EXECUTIVE CHAMBER, Harrisburg, Jan. 6, 1857.

"BLEEDING KANSAS"

It is said that falsehood will accomplish the journey while truth is putting on its boots to follow. But it should be added that the one must, in the end, overtake the other, and eradicate its mischief.

Party in the Spring of 1856; an accident occurred to the machinery of a steamboat ascending the Missouri river, when about mid way between St. Louis and Kansas.

One of the passengers, who was understood to be a pupil of Mr. Inver, more imprudently communicative than the rest, held frequent conferences with a kind-hearted old negro woman, whom he desired to accompany him into the land of freedom.

THE SUGAR TAX—REDUCED. The question of the repeal of the duty on sugar, which will soon be discussed in Congress, excites general interest in all parts of the country.

Many of our readers will already, no doubt, have noticed a change in the Proprietorship of the Watchman, and we embrace this occasion to make our editorial bow to our patrons, and tender to them our sincere thanks for the cordial and extensive support they have given us.

On the 26th of June last, Mr. Eldred, when asking consent of the United States Senate to introduce a joint resolution for the relief of the sugar-planters of Louisiana, said: "The sugar crop of Louisiana, for several years past, has fallen off from 400,000 or 470,000 hogheads of product to probably this year not more than 120,000 hogheads."

And thus was ignited the spark which may be expected to wrap the Union in flames. The doctrine contained in the return of a pro-slavery legislature, duly commissioned by the people, who still supposed he might reap a fortune by speculation in lots.

THE SUGAR TAX—REDUCED. The annual decrease of the Louisiana sugar crop, makes our importation of foreign sugar very large, and consequently keeps all sugar at famine prices; a serious injury to every household in the land.

It is evident that our climate is not adapted to the culture of the sugar-cane, and that all the fostering care of government, in the shape of high tariff duties and special bounties to the planters, cannot make the cane congenial to our soil.

Such in brief is the simple, truthful, narrative of the "wrong" of "bleeding Kansas." But, we are asked, since victory has been won upon our banners, why not let the Union rest in peace. Glorious victory, yes; peace, peace, but there is no peace. We battle for the Union. The fanaticism of

The Watchman. BELLFONTE, PENNA. WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 14, 1857. FOR GOVERNOR, WILLIAM F. PACKER, OF LYONING COUNTY. (Subject to the decision of the State Convention.) VALDICTION. Many of our readers will already, no doubt, have noticed a change in the Proprietorship of the Watchman, and we embrace this occasion to make our editorial bow to our patrons, and tender to them our sincere thanks for the cordial and extensive support they have given us.

STATE LEGISLATURE. Our Law Makers are again assembled at the Capital of the State, having met there on Tuesday, the 6th instant. The House of Representatives was called to order by Samuel Hill, Esq. of Westmoreland county, and a speedy organization effected by the election of J. Lawrence Getz, Esq. of Berks county, Speaker. Mr. Getz is the fearless and talented Editor of the "Reading Gazette," one of the most radical Democratic papers in the State, and his elevation to this delicate position is a compliment merited as well by himself as the sterling old County that he hails from.

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE. We publish on our outside to day, the annual Message of Governor Pollock, to the exclusion of all other matter. Our readers generally, are sufficiently intelligent to make their own comments upon it, and form their own appreciation of its merits, therefore the expression of our opinion shall be brief. The large portion of it is a compilation of statistics, showing the financial condition of the State government, and the workings of the various departments, and so far as it is such, it is plain and intelligible, and contains much interesting information.

OUR NEXT GOVERNOR. We this week raise to our mast-head as our favorite candidate for the Executive chair, the name of one of our Country's own sons, Gen. Wm. F. Packer. The signs of the times seem to indicate with considerable certainty the harmonious nomination of this distinguished gentleman, as the standard bearer of the Democratic party; and as far as we are concerned we believe it is but the expression of the opinion of every Democrat in the County, who could go into battle under his command, with better spirit and brighter hopes of success than any other person that has yet been named.

A GOOD NAME. Always be more diligent to preserve your innocence than concerned to prove it. It will never do to seek a good name as a primary object. Like truth, it will make you contemptible. The rest of your spirit and conduct, and your reputation will take care of itself. The honest that you are called to do as the guardian of your reputation is to remove, in every respect, and follow the highest examples in the world; and your vigilance. No reputation can be permanent which does not spring from principle; and he who would maintain a good character should be mainly anxious to maintain a conscience void of offense, towards God and towards man.

APPOINTMENTS. Col. T. A. Maguire, of Cambria County, Pa., has received the appointment of Prothonotary of the Supreme Court of the Territory of Kansas. Col. Maguire has been for a number of years, Clerk of the Senate of Pennsylvania.
