her with its point and sound sense.

and the third was a draw game.

you ever hear of such a thing?

At Do'clock Mr. Proctor and his wife had to go home, but Kate could not think of leaving so early. "We will see her safely home," said the bost, Mr. Dunklee; and

"Only think," cried Kate after a laugh had passed upon some joke of her own, "Pa says he is going to board the minister. Did

"Oh, I have heard of things worse than that," returned Lindsay, smiling. He sat by her side, and; gazing into her face as he a tiger into the house, for instance ?" - spoke. "Suppose your father should take

"Ho -- you can chain a tiger," the girl returned; " but you can't do that to a minister. He will carry his long face just where he pleases, and you can't help it. But I wen't have it; and I told I'a so. Why-only think, a minister in the house all the time !"

"You don't mean what you say, Miss and half earnestly. "Why-if you hold such feelings now, I shall look to see you boarding the minuster yourself one of these

"Me? Me board a Minister? I never

A hearty laugh followed this retort; and and Kate thought some of them laughed very funnily. But the conversation took another turn, and ere long Lindsey and Kate were about various things; and after a while the young man told his fair companion he had been purchasing a piece of land in the place.

as he thought of making that town his

"I have bought of our friend Mr. Dun-deed it was - where the lot was situated. - head of the matrument to see what his oc-put down on deeds. She read - "Charles "Alm -he's a ofterk," she said to horself.

And he must be a good one. And he'll most likely be a merchant one of these days.

So ran Kate's thoughts, and they were strangely interesting to her. Several of the their heads knowingly, for they saw plainly paper from his pocket.

Lindsay, Clerk."

heard anything so absurd-never!"

ther, upon her parents went without her.

PAPER IN CENTER COUNTY

The manage bearing and

радачар, 4до, роветания вения мирикарах, пу JOHN T. HOOVER.

TREES 5.5.6 is advance, or if paid within six months. $2.00 will be charged on all subscrip if our rainting tip he wad of the year.

AN RETRIBUTION and Huminess Notices innert ed as the neural rates, and every description of COB PRINTING. XECUTED in the noafest inhuner, at the lowes prices, and with the utmost despatch. Having purphased large collection of type, we are propaged to satisfy the orders of our Iclenda.

Professional.

ATTORNET-AT-LAW,

TABES H. RANKIN, ATTORNEY AT LAW,
BELLEFONTE, PA

WILLIAM H.BLAIR,

OHY GOODS, 97 Market St., and 26 Church Alley, Philadelphia. Jan 18-8 U

TABLE STONE & SON, AUCTIONEES, Howards Lat, will attend to all business in their

COLUMN ORVIS,

ATTORNEY AT LAW
ATTORNEY AT LAW
Once with the Prothonotary, at the Court House Law Bulleces of all kinds, portaining to the profestion promptly attended to.

jan23-8

TRA U MITCHELL.

ATTORNEY AT-LAW.

BELLEFONTE, PA

Office in the Arcade, one door from Southeak's ho cel, will assemd promptly to business in Control.

OR KATRLAMB, HAS ASSOCIATED of the Dobbins with him in the presidence of the Second of TARES F. HUTCHISON. postfully tenders his professional ser-sitisous of POTTER'S MILE'S and whaty. - Office at the Kutaw House TURIO.—A LARGE ASSORTMENT In galact and Justice Miskley acolobrated Italian violing galact and a solimedio strugs, also violin room, bedricos, dess pass and scrows, just reorived, and for any by GILLEN & MEMEEN

DESTISTRY. J. D. WINGATE SURGEON and MCCHANICAL DEN-TIST, would inform his friords and patrons the has permanently located in Bellefonte, and that he will be happy to attend to any who wish his pro-All work done in the neste fusional ofti.

