

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

LOCK HAVEN AND TYRONE RAILROAD.—J. M. McMillin, Esq., Chief Engineer, has commenced surveying the line between Bellefonte and Tyrone.

MR. THOMAS J. TAYLOR has removed his Ambulance Car, to Unionville, where he will remain only for a limited time. We advise the citizens of that locality to secure an excellent likeness while a favorable opportunity is presented to them.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.—There will be a meeting of the Democracy of Bellefonte and vicinity in the room of the Bellefonte Democratic Club, on next Saturday evening, October 17th. Let there be a large turn out of all the friends of the Union and the Constitution. Come one, come all.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Mr. Robert J. Haynes, of Howard, met with a serious accident last week. He was out hunting in company with a friend, whose gun accidentally discharged and lodged the contents (a large quantity of fine shot) in his back. Mr. Haynes was doing well at last accounts.

THE AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—The fair of the Centre county Agricultural Society held near this borough on the 15th, 16th, and 17th, was not so well attended as was expected, on account of the election excitement. The premiums awarded will be published as soon as we get a correct list.

AMUSEMENTS.—The Arcade picture rooms at the present time are attracting unusual attention. Mr. J. S. Barnhart informs us that this new style of pictures has almost entirely superseded the Daguerrotypes. Our young artist it is well known has but few equals, and the public seem to fully appreciate this fact by the generous patronage he has been receiving.

ADVICE.—The Harrisburg Telegraph advises the Democracy to remove an arch across one of the streets in Harrisburg. The Telegraph gave the advice under the impression that the Abolition State ticket was elected. We take the article from the Telegraph and apply it to Bellefonte.

WE would suggest to our Know-Nothing friends the propriety of removing the arch which spans the street at Allegheny and Howard, and which was erected in the triumphal hour of Know-Nothingism and Abolitionism to march under on the memorable 10th of October. We do this, not because we conceive we have any right to interfere in such matters, but because we sympathize with our friends in their afflictions, and that we would gladly do anything to remove the cause of their afflictions. We throw our minds back to the ever-to-be-remembered 10th—that day when the "un-terrible" were to be out in their might, and move Heaven and earth. The day has passed, and the arch has served its purpose.—We, therefore, suggest its removal, and hope that our friends will properly appreciate this act of kindness on our part.

MEETING OF THE DEMOCRACY OF BELLEFONTE.—On last Saturday evening, the friends of the Constitution and the Union, met at the room of the Democratic Club.—The meeting was called to order by the selection of the following officers: President—B. Galbraith.

VICE PRESIDENTS.—H. Trezuly, Henry Kabelle. Secretary—C. Harrod. On motion Henry Hays read the latest news to the meeting, when three cheers were given for the Democracy of Pennsylvania, and three cheers for old Centre.

D. G. Bush Esq., was called on and made a few appropriate remarks, after which Ira C. Mitchell addressed the meeting at considerable length, eliciting applause from those assembled. The following resolution was unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That we will prepare a magnificent Democratic banner, and present the same, to the election District Centre county, that will poll the largest increased Democratic vote, in proportion to the number of voters, at the Presidential election—the increase to be estimated from the poll of the 14th inst.

The meeting adjourned to meet on next Saturday evening, in the Club room.

A FREMONT'S OPINION OF FILLMORE.—Bennett's New York Herald of October 1st, 1856, after having appealed to every body to vote the Fremont State Ticket, Fillmore men and abjurers of Mr. Fillmore and his friends:

"It is founded upon the meanest, bloodiest and diabolical of all the black catalogue of human abominations—the base instincts and savage prejudices of religious intolerance, bigotry and fanaticism; the sum and substance of its creed is, down with the Pope, down with the Jesuits, down with the Catholics, down with the Irish and Germans, and all aliens; down with the Constitution, and up with a Protestant inquisition and a general persecution, political, religious and social, against every man who cannot pass the cross-examination of our secret lodges."

