

The Watchman.

FOR PRESIDENT, JAS. BUCHANAN, OF PENNSYLVANIA. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE, OF KENTUCKY.

BELLEfonte, PENNA. WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1860.

EXAMINE YOUR TICKETS. The Democratic ticket for the October election, are now printed, and will be distributed by the Chairman of the County Committee, W. J. Kitchin.

STATE TICKET. FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER, GEORGE SCOTT, OF COLUMBIA COUNTY.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL, JACOB FRY, JR., OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL, JOHN ROWE, OF FRANKLIN COUNTY.

COUNTY TICKET. ALLISON WHITE.

JOHN SMITH, Penn township. HENRY BARNHART, Sr. WILLIAM BURCHFIELD.

JAMES H. RANKIN. JACOB POTTS GROVE. JACOB EHRHART.

NATHAN J. MITCHELL. WILLIAM KERR.

GEN E. W. STURDEVANT. This whole-souled, patriotic and influential old-line Whig has been doing good work in our county.

W. D. WALLACH, ESQ. OF VIRGINIA. This gentleman will address meetings in Bonkburg, Thursday evening, October 9, at 7 o'clock; at Old Fort, on Friday afternoon, Oct. 10, at 1 o'clock; also on Friday evening at 7 o'clock, at Spring Mills; on Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock, at Aronsburg; and on Saturday evening, at 7 o'clock, at Pottery Mills.

HARDMAN F. PETRIKEN. This young and ardent Democrat made his first speech at Zion, last Monday evening. He made a decided impression upon those assembled, by the able manner in which he handled his subject.

D. G. BUSII, ESQ. Will address the Democracy of Kirtown, Clearfield county, on Thursday evening at 7 o'clock, and on Friday at Philadelphia, Saturday in Boggs town.

ELLIS B. SCHNIDT. This champion of equal rights will address the Democracy of Centre county, on Saturday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, at Halbergsburg. Attend, friends.

W. H. SHOWN OVER THE DISUNION VICTORY IN MAINE. Not the patriotic friends of Henry Clay! Not the supporters of Daniel Webster! Not the followers and friends of John Sergeant, of Philadelphia!

Not but the enemies of the American Union, who plead against our institutions in the cities of New England, Garrison, and Wendell Phillips, and Theodore Parker, should ever the disunion victory in Maine, and when the result shall reach the European capitals, it will give as much joy as the burning of the city of Washington gave when the intelligence of that disaster was carried to the old world.

LETTERS WRITTEN at a recent meeting of the Democrats of New Hampshire, spoke with great eloquence. In the course of his speech he said that Fremont was a pathfinder, and has therein recognized his responsibility to Washington. Washington, they say, was a pathfinder. So he was. But Washington was a pathfinder for the Union; Fremont is the flunder of a path out of it!

CONGRESS—MAKING A BAD THING WORSE.

If ever a party put their foot in it, that party was the Know-Nothings of this Congressional district, in sending to Washington, Make-a-good-thing-of-it Pearce. Though a capital blatherer, doubtless, in their midnight lodges, he was as dumb as an oyster on the floor of the House of Representatives in Washington, except on that memorable occasion when he disgraced his State and this district by calling out beyond the bar the Hon. Wm. Millard, and whiskered into his ear a proposition to induce him to betray his trust, in return for a position on the Engraving Committee, in which he could hold the National Treasury, if choosing to play the scoundrel—which said position was to have been accorded to him by Abolition Union sliding Banks, in return for treachery similar to that of Make-a-good-thing-of-it Pearce, himself.

So far as intellect and standing at home is concerned, the lodges of this Congressional district, in nominating in place of Make-a-good-thing-of-it Pearce, have merely jumped out of the frying-pan into the fire, there being nothing wiser of Wm. H. Irvine, save and except a slight gift of gabble, inordinate perusal vanity and unquenchable thirst for office; and who, one year is in the favor of the doctrine of letting the people of the territories make their own laws, and then for the sake of a few Abolition votes, repudiate and oppose the same doctrine, proves that he is a political speculator and trimmer, willing to make all sacrifices of honor and honesty to accomplish his own purposes.

