ed fran e eus? i'

THE ONLY ENGLISH DEMOCRATIC, NEWS-PRINTED AND PUBLISHED EVERY WEDSESDAY, B

HENRY HAYS.

PHRES--51,50 in advance, or if paid within six months. 82,00 will be charged on all subscriptions tuning to the end of the year. By SHTTERMENTS and Business Notices inserted by the usual rates, and every description of EXECUTE I in the acatest manner, at the lowest private, and at the lowest private, and at hir most despatch. Having period at a large collection of type, we are prepared in acting the orders of our friends.

DEMOCRATIC CREED.

No. 2. The right of States and Territories to administer their own domastic affairs.

No. 4. Preston And squality, the severaignty of the heapte and the right of the majority, to the phosphe, will be supply the majority of the fact the constitutionally expressed. Not. 3. Exposes in the public explainment and a screet preservation of public furth.

No. 6. President of Testington, freedom of the press and whether different of information.

No. 1. Opposition to all exercispitutes organizations and to all corruptions in politics.

No. 8. Tracrets preservation of the Peteral Commission, and no religious estate, for affect.

No. 9. No ingerty, or pride of custe, or dissinction of birth amont, Imerican citizans.

No. 10. Respect and protection for the rights of all.

No. 10. Respect ann pro-of all.
No. 11: The preservation of the naturalization laws, and the right of all to the public domain and the presertion of the American government No. 12. Opposition to all chartered monopolies No. 13, Common brotherhood and good will to all—supposed by the household of

BELLEFONTE, PENNA.

WEDNISDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1856.

DANGER OF WEARING HOOPS IN A HIGH WIND .- The Detroit Advertiser says, the the dust was circulating so thick that no one could see more than the length of an eyelash in front, a lady, dressed in the most elegant style; in coming round one of the of the wind acting on the great expanse of that the young man had thirty dollars in surface which she presented to it. The when the transfer and the set her down lowing the one who struck the fatal blow, in the same position in which she was before two dollars the most. being taken up, but turning her gently on one mide; it laid her endwise on the ridewalk where the commenced a series of astonishing gyrations, rolling over and over on the hoops of the Alleus and exhibiting a species of becometion which may come into fashion James Buchanan is esteemed by the friends arguments of carned length and thunderwith high winds and large circlets of light and neighbors who have known him long ing sound? addressed by the two worthles material. As the lady thus rolled over and and well: material. As the lady thus rolled over and ner, several persons were knocked down and passed over by the lady and the hoops, without ever knowing that anything had but them. Fortunately for the lady, the dust and the astonishment of the people out of doors permitted but a few to witness this new method of getting along in a stiff breeze and keeping up full sail at the same time. As we came round a corner we found the lady medged between a lamp post and a hydrant, and immediately assisted her to an upright instead of a recumbent position.

eighty-four feet above high water mark, and water. Mr. J. W. Bissell, of Rochester, N. two millions of dollars.

An Adap Tores .- Mr. George Angstadt, the oldest resident of Rockland township, went to the polls on Tuesday last, and cast his rate for Buchanan and Breckinridge. Mr. Angatadt is in his 102d year, and has voted for all the Democratic Presidents, from Washington down to our own Buchanan. May this aged patriarch live to behold th bessed fruits of once more sustaining the party that, through good and evil report, has ever stood firmly by the Constitution and the Union. - Reading Gazette.

Ar Ifinia .- A just cause for rejoicing by the Democracy is the overwhelming majorily received by Buchanan in his own State. In New York his native State, Fillmore is the third candidate. The returns from Cal-

AFFAIRS IN KANSAS A MURDER-Mr. Manager of the 11 siys:

