the Democratic party a national, a proud and a loyal position.

And, WHEREAS, Believing that the people of Centre county are radically Democratic and as firmly attached as ever to national principles, therefore,

Resolved, That the stability of the Union is the purest principle that can be advocated in any political contest, guaranteeing as it does, the peace of communities and the prosperity of trade.

Resolved, That we are opposed to all sectional agitation of any question which affects the interests of commonwealths, believing that the right of each State to chose its own domestic institutions is guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States.

Resolved, That the administration of Franklin Pierce meets with our entire approval. He has carried our commerce into distant countries, and by a wise administration of the laws of the land, he has added security to trade and new security to business.

Resolved, That the name of James Buchanan, for the Presidency, is a national one, the Democracy of Pennsylvania, and which will be sustained by a people of all classes. His unimpeachable character, profound statesmanship and virtuous attainments render him eminently fitted for the duties of the position he is about being called. Pennsylvania knows him as her patriotic son and the Union can feel that the people of the Keystone acknowledge him their champion.

Resolved, That the nomination of John C. Breckinridge of Kentucky, for the Vice Presidency meets with our warmest approval, because he combines the qualities of both the soldier and the statesman with the accomplishments of a good citizen and a scholar—though young in years, he has endeared himself to the people of the country by his valor in war, consistency in politics and unprejudiced firmness in legislation.

Resolved, That the State nominations for Auditor General, Surveyor General and Canal Commissioners deserve and will receive our warmest support. The qualities which each possesses for the office for which he has been selected are well known to the people of Pennsylvania, and have been more than once endorsed.

Resolved, That the ticket for county officers is one which cannot fail to secure the support of a united Democracy. It combines the choice of the industry and intellect of the county with those who have supported the Democracy in its darkest hours, and we pledge ourselves to leave no honorable effort untried, to secure the election of every candidate.

Resolved, That the delegates appointed to the State Convention, to nominate candidates for Governor, Canal Commissioner, &c., are hereby instructed to use all honorable means to have the Hon Wm. F. Packer, of Lycoming County, nominated as the Democratic candidate for Governor.

Resolved, That Wm. J. Kealsh, Isaac Darlington, Jacob Kettlinger, Joseph M. Wilson, Alexander Sample, John Rishel, Nathan T. Mitchell, John A. Hunter, John Gingrich, Simon Yeager, Adam Shafer, John Harrison, Robert Smith, John Neff, Samuel Gilliland, John B. Meek, J. G. Laurimore, John Orr, William J. Yearick, George Taylor, Dr. C. R. Foster, John Cook, John B. Wells and William McCoy, are hereby appointed a standing committee for the ensuing year, and have full power to call all meetings and conventions that may be necessary during said term.

Resolved, That this convention tender to the editors of the Democratic Watchman and the Centre Berechter, their unfeigned thanks for the able manner they have advocated and defended the creed and principles of the Democratic party of Centre county: and recommend to our Democratic fellow citizens their sterling Democratic papers, by an enlargement of their subscription lists, accompanied by the material aid," as they have proved themselves worthy of our confidence and support.