Office and resident on the North Bast Cor

TENUAL PARTNERSHIP.—DR. L. UEO. L. POTTER, having assessed with him in the practice of modeline, Dr. J. B. MITUMELL, they effect their presentants services to the bittakes of Hellafonts and vicinity. When accessary, the ancessiting attention of both will be given without additional charge.

L. Dr. Mitchell's residence at Mrs. Benner's, deel 2-M.

BUCORMONN TO GEO I MILES CORRECT TO GEO I MILES BELEPONTH, PA. LE AND RETAIL DEALERS IN

He is also prepared to insert artificial tooth according to the latest improvements and the most to the latest improvements and the most is styles, and to perform all other operation which good style and at reasonable

Therefore, pass favors, ha hopes by prompt at Tanishing feet pass favors, ha hopes by prompt at Lambol Established statement at the public patronage. Give him a trial. He established to rules by fall only as his merits and skill he established to rules by fall only as his merits and skill he established to rules by fall only as his merits and skill he established to rules by fall only as his merits and skill he established to rules by fall only as his merits and skill he established to rules and the established to rules and the established to rules a skill he established to rule and the established to rule and the established to rules a skill he established to rule and the established to rules a skill to rule and the established to rules a skill to rule and the established to rules a skill to rule and the established to rules a skill to rule and the established to rules a skill to rule and the established to rule

DEPOSIT BANK.

B. C. House, Jas. T. Hale, R. W. McAndershia, A. C. Curtin, TO MAINTENANT ON BEECIAL DEPOSITS.

HUMBER, MARRITER, HALE & OO.

"HUMBER, MARRITER, HALE & OO.

"HUMBER, MARRITER, HALE & OO.

"HUMBER, MARRITER, HALE & OO.

"BILLE: OF "ERGEANDS AND NOTES DISCOLLECTIONS WADS, AND PROCEEDS RELINCON STAD PROMPTLY.

"HUMBER STAD ON SPECIAL DEPOSITS FOR HUMBER DATON SPECIAL DEPOSITS FOR AND UP A ZOB, AT THE RATE OF FVE PER CENT PER ANNUM.

***ROBLEM OF THE SERVE OF THE PER ANNUM.

***ROBLEM OF THE SERVE OF THE SERVE PER THE OF THE SERVE OF THE SER

TOHANGE ON THE EAST CONSTANTLY ON He 25-9m

DOR AND JOB PRINTING GT LC1 Abe Publisher of The Demontor bears of the Large in the properties with his Newspot of The Large in the Large

NEW MATERIALS, style of P'

W. Por the Demodratic Watching THE CHILD'S DREAM. green and by bramerica.

A dreamed of fields to light, No darkness ever nextled there; I dreamed of a land to bridge Borrow ne'er dim'd its portals fair,

I dreamed I saw winged beings, Hover lightly o'er that land ; I was luited to rest by their woolings Sweet music made that angel band, Tilmamed I saw a little child Its countenance so strangely smiled. I longed to behold it again.

I dreamed I saw an ared one. Reclining on a flow'ry bed; The sands of life had quickly run

I thought I know that he was dead I saw a being gloriously bright, Shrouded-by a cloud of light,

So winning I longed to sit at his side I woke—to find my joy a droam,
The happy land and sky so fair; The slowers bright and music's str-

Had vanished quite-I know not where-That bright bright land is far away, Beyond this world of trial and eare; Where seriow has fled life's weary day; I hope to enter that world so fair.

"SWEET! SWEET HOME."

O. yes, there is a "sweet, sweet home," Beyond this world of care, And grief and sidness, pain and death" Can never enter there. There chilling winds may never blow;

There serrows tear may never flow. O, yes, there is a "sweet, sweet home." Our Father calls it Heaven ! There parting words and parting hand Will never more be giveu,

No sad forewell is ever a poken-No imppy build is ever broken O. ves there is a "sweet, sweet home." White shadows flee away.