Mr. Richard McCamish arrived in Westport yesterilay afternoon from the Bull Creek; he reports a Mr. Glenville shot by the Abolitionists and himself robbed. Glenville has been living on the claim of Reese Jones, Esq., and he was driven away from Toy Creek by Dr. Westfall's crew.—ife was on his way to Missouri, driving a wagon loaded with Jones' furniture, when near Bull Creek, on the Santa Fe road, he was stopped by four men who demanded his money. He had none with him. One of the money. He had none with him. One of the assassing tried to shoot him with a revolver sent for the wounded man, and when he are rives we will be able to get his statement No. 1. Equal and exact justice total men of the second state or persuasson, religious or political. (1) . Equal and exact justice total men of the second state or persuasson, religious or political. (1) . The sight of States and Territories to the second state of th Mr. McCamish, an industrious, deservand took clothes, a saddle and bridle, and soveral blankets. He saw and could identify the intestion. They note off galloping to the direction of Black Jack. Gov. Gray. Truly has a bad time of it, trying to restore order and enforce obedience to the laws.— We stop the press to give this late news ; it

> A COLD BLOODED MURDER .- It will be recollected, says the N. Bedford, Mass. Standard that a short time since, the dead body of a young man by the name of Ghase, was found in Swanzey, under circumstances which led to the belief that he was murdered by a man who was last seen in his company, by the name of Vanderhoof, living in Bomer-set. A day or two ago Vanderhoof was arwind on Saturday afternoon last, and while rested, and when informed of what he was accused, he fainted. Subsequently he confessed the foul deed, and implicated an accomplice by the name of Dexter, who has also made a confession. Both of them have corrects, was lifted off her feet by the force been committed to Taunton Jail. They say money, and they agreed to divide at by all grand jury. The other, unoccupied by the money, and they agreed to divide at by all cares of public office, indulged his fancy wate for him as will tell the country, in a by consent, an imaginary log thief was armanner not to be misinterpreted, how highly raigned, an agreed case of the evidence, and

and well:			, .
Lan	caster (uy-F
1			UBIOY,	-
1	Buch.	Prem.	Fill m	Fellm
N. E. Ward.	407	113	112	59
N. W. Ward,	663	83	120	160
B. E. Ward	537	47	100	62
H. E. Ward,	-300	-53	71	50
ļ	1897	. 295	403	331
Total Fusion v	ces oto
4			,	· .

prediction appeared in the New York Jour! selves, when sunset was approaching, still Ausgies, thus classes the five great evaluations in the United States.

The Congregationalists and Presbyterians practical purposes."

A Susuantion Bailds is to be built across this friends for an expected visit from the the Mississippi at St. Louis, Missouri, to be President elect."

will be 60 feet below the surface of low case of Sylvester Lynn, a Scotchman, who gration—the time late winter or early spring, landed in Chicago in 1846 with two sover-Y., has received the appointment of engineer. igns in his pocket. A few weeks since he and a fresh breeze blowing, before which The bridge is expected not to cost less than gave to the trustees of the Presbyterian the fires sweep over the levels like flect cour-University, about to be established at Forest sers, tossing their glowing manes, or surge Lake, twenty-five miles north of the city, upward on the rising ground, like the bile the munificent sum of one hundred thousand lows of that tremendous see, upon which the dollars, ($100,000.) In consequence of this huge form of Satan "lay floating many a act the trustees have determined to call the rood." Compared with this, mere artificial institution the Lynn University. .

> valuable "document" during the late canvass. It touched the right nerve and produced a thrill of patriotism throughout the republio :

"A union of lakes—a union of lands— A union of States note may sover; A union of hearts—a union of hands— And the flag of our Union forever!"

THE JERREY CITY Telegraph is a decidedly

THE TATALOG ... And naked lies the shivering vine; While dimfy o'er the distant seas The fading light of aummer shine; Along the lawn the negro blows Deep summors on his poonds there And homeward troop the girls and beaux From husking of the corn.

I mind me well that autnum day, When five and twenty gears ago, We turned our labor into play,

And hu ked the sorn for neighbor Lowe. That a'er to woulded love were bern! For I was gay and you were fair:

A busking of the corp.

Oh how we sting and how we laughed ! Our hearts mat lightly on our lipe. As we the golden older qualled, And passed the bowl with rustic quips.
And when sly bints of love went round, You glaused at me with pouting soom?

