"BELLEFONIE, PENNA TERRESDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1856.

The Day!

The Presidential election takes place on the 4th of November. Let every man who loves his country be at his post-cvery man at his gan. One sustained fire, and the day risburg Telegraph and all the Fillmore-Freis our own!

Examine your Tickets!

The reckless opponents of Democracy will use the most despicable means to secure the overthrow of that party, and we caution our friends to look out for spurious Electoral tickets. Examine your tickets carefully and see that every name he correct.

Keep the Fire Burning!

We killed the enemy on Tuesday last, in Pennsylvania, but we must bury him on the 4th of November. To do so effectually, let our friends every where throughout the county and the State keep up their organization, and make arrangements without delay to poll every Buchanan vote If this is dame, and it must and will be done-Mr. Buchanas will sweep the State by from 25,000 to 50. 000 majority.

Freemen!

Do you love your country I If you do, the inserutie ticket. Do you love the Union? If so, vote with the party that defunds its honors as a Nation, and guarantees sovereign power to each and every State. - Simon Cameron, John McCornick, Do you believe the Constitution to be a secfraction instrument? If not, vote with the Russell F. Loren, Fracturing E. Farith.

Abram Updegraff, party that maintains its National application. Do you believe our glorious constellation contains but sixteen stars! If not, vote with that party who contends for therey-one!

Young Man,

How are you going to cast your sute,? How begin your political life? Will you e a record that will haunt you the balance of your days? Will you vote with a party that has but one idea, and that a false one? Will you indentify yourself with a sectional party, that cannot exist but a single year, and then be blown out like a candle? Where will you be the next year? Look to this, young man. There is no event of your life of more importance than this .-Begin right. That is every thing to you.

The Fusion.

The corrupt and hypocritical leaders of the Fillmore and Fremont party think they have played their last card adroitly, and that they will succeed in making all four points BUCHANAN ston, Ritner & Company, have succeeded by which honest, national men were to be made vote an Abolition ticket, whether they were willing or not, and they hered some interior party workers in each locality to play second fiddle for them and keep those in the Fillmore ranks, who would cast their votes für Pennsylvania's favorite son, James Buchanan, rather than for the cattle spec ulator-rather than go it blinds

A fusion ticket has been formed on a basis well calculated to apread the anare of deception prepared by Wilmot & Company, into every nook and corner of our State to leceive honest men, who would rather lose their right hand than vote for Fremont, into his support—unless they will look around them, and by examination and thought, conrince themselves of the fraud, so basely at

Over exactly the same twenty-aix names is placed the name of Millard Fillmore, which forms a ticket that Fillmore men are called upon by Governor Pollock, Secretary Curtin, The Har-

The Contest and its Moral.

As a journalist we have the pleasure to congratulate the people of Centre county, and the readers of the Watchman, upon the result of the late election. If eyer there and win the game. Wilmot, Stevens, John- was a contest in which the issue of principle was involved, the late election presented idmirably in the scheme long since devised such a contest, because it involved all the ramifications of politics, and invited a discussion of business interests with trade reciprocity. Pennsylvania iš a State which naturally demands national legislation .-Her foreign trade makes her a suppliant at the door of Congress. Her domestic industry demands Congressional legislation, and her vast and inestimable resources render her jealous of the actions of those who are chosen to give tone and temper to State and National legislation. With these assurances guaranteed, will make her in business what she is in geographical reputation—the Keystone of the political, as, well as the business arch of the Union.

The late election in Pennsylvania proves the fact, that upon an issue of principles the people are devoted to the creed of Democracy. We need adduce no other fact in proof of this assertion than that which redeemed the Congressional district of which farther in saying that the same county has redecined herself by the election of a member of the House, when a United States Senator is to be chosen, to represent our vast and accumulating trade in the national legislature of the country. Pennsylvania has more than once been called on to decide the destines of the nation by her omnipotent voice. She done so under the financial crisis which crushed the United States Bankshe done so in the acquisition of territory in our North castern boundary discussionshe done so in the establishment of the Sub Treasury, and she has done so now by the extinguishment of factions which were sworn to the obliteration of birth-right, and the destruction of religious altars. With these facts before us, and with the efact that Centre county has once more enrolled herself under the glorious banner of Democracy, we ask the hardy vectuanry of the county to come up to their work on Tuesday next. We ask so nobly sustained by the election of a Congressman. We ask them for the reasons assigned above, to support Buchanan and Breckinridge as a re-endorsement of an avowal of sound national principles.