"Mr. Fillmore himself is Unitarian—a disbeliever in the vital principles of Christianity; but rather a sympathizer with the teachings of Tom Paine. In Rome he did as Romulus do—he respected his observance of their religion, but sought the good of Pope, Cardinals and Jesuits. Returning home he instantly threw himself into the arms of his sect's Pope, native-born, nothing sectional faction—this base-born faction of desperate demagogues, unscrupulous adventurers and reckless ruffians; and he contended against every man who cannot pass the cross-examination of our secret lodges."

WITHERING DENUNCIATION OF THE BLACK-REPUBLICAN PARTY BY MILLARD FILLMORE.

Millard Fillmore delivered a speech in Albany, New York, in July, in which he thus referred to the Black-Republican party: "Suppose that the South, having a majority of the electoral votes, should declare that they would only vote for a slaveholder for President and Vice-President, and should elect such by their exclusive suffrages to rule over us at the North. Do you think we would submit to it? No, not for a moment. [Applause.] And do you believe that your Southern brethren are less sensitive on this subject than you are, or less jealous of their rights? [Tremendous cheering.] If you do, let me tell you that you are mistaken. And therefore, you must see that IF THIS SECTIONAL PARTY SUCCEEDS, IT LEADS INEVITABLY TO THE DESTRUCTION OF THIS BEAUTIFUL FABRIC REARED BY OUR FATHERS, COMPLETED BY THEIR BLOOD, AND BEQUESTED TO US AS A PRICELESS INHERITANCE."

I tell you, my friends, that I feel deeply, and therefore I speak earnestly on this subject, (and cry "You're right!") for I feel that we are in danger. I am determined to meet you on this subject, and with my hands of the consequences, whatever they may be; and I tell you that we are treating upon the brink of a volcano, that is liable at any moment to burst forth and overwhelm the nation.

It seems to me impossible that those engaged in this can have contemplated the awful consequences of success. It breaks asunder the bonds of our Union, and spreads anarchy and civil war through the land, what is less than moral treason? ("Cries of 'nothing—nothing—less!'") Law and common sense hold a man responsible for the natural consequences of his acts, and that he who acts with intent to the destruction of the government, he equally held responsible? ("Cries of 'yes! yes!'")

A SAD CASE.—Some of our readers may recollect the history of a young woman alluded to in the following extract from the Cincinnati Gazette of Monday:—"Some two or three years ago, a fair-haired maiden left her home near Patterson, N. J., with a man who claimed to have the most honorable intentions, but who after seducing, abandoned her in Pittsburg. Ashamed to return home, yet friendless and desolate, the girl had still so much resolution as to resolve to obtain work in one of the cotton factories of Allegheny city, and thus maintain herself decently. She carried out this resolve and conducted herself with the utmost propriety, but the fibers of the cotton aggravated a tendency to pulmonary affection, and the poor girl was at last forced to seek other employment. She took to plain sewing but at last this failed, and with the hope of doing better, she came to Cincinnati, and took board with a very kind lady in the water-part of the city, but caught a severe cold and this fastened the consumption on her. For months, as she was, she worked on by her needle, but recently she became so ill that she was confined to bed. Yearning to see her old home once more, she told her story to the lady with whom she boarded, who wrote to the girl's relations and asked them to come for her. In response to this, a sister of the girl's came West, but only arrived in season to have the suffering wreck of womanhood die in her arms. One day last week the sister started back home, taking with her the corpse of the unhappy girl, whose life had been made so brief and bitter by man's heartlessness."

CONNECTICUT TOWN ELECTION.—The New Haven Register gives a list of the towns in Connecticut which have held their elections. They stand: Democratic, 69; Abolition, 4; divided, Democratic gains 21; Abolition gains 10—Democratic net gain 14.

AS THE DEMOCRATS have a national ticket with an electoral ticket—and a large majority or a powerful and active minority in each State of the Union, with open and national issues in their platform, with national men for their candidates, the national flag for their guide, and protection, they have nothing to fear from an exposition of their sentiments, or the closest scrutiny into their quality of measures.

AN INTELLIGENT JURY.—In a case of sudden death, recently, in Warren county, Miss. a coroner's inquest was held, and the verdict was, that "the deceased died by the will of God, or some other disease, unknown to the jury."