Then when I found the scarlet ear, You hade me not approach too near, And pleaded that and pleaded this-Away you fied and I pursued; Till all too faint you were to warn.
And—know you not how well I wood

Yet smiled, thu' you fain would frown, A husling of the corn,

A husting of the corn THE BURNT PRAIRIE

A TALE OF CONSCIENCE. "I do perceive here a divided duty."

On a fine afternoon early in the spring, about twenty-five years ago, two young attorneys were travelling leisurely across an extensive prairie in one of the Western States. They were on their way to attend a circuit court of a frontier county, which embraced about one fourth of the territory of the state, with a very small portion of its population; but which has been, in process of time, cut up into three or four Congressional districts. One of them had recently been appointed States' attorney of the circuit, and would occasionally breaths himself in a sort of field day exercise, by way of preparation for an intended charge upon the now and then in pleasing visions of prisoners vindicated by his triumphant eloquence. Bechanan ar Honn, Lancaster city, the who would pour out their grafftude and home of the President cleat, gives such a money in equal profusion. Once or twice, supposed to listen with attention and inter-

These amusements were varied from time to time by draughts upon their respective stores of song and anecdote, as well as on the orcature comforts which they carried in their saddle baga and pocket flasks. As the day declined, however, all their resources, mental and physical, were well nigh exhaus-A PREDICTION VERIFIED. -The following icd. Tired and hungry, they found themnal of Commerce, of the issue of April 26 : six or eight miles from the country seat; a PROTESTANTS IN THE UNITED STATES.—Dr. delphis have refused the use of the Hall of terminable. On a sudden, however, one of Baird, in his new edition of Religion in Independence for the recryption of the Hall of contrivance for striking fire (lucifer matches Ch. Min. Moss. Pop.

Ch. Min. Moss. Pop.

Loss 1,742 108,850 1,012,00

Pretylegiap, 10,565 6,477 938 318 5,600,000

Repleacement, 14,070

Methodist, 14,606 8,478 1,327,400 3,900,000

Methodist, 14,606 8,478 1,327,400 3,900,000

Methodist, 14,606 8,400 3,750,000 720,600

Latherane, 15,000 3,750,000 720,600

Latherane, 15,000 3,750,000 720,600

The connection with the above we give the occurrence for striking fire (lucifer matches were not yet;) and having started the blaze cleveriy on either side of the read, that respondence of the Baltimoro San:

Sumed their journey, often terming to mark the progress of the flames; and to admire the progress of the flames; and to admire

There are few fluer sights than a burning flints about right " prairie. It should be a wild and wide prairia-with the grass four or five feet high, unwhen the grass is as dry and crisp as tinder fire works are utterly insignificent, and show GREERAL MORRIE'S national lyric, "The as contemptably, as the sulphur and sheetflag of our Unique forever," proved a most iron of autormatthe theatre would de incomalogue, between "Jove" and "the joyous

"The offence of hog stealing was so common in those days, that it might have been termed an epidemic as regarded individuals. and a chronic disorder in the body politic.— The criminal docket never failed to exhibit hilf a dozon cases every term. Some thought it grew out of the habit of hunding dark."
"varmints," and the difficulty of teaching "varmints," and the difficulty of teaching frontier men that "wild logg" were private property, and not "fera natura." Others champion in the van of a foriorn hope enveloped in fiames from its base to the top- was obliged to firef he gun; but he meant to most twig, and displaying against the dark pull the trigger very gently indeed. aight sky a respiehdant and intricate cross of fire It bronder to mind foreibly the idea point where it threatened invesion. Their tance, heightened the wild effect of the scene, right of the sufferer to damages for his loss. generally visit with exemplary penalties the offering a prairie. Nevertheless, for the sake of obtaining young grass for their cattle, as also for the purpose of preventing unexpected fires, the settlers themselves are accustomed to burn the prairies at appointed times; watching the flames, and guarding against their favages, till the danger is passed by. And thus it seldom happens, that any beeach of the law is complained of, unless some private injury -r sults from it. Unluckily the pyrotechnic exploits of our after running off a mile or two, broke into a little neck of prairie, and distroying the fenoing of several farms. "As bees big out wi' angry fyke,"-so swarmed out the whole settlement in hot haste, and spread sway every direction in search of the perpetrators. By a singular chance, (which we comof all replaced the attention of all replaced who are curious in cases of circumstantial evidence) their suspicions were diverted from the real violion against three or four innocent persons. These were some young men, who happened to follow the two lawyers along the same road, at an interval of not more and the day was Sunday! Here, in fact,