And as appear smid the light O. 'liv's mansion bright and fair. N : g' :om, nor night, nor darkness there

Within that home, that "sweet, sweet home." Beloved forms I see, Anlangel voices greet my ear -Of purest melody;

The lips attained to mraise on earth. Sing now the songs, of heavenly birth. Yes, mosmers, in that "sweet, sweet home," Where happy spirits reign, They clap their joyful hands and give The glory to the Lumb,

Redeeming grace and dying love "

BOARDING THE MINISTER.

BY STLVANUS COBB, JR.

"But you don't mean to say that you're oing to board bim !" "I have told him that we would."

"But it musu't be. What ' have a mir ster in the house all the time?"

"And why not?" "Because it'll lust keen us in starch and ouckraurfor ever! You shan't do it,"

"I have given my word."

"Then I'll make this house too het to hold him! Mark my words!"

This conversation was between Mr. Thom as Proctor, a master-carpenter, and his enough that Miss Kate Proctor was already Draw, Redicines, Perfuncy, Panis, Oils, Variables, Francis, Tollet Soam, Brushes, Harland Brushes, Francis and Tollet Soam, Brushes, Harland Brushes, Francis and Tollet Soam, Brushes, Harland Brushes, Francis and Tollet Roam, Brushes, Harland Brushes, Francis and Tollet Articles, Trussels and Brushes, Francis and South Roam, Roam and Roam, Indian Roam, I pure and tender as could be. Ever since he timerly when surely had the aning in it. could remember, she had sat in her father's. At half past ten Kate said she must go pew every Sunday, and listened to the dark home. Lindsay offered to accompany her and gloomy preaching of Rev. Calvin Lead. She accepted the offer, and when she did so, and gloomy preaching of Rev. Calvin Lead. She accepted the offer, and when she did so, or. She could remember how he had frown-ble turned an ay her face so that the others could not see it. was a little girl, and how he had chided her in her own house for being so rude. The moon up, and shining brightly, and it e air only thought he held of "the minister" was soft and oo t, and loaded with a grateful fraof a white neck-kerelfief, very starch and grance from a thousand deay flowers. Lind, prime -a face long and stern, and a frown say said something about the calm and holy always ready for a sunite or a jest, like as influence of a quiet summer's evening upon a cloud sweeps over the sunny landscape, those who were at peace with the world

"He shan't come !" she repeated and her and themselves, and who could look up to sunny ourls shook again as she brought her the Giver of all good with grateful hearts. head back with determination. "Let him It was not spoken sanctimeniously, nor yet find a place stutewhere else. There are the with the least outward show of piety. Moregood family : they are just the ones to was a thought from the heart warm and board him. They can be as gloomy as he pure. can. How I should love to see them at the Kate made a modest reply, and a convertalile together. The old lady would draw sation followed. In a short time the fair, down her face-so; -" and Kate gave an light hearted girl was in tears, all from pure mitation of the imaginary facial clongation. gratitude to God for the thousand bleasings And then the minister would draw down she enjoyed. Her companion talked as and his longer still; and then Miss Prudence had never heard any one talk before. He would try to outdraw them both and by presented the subject to her so kind and and by somebody's law would become dislo- sweetly, and his words were so full of love cated. And hereupon Kate burst into a fit of the whole theme of heavenly goodness openlaughter. Her father shook his head, and ed to her mind.

