MARACTERISTICS OF THE RACE-SAD RESULTS OF A XARBIADS.

In England there are at most 1500 gipsies in France, they are hardly to be found at all; in Spain, the last census put them at 30,000, nearly all dwellers in cities, and followers of sedentary trades. Before the end of the present century, they will probably be extinct over Western Europe. The number of the Hungarian gipsies, acording to the ccusus of Maria Theresa, is 3,000 ; in Transylvania, they are reckoned bout 17,000 ; in Wallachia and Moldavia, ten years ago, there were 37,000 familie which at five to a family, would give 185, 900 souls; so that in the Principalities evorseightcenth person is a glpsy appears to in Russia, their number is probably nearly as great : but no accurate computation car made, as they lead an entirely wandering life, in summer grazing their cattle on the plains, and in winter encamping in the Of the gipsies of Hunlepths of the forest. gary and the Principalities, about one-fourth have partially settled down in the towns and villages, and live, the their Western breth-ren, by telling fortunes, cheating and pilfering, and ostensibly as buyers and sellers of burses and makes menders of kettles and street musicians.