The Karreyon Circ of Philidelphia, 17th

The Karreyon Circ of Philidelphia and Circ of December 17th

The Karreyon Circ of Philidelphia and Circ of December 17th

The Karreyon Circ of Philidelphia and Circ of December 17th

The Karreyon Circ of Philidelphia and Circ of December 17th

The Karreyon Circ of Philidelphia and Circ of December 17th

The Karreyon Circ of Philidelphia and Circ of December 17th

The Karreyon Circ of Philidelphia and Circ of December 17th

The Karreyon Circ of Philidelphia and Circ of December 17th

The Karreyon Circ of Philidelphia and Circ of December 17th

The Karreyon Circ of Philidelphia and Circ of December 17th

The Karreyon Circ of Philidelphia and Circ of December 17th

The Karreyon Circ of Philidelphia and Circ of December 17th

The Karreyon Circ of Philidelphia and Circ of December 17th

The Karreyon Circ of Philidelphia and Circ of December 17th

The Karreyon Circ of Philidelphia and Circ of December 17th

The Karreyon Circ of Philidelphia and Circ of December 17th

The Constant of December 17th

The Consta

at Castle Garden or the President's grounds, duty. At last his task was fluished; and It was that of a magnificient tree, which he handed the indictment to the foreman; stood at the extremety of a point of timber salving his wounded; conscience with the jetting out into the prairie, like some giant resolve, to make amends for it, if possible, by an extremely lenient prosecution. He

On his way back to the court room he was beset by the unfortunate soused, who, in of a burning ship at sea. And, we remem their anxiety to know the worst, made bold ber, too, the strange excitement of another to question the man of whom they stood night, which we spent at a farm house in a most in fear-little dreaming that they were small hamlet, begirt with fire all sound the themselves to his eyes almost as terrible, as and boys of the neighborhood were on foot dramatic monarch and quite likely to wait till day break, "fighting the fise," at every heavy on his soul to morrow." Far different were their thoughts. They were strangers figures seen running to and fro along the they were ignorant and they were post; bright line of the enemy's approach, and And when their approhensions were conthat came up-faintly to the car from the dis- (somewhat unprof schonelly) acknowledged the finding of the indictment, they were in and mingled with our dreams after we had despair as to the means of procuring counsel ceased to behold it with the eye of sense. | to defend them. But our hero naw the mut-The ithout vigilance is necessary on those ter in a different light. "Out of this nettle occasions; for, sometimes, the fire makes longer (said he to himself-or might have an inroad upon the southeness, consuming said) we pluck this flower, safely. The said) we pluck this flower, anfoly." He

As to the matter of fees, he begged them to tion, with which the story was told. be perfectly easy; may, he was better pleased that they had no money, as it entieroes were followed by consequences of bled them to feel and prove that his zeaf in this sort. The blaze, which they kindled, their behalf was not mercenary. His disincepted; and after a long consultation, the advocate and his efficients parted from each other, with hearts a good deal lighter than they had been since the evening before.