with some light remark turned away. A has explings after this, Kate had an in-astronomy, and Kate listened with eager in-vitation to spend the evening with Mrs. Dun-terest while he pointed out some of the conastronomy, and Kate listened with eager inkice, a freed of the family. She went with stellations, and then related to her some of her tother and mother. Quite a little com- the curious mythological stories which the pan. (a) present, and the evening promised and enterassociated with them. to have pleasantly. Among the vistors was They walked very blowly; and as Kato a voung man who was introduced as Mr. discovered that her companion and not know Charls Lindsay. He was somewhere about the most direct way to her house, she led him tour and twenty, and not only a man of all a long way out of the nearest route. But perior, intellectual appearance, but also of home was reached at last, and ere they par- the wonderstricken girl det to lift her much personal beauty. He seemed to take ted the maiden reminded him that her paquite a fancy for Kate, and ere long the feel- routs had invited him to call upon them, and The was reciprocated. The light hearted girl she hoped that he would not farget it: He text, "Come unto me all ye that labor, and then took are heavy laden and I will give you rest." pleased her. Staid and over most people she his leave. did not like ; nor did she wild, reckless men edge she allominated." It is sumed airs on the strength of his knowl- Lindsay with her whole heart; he had taken peace giving influences of the Gospel, and without seeming to know it; and he was as the image of a handsorse young man, but is hearts were opened; and souls that had lain the depth of one hundred and fifty feet.—

gay and is happy his could be, without the heart soul she held the assurable that he was dormant for years, more awakened to a seems. Directly after this characteristic characteris gay and as happy his could be, without the het mont she held the assurant noble and pure. She not only loved, but her least coarsness or less of dignity. The fact was just here, though Bate did not probably love was strongly fortified.

On the following day very little was said bee it at the tithe : He engaged her heart, about Mr. Lindsay; Kate seemed to avoid and at the same time kept a firm hold upon the subject. On the day succeeding that, her respect. There was a peculiar air of elwhen Mr. Proctor came down in the evening evated refinement which at once limitested Itself to her, and commanded her admiration he brought Mr. Lindsay with him. So Kate and she admired it because she discovered spent another evening in his company .-When the maiden laid her head upon her pilit without his trying to show it. And then low that night, she knew that she loved she had found such a fund of wit and hu-She treed to hide the fact no more. She first mor in him which, while it captivated her with its brilliancy, did not fail to entertain 'Charles''-she loved that name-had the whole of it. Then she examined her judg-Kate was a cliess-player, and at length she discovered that Mr. Lindsay understood ment, and she could find no reason why she the game. She proposed a trial to which he should not love him; but she found a hundred reasons why she should love him, and gladly acceded. The first game she won

On the evening of the next day, Mr. Proctor called Kate and old ber he had a matter of importance upon which to speak with her. She good wonderingly into his face for he looked very serious and carnest

"My child," he said, "I have seen Mr. Lindsay this afternoon, and he asked me is be might sue for your heart and hand. He says you are the first person whom he has loved as he now loves, and he feels assured that you would make him nappy always. I know that he loves you, Rate; and I know lag I meant that you should know the man that he is worthy of you. Do you think you could love him?-What! tears!" ut ered the parent in surprise, as he saw his drops trickle down between her fingers. "I been coy and reserved. Fou would not have had not thought 'twould offend you so .-Surely, my child, you do not feel that he is

Mr. Proctor was interrupted by Kate's Proctor," the young man said, half smiling folling upon his neck; and all also did so she murmured

"Oh, I do love him, father! I love him with my whole heart! I-can't help these The parent caught his child to his bosom and in carnest tones, he said: "Bless you, Kate-bless you. I should love to see you his wife, for I love him myself. May he come and see you to-morrow? He leaves for Harrison in the afternoon." again conversing together. They talked a long talk together; and they told each other plainly of their love. 6 And now," said landsay, after they had

I shall be here again. I cannot ask you now klee," he said, at the same time drawing a to give me a final answer. But at the time He then showed her by the deed -- for a Kate rested her head upon his shoulder, Instinctively Kate cast her eyes up at the and told him she would think seriously of it She meant it pleasantly, for she had thought cupation was, for she knew that was always enough in her own estimation. Sunday morning came, and at 9 o'clock

Charles Lindsay made his appearance. " I thought you were not coming till even ing," said Kate, as she gave him a warm graso.

I thought I would come and go to meet-ing with you," he returned. "You may more observing ones of the company shook have no objections!"

"Not any serious ones," she returned interest; smiling. charch.