ONB VOTE. The importance of a single vote must not be disregarded if we would triumph at the polls—it should never be lost sight of for a moment—that the primary object is to defeat the enemy, who is master of great resources, and ready to employ them without scruple. The opposition is neither weak nor dispirited. Be assured that it will require the united rally of the Democracy, to overthrow them here. We should be watchful, and defeat them in their acts of fraud and corruption, which two years ago afforded them a disgraceful triumph. They have money, and will distribute it through all their secret agencies of corruption.

THE LOCK HAVEN WATCHMAN. The following card published in the last issue of this paper speaks for itself.

TO THE READERS OF THE WATCHMAN. With the present number of this paper, the connection of the undersigned with it ceases, having sold our interest to D. S. Dunham, Esq., by whom it will hereafter be conducted.

THE IMPORTANCE OF A SINGLE VOTE cannot be too much urged upon every Democrat who reads this short article, it may preserve the happiness of this generation, and insure to millions yet unborn, the sacred privileges we now enjoy. The importance of a single vote should lead every Democrat to make himself qualified to vote at the ensuing election.

THE ABOLITION STATE TICKET.—Look to it! Fremont was nominated to please Daniel Wilson, an Abolition renegade from the Democratic party—an out-and-out Disunionist. Phelps was nominated, to please William F. Johnston, another Abolition renegade from the Democratic party; known to be such by every man and boy in the State. Cochran has long been the associate and friend of Thaddeus Stevens, the very prince of Abolitionism. Laporte travels with Wilnot in abuse of Buchanan and Fillmore; Phelps is the echo of William F. Johnston in his abuse of Buchanan and Fillmore; and Thomas B. Cochran bitterly denounced Fillmore's Albany speech, in the streets of York.

DEMOCRATS BE ON YOUR GUARD.—A more desperate, dishonest and intriguing foe never met by any party than you have to fight in October. Let every Democrat look out for all manner of frauds. Let every Democrat repel every proposition "to trade off."

REMEMBER, FREEMEN, THAT EVERY MAN ON THIS-CALLED UNION STATE TICKET IS A FREEMONT ABOLITIONIST. THIS CANNOT BE DENIED.

CHILD BORN WITHOUT EYES.—The Boston Medical and Surgical Union chronicles a case in Shrewsbury, Mass., where a child was born without eyes. It was a healthy boy, well developed in every other respect. There were eyelids, but no eyeballs.

KNOW NOTHING COUNTY TICKET.

We did not intend to indulge in any remarks respecting the County ticket, nominated by the opposition, knowing that it would be rejected by the honest yeomanry of Centre county; but last week we noticed in the IVag, an article, attempting to reflect upon the political integrity of Col. Henry Barnhart, which has been resurrected by an interested politician, and garbled to suit his purpose. We can say without fear of contradiction, that Col. Henry Barnhart has ever been an uncompromising Democrat. His conduct has always been plain and straightforward, honest and fair, towards all men, politically and socially.

Col. Barnhart was brought forward by his friends, without his consent, as a candidate for the Legislature, in 1831, against John Hasson, who was not then recognized as a reliable Democrat, which after events proved. A committee of the Whig party waited on Col. Henry Barnhart, promising to give the whole Whig vote to him, if he would vote for their candidate for U. S. Senator.

Mr. Holmes of Maine, Member of Congress, addressed Jefferson a letter, which drew from him the following remarkable reply: Monticello, April 22, 1820. I thank you, dear Sir, for the copy you have so kindly sent me of the letter to your constituents on the Missouri question. It is a perfect justification to them.

THE BUREAU CONSPIRACY AND THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.—The Burr conspiracy to divide the Union is the only precedent for the Fremont party in attempting to do the same thing.

THOMAS JEFFERSON.

His Opinion of the Missouri Compromise. THE DEMOCRACY TRUE TO THEIR CREED. We frequently hear it stated by Republican orators and newspapers, that they are followers of Jefferson, and that by the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, the Democratic party, of 1844, deviated from the principles of the Jeffersonian Democracy of 1820.

On the 6th of February, 1821, he wrote: "All I fear, do not see the speak in our horizon which is to burst on us as a tornado, sooner or later. The line of division, lately marked out between different portions of our confederacy, is such as will never, I fear, be obliterated."