upon the subject that night; and if the representative of the State did disclose to his adversary, the nature and strength of the certainly, under all the circumstances, not the heaviest sin he had to repent of. The next morning the trial came off. The prosthan half an hour. In the earlier part of the sions of impartiality in the discharge of his dwed bliss to know nothing about the tooth-day, they had being reveal at several plature. He felt himself to be a law officer of sche, as you know nothing, absolutely nothing, they had being some single some such as the second of his ing about pain—the secute, double-distilled, the exercise of his ing about pain—the secute, double-distilled, and the second of the second ning their liorses, and committing other ex- functions, not simply to press for the coasio- rectified agony that lurks about the roots twirl of his perfumed bandkerchief. "There, travigances, as such fellows will do "upon a tion of every man who was arraigned, but and fange of of a treacherous tooth. But arr—there was perfence, art, your tooth is spree." One man who had been hunting cattle to assist only in such cases as were made ask wanterer how it feels, what it is like, wafe-your life is saved-you're a sexual descried them squatted on the grass on the out for the commonwealth, by conclusive how it operates, and you may hearn some man!" prairie, smoking eights and playing dards | evidence. He should endeavor to try that thing theoretically, which you may pray | "Sound?" cohoes poor Bill, "sound?" they had been surprised by the approach of tained by the proof, he should call upon the fire; and mounting their nage they had those whom he addressed, to vindicate the he's been through the unit, fought, bled, and no more feelin —gall darn ye !—in my jaws, dashed at full speed, through the gap which outraged laws of the land; if the poor died (slightly) with the refined essential oil than if they were iron steel-traps! You've the road presented, and made their may to should fall short of what he had been lead of the agoing caused by a raging tooth. this county town. Even at this judgiure too to expect, he should have the weight of the Every time we read Othello, we are half in mouth, and I'm off !" they had been seen and recognised, and the testimony, as fairly as he could place it be clined to think that more than half of legue. That night was one of anxiety and makery and makery last link in the chair of proof was supplied, fore them, to their deliberate judgment - devilishmess came from that "raging tooth," eagerly apprared it. They determined to the entire actisfaction of their entire actisfaction of the entire actisfaction of their entire actisfaction of the entire actisfaction of th socusers. In vain did they protest their in- upon his side. He was confident in the in- and tormented "mine ancient," so that he daylight, poor-Bill's check was swoften up nocence and appeal to one another, for cornocence of his clients. He know they were become embittered against all the world, and equal to a printer's buff-ball; his mouth roboration. "All were concerned in it," poor friendless, and unknown to the jury blacksmoore in particular. respondence of the Baltimore Size:

conversy on some read, safe read, safe respondence of the Baltimore Size:

"In common council vesterday a resolution was adopted, Condering the Half of Inches and to admire the progress of the fishing; and to admire the fishing the Half of Inches and the progress of the fishing the product of the fishing the product of the fishing the said the other party, sand of course you'll who held the balance of their fate. He William Whiffletree's case is a very strong up." Tripe takes hold of you! He'll fix your nesses would be produced. But strong in fair idea of the manner in which the work wits thy face? Thee looks like an owl in an conscious rectitude—firm in their reliance and sufferer are medicinally and merally bush!" Meantime the brace of attorneys, though upon the wisdom, justice, and independence treated by the materia medica, and friends exempt from the suspicions of the public, of the intelligent men who sat before him at large. distance between towers will be 1800 feet.

an exchange) of the rapidity with which for the books of awine—the country undulating, and the foundation of some of the towers.

After his introduced by the runniant ox, untrodden by were suffering great tribulation in secret.—they had put themselves upon their country, the books of awine—the country undulating.