" Our new minister is to preach to-day, Kate said, on the way. So I understand" returned Lindsay:

and that was one reason why I was anxious to be here."

"Do you know him ?"" "I know him pretty well."

"What kind of a man is he?"

" Well-he is spoken very well of. I think he means well. "Then, he isn't much of a minister, is " There may be different opinions upon that point. Suppose we compare notes after we have heard him to "We will. But he shan't board with us. Dont't you think it would be very unpleasant to have him poking about the house all House Mountain, being in the vicinity of the time? I am sure I couldn't endure itcould you?"

"Well," replied the young man, similars. if you couldn't endure it I'm sure I could-

" Well-I cannot." This brought them near the church, and there is a residence on the cottage order, the conversation was dropped. As they which, in conjunction with the fine scenery walked up the broad sinie. Mr. Proctor opened his pew door, and Kats entered.

But -what meant that? Charley Lindsky and devotion, that ere she knew it she found was making his way to the pulpit! Yes-ho assends the stairs!-he enters! He coolly takes his seat, and takes down the bible! The house was crowded and all seemed one sees the embankments on the brow of the From this topic he passed to the subject of anxious. The opening voluntary was performed; and then Lindsay arose, and in a

> The truth had hurst mon Kate's mind, and with her head bowed she concealed the powerful emotions which worked so wildly within her. The prayer was made-the hymn was sung-and the text had been read, ere hend.

the Book.

The sermon was commenced....from the Democrated. The light hearted girl she Roped that he would not farget it. He had never met with one who so completely head never met with one who so completely presided her. Stald and over most people she had offer mer with one who so completely presided her. Stald and over most people she had offer mer bears by the desired her. Stald and over most people she had offer mer bears by the same lines with large mer heavy laden and I will give you rest."—

If you had not like; norded show offer mer gliding to and as the speaker warned with his eave.

Without going into any extended show of the enemy for several years ship could not ender; and a man who assemble the length of a large mer heavy laden and I will give you rest."—

Without going into any extended show of the enemy for several years ship could not ender; and a man who assemble the length of a large mer heavy laden and I will give you rest."—

Without going into any extended show of their beans by the Kate forget all her strange trouble: It was handled with his entry whether the large mer heavy laden and I will give you rest."—

Without going into any extended ships a long with the consult for instance when the consult was the beauting with the consult was the large of the length of the leng as she had often seen. An ignorant man developments, we will simply say that Kate a notice theme, and it was handled with she could not endere; and a man who as Proctor was in level. She level Charles great power. His aim was any show the of love and sgratiends. Many an cya was and abrupt, through which the dashing wawiped as the bible was at length closed, and ters make their way down into the vale at one firmultanious murmiir of Half & thousand the foot of the mountain. doop drawn breaths told how all had been Connected with this cascade there is a le enchained.

Kate saw old men' and young men-old his smile. Then it was that a feeling of her soul. He, so honored and flattered-he, whom all seemed so anxious to know-he. so powerful in mind, and so elevated in man- however, the lovely Isaquena made her eshood -loved her best of all!

the left hand. They walked a long distance in silence finally Kate said-"*! T WESS-Was". " ' ' ' ' ' ' ' ' ' ' ' '

"Was what ?" asked her cottpanion, gas ing carnestly into her fitce. . "It was emel to decrive me to !!

"Cruel, Kate 7 when you told the with your own lips that you would not have the maister in your bouse?

saw the difficulty. You thought all ministered to a minister of the purpose of catab-ters were alike; and if I had told you that I walls of the building and peep through a ted States. This we deny the authority of daughter bow her head, and noticed the big was the minister at first, you would have glass window at the powder-making appa- Congress of the Supreme Court, of a Terribeen coy and reserved. Followould not have ratus. There is more machinery required total Legislature, of any individual or association as I am, non-would have opened for the business than I had imagined. To your soul to file as you have done. I think am right."

"Perhaps you are."