WHAT WE WANT We want, (says the Pittsburgh Post) to lect Buchanan entirely by Northern electoral votes. Can it be done? Is it not at that New Hampshire, Connecticut, and Rhode Island will cast their 15 electoral votes for Pennsylvania's favorite son. Of New York and New Jersey we have no doubt. Our friends there assure us that all is well. That makes 57: Pennsylvania is perfectly sure-81; Michigan, Indiana, Illinois added-114. In Ohio, it is said that the Fillmore electoral ticket will poll nearly 50,000 votes. Take that fact, and the late election result together, and the State is sure for Buchanan: that makes 137: California brings it up to 141. In lows there is a sonarate Fillmore ticket, and the last election there was permistently claimed as a Fillmore triumph. If the Fillmore ticket polls even 8.000 votes, the Democrats will carry the State. This makes 145. It takes 149 to Democratic County Committee.

The Chairman of the Democratic County ongratulatory language, the Democracy of Centre county upon the result of the recent election. Centre county has more than discharged her duty. She has redeemed her past error by a present unmistakable proof of a sound adherence to national principles. The contest through which we have passed was one which involved the test of principle, brought out the varied and conflicting interests of trade by the election of a Congressman, and it also demanded our serious, consideration from the fact that a United States Sen ator was to be chosen by the next Pennsyl; vania Legislature. With these substantial reasons the people of Centre County were carefully guided in their choice of men, and as carefully admonished in their adoption of iron, their coal, lumber and agricultural infloor of the popular branch of Congress. -They cast their vote for a representative at QUIRT RESTORED. For the Democratio Watchman. Mr. Crosthwaite, there is an unwarrantable and uninstifiable attack upon the Cathoommittee, deems it his duty to address in the priest located in this place. He puts forth over a column of abuse because the Catholic clergyman exercised the privilege of voting. Does not our free Constitution conventee to all the citizens of car beloved land the same dear rights? Am not all alike, freemen, and the common recipients of the blessings that our free government produces? Has not one Minister of Christ as many rights as another in this land of boasted Republicanism, where " an religious test shall ever be required." and where our fathers built their altars, declaring that men could worship God according to the dictates of their own consciences. Have not our Presbyterian, Methodist and other ministers voted at our polls year after year, and no man presumed to question the propriety of measures. They cast their vote in favor of their act, or to malign them for exercising a Democrat for Congressman because their that undeniable right. If our forefathers who fled from persecution to build up a govterests demanded a practical man on the erument of common and universal freedom; could look down from their homes above and behold the contracted and bigoted proscriptionists who tread upon the soil they consecrated by their blood to equality and toleration; if the pure record of their lives is a crittrion from which to judge, they would pronounce the most bitter anathemas upon those who are endeavoring to excite the passions and prejudices of our citizens against their fellow-men on account of their burth place or religion. Yes, the priest voted, but he did not "lead sixty mem to the polls." to keep back native-born citizens. Crosthwaite's sheet to the contrary notwithstanding. We assert, and our assertion can be substantiated by the affidavits of our most respectable citizens, that but one member of his church accompanied him to the polls, and that member stands as high in the community as any man in Centre county, at whose solicitation he consented to vote. We tions. We must not let our faith in victory assert farther, that the belt of the church make us idle in the hope of future success did not ring that morning, that the church was not open, that the Catholics nearly allvoted before dinner, and the priest not untilnear evening, as the poll list will show .---These are facis that can be substantiated, and they add new testimony to the charac ter of Chrosthwaite's paper, for falschood and dishonesty. Shame on that member of m our national history is one of imminent a Christian church who would so diagrace importance. Lousianna came to the bosom of the trated, and feel a conscientious inclination to make reparation. If he will think for a moment of the meek, forgiving disposition of his Master, in whose footsteps he professesto follow, he must certainly feel conscious that he has forgotten his high calling andgone back to " wallow in the milie." But knowing as we do, that his paper is not credtherefore feels it his duty thus briefly to lay ited even by the members of his own party. we will pass him by for the present, with the hope that he may yet see the evil of his ways, and endeavor to act in accordance with that spirit that dictates justice and equal rights to all mankinds Rellefonte Pa.

For the Watchman Mr. EDITOR-The Fillmore and Museumt speakers who have been atumping the county during the present political canvass, are every where telling the people that the Democratic party of the present day is not what it formerly was-that it has changed front, and strayed away from the old paths, and fallen

They say that Measrs. McAllister, Hasson, Toner & Company, stand where they always stood, holding fast the old Democratic doctrines -uprightly, faithfully, truly, the types of the old party, but that the party has left them and its principles both. Now that these men say what they know to be untrue, is what we are not willing to sertion of such falschoods, with the facts that every one who "runs may read.

Were not H. N. McAllister, Hasson, Toner & Commany, and the other gentlemen

Were not Joseph Ritner, Thadeus Stevens, C. B. Penrose, Wm. F. Johnston, and Fenn of the Pennsylvania Telegraph, opposed to us then? Are they not oppsed to us now? Have they changed too ! If so, then the Demperatic party, dreading contact with these political lepers, was forced to change also, If they did not change, then you have, for you and they were acting and voting togethe r until Tuesday the 14th, and since have been endeavoring to make a fusion ticket.