Tong and anxious were their communings without fear of the issue. After his introwere suffering great tribulation in secret. they had put themselves upon their country, William Whiffletree - or "Bill," as most with one another, and much stable causistry duction the witnesses were called. The in- low of two and twenty, of "poor but rewas expended upon the question arising out filmation on their part had by no means sub- speciable parents," and 'tended the dryof the "conflict of laws," to wit; the Law sided, and an adroit cross examination eli- goods store of one Ethan Rakestraw in the ing, Mr. Rakestraw, but I bet I do fight that of Truth and Justice, and the Law of Self- cited enough of feeling, and a sufficiency of village of Rockbottom, State-of New York. Preservation. Judge Story of his book was contradictions in small matters, to found a then published) had not treated of such a plausible argument of inconsistency, and case, and the Bible was altogether too grong justify some smart hits at what are techni-individual, rejoicing in the cuphonium of Dr. for their weak eyes. Their hearts yearned cally called "swife witnesses." It was Hannibal Orealus Whanglanger. As a surwills aymosthy for their sufertunate substite proyed, moreover, that a good many persons geon, he had according to the album full tutes—but "to confess the sorn" themselves had been about the prairie in the course of of certificates—operated in all the scientific was a dreadful alternative. It would be to the day; and there was a considerable dis- branches of amputation, from the sculp-lock sacrifice, as they thought, every hope of crepancy, as to the exact place where the fire to the heel-tap, upon Emperors, Kings, professional success in that county, and to commenced. This was partly owing to the spirit owing to the sp Legislature, and an arm chair in Congress, of view in which it was first seen. At length banger had not been long in Rockbottom, old grandmother proposed a pouldes; and I grippe to read the issue. Their moral the examination was ended, and the argunerve gave way selfishness triumphid: ment commenced. The prosecutor follow- propensity to clongate the blanket, at every up in much, he greated and granted and they determined to keep the case under ad- ing upon his own lead, displayed a candor viscment, and at the same time to a keep in dealing with the testimony, not always their feeth cut, filed, scraped, reset, his swellen countenance as though he was a conspicuous in those who fill similar sta- dug out, and burnished up! But little time was allowed them for fur- tions; and while he summed up with the alone would have scheed a gain night discharge with skill and fidelity an untried lofty and conscientious character of the supperation would have onsued, the gain the guilt of the accused to be established and death would supervene in two hours!" beyond the reach of its saving influence.

The prosecutor made the best reply he horizon like a beleagured city. The men the glosts of King Richard's victims to that a suspence of some fifteen minutes, not less breath, however, and in a voice tremulous terrible to the counsel than to the prisoners' with emotion, inquired themselves; a verdict of "not guilty" was "Good Lord, Doctor! what's to be done returned by the jury, and the accused were for a feller P' set at liberty. Of course, they were lavish in their acknowledgements to their generous their shout of warning or encouragement, firmed by the prosecuting attorney, when defunder, and in promises of more substanthat northy, with much more truth than wallet, of course !! they suspected, declared that he had only done his duty, and that he desired no other roward then the satisfac ion which he felt at their accountial.

The two gentlemen, whose adventu tonose, stacks, of grain. The local the local feet of the control of the state of the land -not much engaged in business-and changed luntual congratulations on the fordoubtless willing to embrace an opportunity tunate result. They needed no note of a ther agreeable, all, than otherwise," said. of "coming out." "Would be be good ciso so singular; wherein innocent men the Decter. enough to speak to the gentleman a few wer accused by homest witnesses, and were words, which brought him out very quickly prosecuted and defended by the real perpe-dush," and forking over three dollars, downs to his expected clients. He listened to their trators of the officine laid to their charge. story as if it were all quite new to him _ And though several years were allowed to said the Doctor's assistant -a sturdy young believed their assertions of innocence-felt pass, ere they ventured, in the social hours frishman-clamping Bill's head to the back great sympathy and would be proud to de- of circuit life, to relate the circumstances to of the chair, to keep it strady, as the Docfend them, for he was convinced that they their brothren of the bar, their vivid recol- tor remarked, the latter began to "bere and were the victims of deceptive circumstances, lactious were manifest in the spirit and une file."

*Chihlren always hak, at the end of a story is it true?" And older people are apt to put the quention to themselves, if they do not utter it. To satisfy this natural curiosity, so far an our editorial word can do it. we answer that it is true "to the best of our information and belief." It was current, and not denied to our knowledge, among the temporagies of the reputed actors: one of Be quiet, sir schom subsequently attained the dignities of says the Doctor. Judge and the other (if we are not mustaken)

Go goo good It may be readily immagined that the two became a Secretary of State. Southern friends did not omit to hold a private talk Literary Messenger.