"I think I may feel sure of it. But now you know the man, I trust you may take week. him for what he is. And it, upon fair trial, you do not like the minister, we will keep him only for the parish. What say you?"

"But your deed said you were a clerk." "Ah, my little minister-hater, you are not

Kate smiled ; and was very far from wishing to scold any more. Night came, and ere it save upon those pastoral duties which he wished not to avo d, and even then she kept

WALHALLA-THE BLUE RIDGE.

A correspondent of the Edgeticki Advertuer, writing from Pickens' District, thus is unsque-" beautiful exceedingly;" such to her parents.

booming away on every side, he can easily or. One hundred thousand dollars does not innocent blood, are retained in office the array integral in some place behinged by an enemy. The houses in this burg are not the bereaved widow, but it may bely to get remarkable for their architectural heanty, but they seeme a temporary purpose. It is secure he side allesiasion and a Sixte Anil at their secure he side in the decrease of congress. It is secure he side in their secure he side in the secure he side in their secure he side in their secure he side in the secure he side in the secure he side in their secure he side in the secure he secure he side in the secure he secure he side in the secure he s calm, deep, clear voice, read a chapter from imagine himself in some place belieged by said that if the railroad were abandoned or finished, in less than three months after the place would be cutirely deserted. On enter ing the tunnel at the easiern portal, I was ushered into a scene not soon to be forgetten. The darkness, the stench of "villainous sattpetre;" the sharp ringing sound of

of these. He displayed drep knowledge respect. She not only carried in her mind tian in such resplendent colors, that all self down an almost perpendicular slope to gend, the recital of which midy not prove uninteresting to the readers of the Advertiwomen and young women-crowd about the ser. "Once upon a time," two hostile tribes minister as he came down from the pulpit; of Indians met in mortal affray. After the and she marked how warmly they grasped battle had been "lost and won," the grim his hand, and how eager they were to gain victors inade the welkin ring with their shouts of exultation when they found that examined her heart, and she, found that pride-of deep holy gratitude-came upon Isaquana, "the chieftain's daughter," and the sweetest flower of the forest-was among the number of their captives. At night, > cape. Fearing pursuit, she hid horself in a She walked but by her father's side, and care just beneath the "extreme verge" of | g-real ere long the minister found the old place at the falls. The sheet of falling water effect. Revided, that, with our Republican fathtunity shielded this grotto from observation. broken the charm of romance. The water"Ah -but you knew what I meant."

>
> "So I did." You meant just what you said;
>
> so I meant that you should know the man before I introduced you to the minister. I lishment (i. e. the Powder-mill) there is no thus provision of the Constitution against all interests about hed Salvery in all the Constitution for that no person shall be deprived of the theory or property, without due proteasurement that you should know the man lishment (i. e. the Powder-mill) there is no thus provision of the Constitution against all avoid ignition the operatives have copper tacks in their shoes. There are only two trined workmen employed, and yet they turn out

"Ah, my little minister-hater, you are not rock have been excavated at the eastern end unable power, it is the duy of Congress to read in legal lore. The work clork is from of the tunnel. As the western clid, the prohibs in the Territories, those twis reflect the Latin electrons, and was formerly applied workmen have gone into the rock about fifty the Latin clericus, and was formerly applied workmen have gone into the rock about fifty of babbirism, polygamy and Slavery, and only to clergyman; and in law, the term is feet, though the funfielling here is not quite that while we return the investmental down to grade. There are four shifts. No of Ficenor, a seried in its thick while we return the investmental will tosel you have and Latin, so that in the 1, counting from the east, has to be suited to enter a different or our Rayolot county. Of course Kate said he might cottle? will teach you Law and Latin, so that in the And he did come. And he and Kate had future you may fall into such traps of cr- feet; No. 2, 226 feet; No. 3, 213 feet. No. fathers, we will not submit to have a new I shall be here again. I cannot ask you now to board the minister for life; and so far course of the year. At each end of the tunious and the tour of the making "the house to life to hold each shall consequently the spirit is the day after to-morrow—I may ask you if you will give me your love for life."