Such were the opinions of Jefferson upon the Missouri Compromise line. Yet Black Republicans are to be the followers of Jefferson.

LET IT BE REMEMBERED. That on the 10th of July, what was called a "Kansas Aid Convention," was convened at Buffalo, and a programme of evil was deliberately adopted. It was determined to raise a fund, "which should not fall short of $100,000 each month."

Mr. Holmes of Maine, Member of Congress, addressed Jefferson a letter, which drew from him the following remarkable reply: Monticello, April 22, 1820. I thank you, dear Sir, for the copy you have so kindly sent me of the letter to your constituents on the Missouri question.

It is only the John Doe and Richard Roe of the election. The real question, as seen in the States, and our slaves to be professedly free and stagger? For Congress has the power to regulate the condition of the inhabitants of the States, within the States, it will be but another exercise of that power to declare that all shall be free.

After the storm had passed over, he wrote November 4th, 1823, to Lafayette: "On the eclipse of Federalism with us, though not its extinction, its leaders got up the Missouri question, under the false form of lessening the measures of slavery."

READ AND BE CONVINCED.

THE SO-CALLED UNION STATE TICKET never was an embodiment of the spirit of our country, and we would ever wish to see it abandoned by its authors.

We are authorized by the Democratic State Central Committee to lay before our readers, and the public at large, the following evidence of the so-called Union State Ticket, for which National men, the friends of Fillmore, and all believers in Constitutional principles, are expected to vote on the fourteenth of October.

After the storm had passed over, he wrote November 4th, 1823, to Lafayette: "On the eclipse of Federalism with us, though not its extinction, its leaders got up the Missouri question, under the false form of lessening the measures of slavery."

PHILADELPHIA CORRESPONDENCE.

PHILADELPHIA, October 4, 1860. Mr. Editor:—Since I last wrote you, the political campaign has not ceased to "boil and bubble," nor has the excitement in regard to the chances of the different candidates been one iota less.

The Republicans are getting more anxious every day for a thorough Union with the Fillmore men, and the whole cause of it, they do not wish to let their weakness be known; for that they are in a very heavy minority hereabouts, no reasonable man will deny. Their amalgamation has had one good effect at least, and that is to drive a large number of votes to the folds of the good old Democratic party, from which they had become momentarily estranged.

Great preparations are making in regard to the Agricultural Fair which is to open next week at Ploverton. The parade of the butchers, which is to take place on Thursday, in honor of the event, will be a grand and imposing affair, and one which should be witnessed by all who can make it convenient to visit our city on the occasion.

A new Sunday paper, to be called The Sunday Transcript, is about to be started in this city, by Johnson, Greene & Co., but it won't set the river on fire! The proprietors are, or have been, connected with the Morning Times of this city, a bitter Republican sheet, which is kept aloft by the aid of ex-Gov. Johnston and Mariposa bonds.

The number of deaths in this city during the week ending to-day, was 202. Of consumption, 11; scarlet fever, 17; cholera, 88; diphtheria, 114; and one year old.

The weather is getting winter-like, and overcoats and stoves begin to get in demand, while we are compelled to blow our hands to take the numbness from them. But why should we not like winter, for it brings with it pleasant evenings at home, and that great event to the juveniles, good, glorious old Christmas, and the ever welcome visit of old St. Nicholas, or "Bismarck," as some delight to term the old gentleman.—And then comes those joyous times for the lads and lassies, when

Table, under all the night and day. Are heard the merry bells of the good old sleigh—as they bound with bells of gold over the white mantle which nature has spread, as it were, to hide her beauties from human gaze. But then there is another shade to the picture. We allude to the poor! the many worthy poor to whom such joys never come, and whose nature causes them to shrink from making known their wants, preferring to struggle on in misery and hopelessness. God help the poor! and oh ye who are blessed with plenty, open your hearts and pour forth the balm of comfort on their wounds, now that the trying season is about to commence; at the same time remembering what a glorious promise is made to you by a munificent Creator.

A meeting of our merchants and manufacturers has been announced to take place to-night at the National Hall, of those who are opposed to the election of John C. Fremont. It is intended as an offset to the Bank meeting to come off Monday. Yours, T. P.