AS OLD CASHEIR.—Charles Sprague, Cashier of the Globe Bank, Boston, Massachusetts, for thirty-two years past, is sixty-four years old, and is now ready to pay the sixty-fourth dividend of that institution with his own hands.

WOMEN'S VOTE ILLEGALLY.—Whilst the President was on his way to New Hampshire and passing through Connecticut, a vote for the Presidency was taken in the train in which he was a passenger. The President refused to vote, "as he was not a voter in Connecticut." A sensible and a witty reply.

PRINTING VERSUS PUBLISHING.—A young lady explained to a printer, the other day, the distinction between printing and publishing, and at the conclusion of her remarks by way of illustration said:—"You may print a kiss on my cheek, but you must not publish it."

FRAUDS IN GUANO.—The last issue of the American Farmer contains an advertisement from the State Inspector of Guano in Maryland, urging farmers to destroy or erase the marks on guano bags after emptying them. There is little doubt but that importation is effected through the use of second-hand bags, and although there is a heavy penalty for this offence, it is difficult to obtain such "legal" evidence as will convict.

THE FUGITIVE SLAVE LAW CARRIED OUT.—About a year ago, a slave boy escaped from Mobile in the bark Growler, and made his way to Canada. The Mobile Tribune states that Mr. R. Sheridan, his owner, kept a sharp eye on the movements of the Growler, and on her recent arrival in New Orleans, he pointed on her commander for the value of the slave, and got it—the agent of the owner having promptly paid the captain's order in favor of Mr. Sheridan for $1200.

AN ENGLISH MISER.—Daniel Dancer, when he had £3000 a year, used to beg, pluck and snuff from all his friends, and when his box was full, bartered its contents for a tall candle. But his parsimonious ingenuity appears contemptible in comparison with that of the Russian miser, who learned to bark, that he might avoid the expense of keeping a dog.

RECEIPTS AT THE NATIONAL FAIR.—The following exhibits the receipts of the National Fair Philadelphia: Tuesday, $2,800; Wednesday, 7,200; Thursday, 15,000; Friday, 1,500; Saturday, 7,855. Total, $33,555.

ARTIFICIAL ICE.—An ice machine has just been completed at the Ouyahoga Iron Works, Cleveland, Ohio, which is capable of producing one ton of solid crystal ice in twenty hours. A trial has recently been made with the above result while the mercury stood at 80 degrees in the apartment. The estimated expense of manufacturing ice by such a machine is $5 per ton, or one-fourth of a cent per pound.

THE MARKET.

PHILADELPHIA, October 16, 1856. Commodities in steady demand at $7 to $7 1/2 per 100 lbs, but there is no good prospect. In Timothy and Flaxseed nothing doing. In the Flour market there is no new feature to present. There is but little export demand, and the only transactions reported are 6 to 700 barrels at $4 75 per barrel for standard brands, and $7 1/2 to $7 25 for extra. The receipts are different about equaling the amount exported. There is a fair inquiry for fine consumption at former rates. No sales of Rye Flour were made at $3 75. Best Meal is held firmly at $3 75 per barrel, with sales of 500 barrels Pennsylvania at this rate.

GRAIN.—There was more wheat offered on "Change this morning, but the demand was good and prices well maintained. Sales of 9 to 10,000 bushels Southern Pennsylvania at $1 55 per bushel for prime red, including some of inferior quality at $1 00, and fair and prime white at $1 65 to $1 70. Rye was wanted, and sold on credit at 40 cents. Corn is in fair request, and 6,000 bushels sold at $4 60 for 67 cents bushel; and 40 cents in store. Oats are in demand and have advanced 1 cent for bushel—6 to 7000 bushels prime Delaware sold at 42 to 48 cents, about.

DEVAL'S GALVANIC OIL is one of the best remedies known for the permanent cure of Rheumatism, Gout, Pain, and weakness in the back, Gouty humors, and all kinds of Inflammation. Sold by A. A "FAST" MAN.—The Petersburg (Va.) Intelligencer says there is a man in that city who smokes, chews and drinks to the following tune: 244 quarts brandy drunk; one mill and seven-eighths of tobacco chewed; and three and a half miles of cigars smoked in one year. Rather a hard case.