Kate rected here again she had concluded the contribution of the Cov. and the notific examination and the law of the land, as here you if you will give me your love for life."

Kate rected here again. I cannot ask you now to board the minister for life; and so far course of the year. "At each end of the tunion and the law of the land, as here you and the tout of nearly every State in the life, and the tour to live in now here deep and ardent love that he seldomlet."

Kate rected here again. I cannot ask you now to board the minister for life; and so far course of the year. "At each end of the tunion and the law of the land, as here you had been a fine pronounced by the Fedgal Jadiciary, and the tout of nearly every State in the land of the tunion and the law of the land, as here you had the tout of nearly every State in the land of the tunion and the law of the land of the tunion and the law of the law of the land of the tunion. Amount and the law of the land of the tunion and the law of the land of the l you if you will give me your love for life." her deep and ardent love that he seldom left progressing at the rate of one hundred feet every month. As each shaft is sunt, to majority of the Judges of the Supreme Court, grade, this progress is increased by forty had not purchase our which they decided the Log that not purchase our which they decided the Log that not purchase our which they decided the Log that not purchase our which they decided the Log that not purchase our which they decided the Log that not purchase our which they decided the Log that not purchase the log that not purch wished not to avoid, and even then she kept grade, this progress is increased by forty had no pursue ion, and, therefore no standing parishoners said that two substitutes only half a visit gives and one horse gire at work, and there, is but another -tep in consummation of that

> The Stump House Tunnel is I mile, 575 the Presidency, and utless fromipily rebaked by the people, at the ballot-box, may be forfect long, 16 feet wide, and 20 feet high.—Idweed by other usurpations fatal to the indedescribes Walhalla and the operations of This turnel is a heavy job, but it can un pendence of the Free States and the liberties doubtedly be finished in the course of three of our people.
>
> years. Indeed, Collyer has contracted to the people of Kineas have been finusularity. the Blue Ridge Tunnel with other matters of doubtedly be finished in the course of three of "Than Walhalla, I know of few places complete all the work in two and a half years and violently taken from them cent view of the mountains. The Stump it. Virginia has let day light shine through spurious and pretended legi-lative, judicial as umque— beginning executingly. Such as the second of the one sees the embankments on the brow of the mountain, and hears the big guns (the blasts) so of Clichy. This is kind and consider the lawless manoised Slavery, which is ate and reflects great credit upon the Emperation of the mousters, and men whose haurs are testined in office tire arry booming away on every side, he can easily or. One hundred thousand dollars does not innocent blood, are retained in office tire arry

> IMPORTANTI DEGREEN. The Harrisburg The Supreme Court has God and Heart but the stagmand for the supreme Court has God and Heart but the stagmand that is glunted recenfly decided that the counties are hable in our history, and by the memory of the for the costs arising from the arrest and imprisonment of drunkards.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY .- On Friday week;

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

The following is the platform of princilples adopted at the Union State. Conven tion, which nominated Wilmot, Vessel, and Lawis, and upon which they more stand : This Convention of Pologates, representing the Fraementer Pannsylvania, opposed to the leading measures of the late National Adminouna ait to, conguingor oil but miliates destructive policy, clearly forestudowed. Fy the acts and deel crations of the Administra-

