RESOLUTION

PROPOSING AMENDMENTS TO THE Constitution of the Commonwealth—

Resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendments are proposed to the Constitution of the Commonwealth, in accordance with the provisions of the tenth article thereof.

FIRST AMENDMENT

There shall be an additional article to said Constitution to be designated as article XII. as follows

ARTICLE XII.

OF PUBLIC DEBTS.

Section 1. The state may contract debts, to supply casual deficiencies of revenue, or to meet expenses not otherwise provided for; but the aggregate amount of such debts, direct and contingent, whether contracted by virtue of one or more acts of the General Assembly, or at different periods of time, shall never exceed seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars; and the money arising from the creation of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which it was obtained, or to repay the debt so contracted, and to no other purpose whatever.

Section 2. In addition to the above limited power, the State may contract debts to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, defend the State in War, or to redeem the present outstanding indebtedness of the state; but the moneys arising from the contracting of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which it was raised, or to repay such debts, and to no other purpose whatever.

Section 3. Every law, creating debts, shall specify the object to which only the proceeds of the same shall be applied, and the proceeds of the sale of the stocks, or loans, created by such law, shall be applied to the object specified, and to the payment of the debts, and to no other purpose whatever. The credit of the Commonwealth shall not be pledged or loaned to any individual, company, corporation or association; nor shall the credit of the Commonwealth hereafter become a joint owner, or stockholder in any company, association or corporation.

Section 4. The Commonwealth shall not assume the debt, or any part thereof, of any county, city, borough, or township, or of any corporation, unless such debt shall have been contracted to enable the State to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, defend itself in War, or to assist the State in the discharge of any debt or liability it may have previously incurred.

Section 5. The Legislature shall not authorize any county, city, borough, township or incorporated district, by vote of its citizens or otherwise, to become a stockholder in any company, association or corporation, or to obtain money for, or loan its credit to any corporation, association, institution or party.

SECOND AMENDMENT

There shall be an additional article to said Constitution to be designated as article XII. as follows

ARTICLE XII.

OF NEW COUNTIES.

No county shall be divided by a line cutting off over one fortieth of the population (either to form a new county or for any other purpose) without the express assent of the majority of the electors of the territory to be cut off; nor shall any new county be established containing less than four hundred square miles.

THIRD AMENDMENT

From section one, strike out the first article of the Constitution strike out the words of the city of Philadelphia and of each county respectively, from section two strike out the words of the city of Philadelphia and of the several counties, from section seven strike out the words city, county and and in lieu thereof the words and city, and strike out section four, same article and in lieu thereof insert the following

SECTION 4. In the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty four and in every seventh year thereafter, representatives to the number of one hundred, shall be apportioned and distributed equally throughout the State, by districts, to every portion to the number of taxable inhabitants in the several counties, except that any county containing at least three thousand five hundred taxables may be allowed a separate representation, but no more than three counties shall be joined, and no county shall be divided. In the formation of a district, any county having a sufficient number of taxables, may be entitled to a separate representative, and any two counties, or parts of counties, adjoining each other, may be formed into a district entitled to a representative, each of which districts shall choose a representative.

At the end of section seven, same article insert the words: The several Philadelphia districts shall be divided into as many senatorial districts of contiguous territory as not only equal in taxable population as possible, but no ward shall be divided in the formation thereof.

The Legislature at its first session after the adoption of this amendment, shall divide the city of Philadelphia into senatorial and representative districts in the manner above provided, such districts to remain unchanged until the apportionment in the year one thousand eight hundred and eleven.

FOURTH AMENDMENT

That there be an additional section to the first article of said Constitution, which shall be numbered twenty-one, as follows:

Section 21. The Legislature shall have the power to alter, revoke or annul any charter of incorporation now existing and revocable at the adoption of this Constitution, or any that may hereafter be created, whenever in their opinion it may be injurious to the citizens of the Commonwealth, in such manner, however that no injustice shall be done to the corporators.

IN SENATE, March 27, 1857.

Resolved, That the question pass. On the first amendment yeas 24, nays 7, on the second amendment yeas 27, nays 6, on the third amendment yeas 25, nays 4, on the fourth amendment yeas 25, nays 4.