BILL WHIFFLETREE'S DENTAL DEPARTMENT

BY PANCUNEULGE

Have you ever had the toothache? If not, ecuting attorney was elequent in his profes- then bieseed is your ignorance, for it is in- as the Doctor bored, acrowed and plagged sions of impartiality in the discharge of his deed bliss to know nothing about the tooth. away at the tooth. the people-bound, in the exercise of his ing about pain - the acute, double-distilled, chack," says the Doctor, with a confident case, as if he were himself a juror. If sus- heaven that you may not know practically.

people called him - was a sturily young fel-

One unfortunate day, for poor Bill, there mounted poor Bill, as he clamped his swelen came to Rockhottom a galvanized-looking Jaw with his hand, and went around wabefore his "gift of gab," and unadulterated body, including noor Bill, in a furor to have

Now, Bill, being as we aforestated, a mus-prosecutors the frankness with which he would have ossified, while the nerre of the had admitted the circumstances in the prist tooth becoming apostrophized, the roots oners' favor-and then appealing to that would have concatenated in their histuses, reasonable doubt," which has so often and the jaw bone, no longer acting uphelped a desporate case in its sorest extrem- on their fossil exeduses would necessarils ity, defied (as he might safely do) the ad- have led to the entire suspension of the onrocate of the state to declare that he believed pillary organs of your stomach and brake, Poor Bill! he scarcely knew what fainting was, but a queer sensation settled in his could contrive under such entharrassments ; "ossis fronti"," while his ossis leg. # Imceb neither party asked any instructions from bent double under him, at the awful grosthe Court; and the jury were sent out. After pect of things before him! He took a long

"Plug and file," calmly said the Poster. "Plug and file what?"

"The second molar," said the Doctor : tighthanks to be paid at a future day; while though the treacherous monater meant Bill at

"What'll it cost Doctor !" says Bill. "Done in the very best manner, upon the new and splendid system invented by myself, sir, and practiced upon all the crowned heads of Europe, London, and Weshington

"Does it hurt much, Doctor?" was Fill's "Very little, indeed: it's sometimes ra-

"Then go at it, Doctor! Here's the sits Mr. Whitfletroe in a high-backed chair, "O! ab! hu ho huld on, hold on!" erios

Bill, at the first gouge the Doeter gave the buge tooth. "O! be me soul! be alsy, mur," says the Irishman, "it's mesilf as untherstands it -I'll hould on till year !! "Oh-O-h-h-h !!! man Bill, as the Doctor proceeds." " He quiet, sir; the pain won't signify !?

"Go goo good Lor d-d! Ho ho bothold

"Of your north the afrard of that "I'm howldin' yeez tight as a devil!" ories Paddy, and sure enough he was holding, for in vain Bill twisted and squirmed around; Pat held him like a dider press.

"Let me-me-0-0-0! Everlasting creation! let me go-o -stop, hold on not!"

"All done, sir; let the patient up. Mi-

Why, you've broken my faws into flinders : got the with of your money out of my

" Why, William," says Ethan Rakestraw, as Bill went into the store, " what in grace " Been plugged and filed," says Bill, look.

ing cross as a meat-axe at his salokering Orthodox boss. " " Plugged and fined? Thee haln't been fighting, William ?"

"Fined ! No, I sin't been fined or fightfelfer who gave me the toothache !- 0! O!" ving his head like a plaster of paris mandarin.

Of thee's been to the dentist, ch? Gut the tooth-ache? Go thee to my wife; she'll cure thee in one minute. William: a little laudanum and potton will soon case the

Mrs. Rakestraw applied the laudanum to Bill's molar, but as it did no kind of good, soon poor Bill's head and cheek were done started for the store, everybody gaping at rare curiosity.
"Hallow,' Bill!" says old Fireleck, the gunsmith, as Bill was going by his shows or got a bag in your calabash, or got the tooth

"What are you -O-h-h, deer! what are ! you going to do !" says Bill, sysing the wire