non just manginated, do

Resolve, That the maintenance of the principles promulgated in the Declaration of Independence, and embodied in the Federal Constitution, is assential to the pressivation of a Republican institutions; that the Reds. erd Cous au ion, the liberings of file people, the reserving rights of the States and the Union of the States and the Union of the States, can t and shall be pre-ers, we hold a to be a self-evident truth that The Indiana having tracked the fugitive dowed by their Creater with certain malionate the brink of the precipide, and seeing bis rights; the minning has are likely in the lights; the country of the lights of the precipide. nothing but the spray on which the rising and the pursuit of happiness; that is seemed sum had drawn a fainbow, said one to another, "the Great Spirit has turned Isaquo-object of our Federal Government Is to stina into a water apirit, and noue of us may cure these upits to all persons inter these parts to all persons inter the second of the water bave her for a bride." But civilization has broken the charm of romance. The water beautiful to the content of the content of the water broken the charm of Terms and ordaned in the Content of the water by the content of the water by the content of the conten to Slavery in any Territory of the United States, while the Constitution shall be main Resilved. That the Constitution conten workmen employed, and yet they turn out seventeen hundred pounds of powder per u,o I Courtess savereign power over the fer-week.

George Collyer & Co., the present contractors at the Stump House Tunnel, have about two hundred hands at work, by relays, day and night. More than three hundred feet of Polk; and that in the exercise of this unquestions of this unquestion of the procedure of the exercise of this unquestion.

1, 189 feet. No. 1 is sunk deep enough for judici d opinions of Judges of the Supreme the impress to commence turnelling: this continuous relivers to of the rights of gives two new faces upon which to operate, human nature—to conflict with the truth of

for the minister to come without his sweet, is another steam engine of forty horse power gentle wife.

It is another steam engine of forty horse power and in the repeal of the Miscouri rendered to draw rooks out of the late triumph of the Slave power in the dection of its capablelate, James Bublistian, to cent view of the mountains. The Stump it. Virginia has let day light shine through the mountain, and its contiguous spars are only four or five mites distant, whilst beyond these, and much higher, the Chimney Top and the White Side, two noted peaks over in Cashier's Valley, are to be seen looming up in solitary grandeur. A gentleman of intelligence assured me that the hottest part of the summer. Not a few native Americans have settled m Walhalla; a doctor and a lawyer have recently left. Pickens' Court House for this place. In addition to this, large numbers of Gerriidal emigrants are annually arriving at this intelligences and much sparse of the state of south Carolina, so soon as the locoloring of the summer. Not a few motives can be nited to scale the heights of addition to this, large numbers of Gerriidal emigrants are annually arriving at this ing thus enriched by this vast influx of trade, addition to this, large numbers of German the Allegheuies. The heart of the State beam emigrants are anunally arriving at this ing thus enriched by this vast influx of trade, in Happy Home." On dit, that a new per—the Pickeus Banner, is soon to be star-ted at this place. Tunnel Hill, alias Stump the body politic. per—the Pickens Banner, is soon to be startool at this place. Tunnel Hill, alias Stump Haise Mountain, being in the vicinity of Walhalla, as a matter of course, my exploration was extended to that far-famed barrior in the Blue Ridge Raihoud. Several elegant buildings have been put up recently along the road between Walhalla and the stiffic is a residence on the cottage order,

which, in conjunction with the line scener,
which, in conjunction with the line scener,
which, in conjunction with the line scener,
which is conjuncted and of the process of law, it is friends, gave a French gentleman from New Orleans an awful beating one evening last week, because he had been in the liabit of walking-out with his, the lawyer is wife, late at right. Are, Patricison, a reminent lawyer of level and of the process of law, it is friends, gave a French gentleman from New Orleans an awful beating one evening last week, because he had been in the liabit of walking-out with his, the lawyer is will be forced out to the very extremities of level have been deprived of his, liber ja at they have been deprived of his, liber ja at they have been deprived of his, liber ja at they have been deprived of his, liber ja at they have been deprived of his, liber ja at they have been deprived of his, liber ja at they have been deprived of his, liber ja at they have been deprived of his, liber ja at they have been deprived of his, liber ja at they have been deprived of his, liber ja at they have been deprived of his, liber ja at they have been deprived of his, liber ja at they have been deprived of his, liber ja at the coulty, in the history of civilized nations, is said in full force, and the people are denied and fraught with danger to our melliptions to admit to a full participation in their bane-