success of the Democratic party. On the contrary, it forms but another link in the lengthened chain of its mighty achievements.

It would seem, from present indications, that the Democratic party and the country might have a season of repose. These great questions of internal, financial, commercial and foreign policy, which have been called on to settle in the past, have been settled in principle, and in the nature of things, will remain settled as long as the Government shall last.

The Democratic party will be present on all the above occasions to address the people on all the issues of the day. Patrons of all parties are invited to attend.

By order of the Standing Committee JOHN H. MORRIS, Chairman

Support the Ticket.

Fellow Democrats, if you wish to sustain the Democratic party; that party which in former times you have as one man supported, cast your votes for the Democratic ticket, which has been fairly nominated in the County Convention, strictly in accordance with the usages and ancient custom of the good old party.

The Clinton Democrat says that the days appear to have about the same effect on Republican editors as they have on the same species.

Democracy Beware. The opposition Journals in this place and their sympathizers are engaged in circulating falsehoods in reference to the Democratic party and its candidates.

Individual Influence. This one fact should be distinctly presented to the mind of every Democrat: THERE IS NO MAN WITHOUT INFLUENCE.

Adverse Decision. A Washington despatch states that the Attorney-General had decided against the extraordinary claims of Mr. Heywood, the late Marshal of Utah, more than $20,000 of which were for paying the Judges of the Territory and from the places of holding the courts.

Wilmot Some Years Ago.

It is somewhat amusing to look over the opposition papers of a few years ago. Then as now they had resorted to make of Hon. David Wilmot, but how different their tone then! Then he was the betrayer of the interests of Pennsylvania—and the "utterances of every friend of Pennsylvania were to fall upon and follow him until he reached that place where the worm dieth not and the fire is not quenched."

The following are a few extracts taken from the Harrisburg Telegraph. We shall probably furnish some others.

The British Free Trade Bill. It must be gratifying to every friend of his country and particularly to every Whig, to know that the House of Representatives on the 11th inst. passed the bill.

What will the people of Pennsylvania say to this outrage upon her faith, her interests, and her honor? Will she not feel the hand that dealt the blow, or will she again be the victim of her own weakness and the treachery, and say, henceforth let her be but one party in this State and that she will vote only for the interests, the property, the welfare and the honor of her country?

Mr. Wilmot in Pittsburg. The Black Republican candidate for Governor, in a speech at Pittsburg, Pa., last evening, delivered a most interesting and eloquent address.

The Wilmot case. Judge Lewis of the Supreme Court, sitting at Pittsburg, Pa., last Thursday granted the application for a writ of error in the case of the Attorney-General vs. Chief Justice Jones, conveyed the matter of George Wilson and Elizabeth M. Miller, at Kansas City, and now in the Albany county prison.

The net amount in the Treasury at this time, subject to draft, is $19,500,000, distributed as follows: In New York, nine and a third millions; in Philadelphia, two millions and two-thirds; in New Orleans, four million and a half.

PEEN, PASTE & SCISSORS.

Busy—Our farmers. In a Hoop-hub—the Plug Uglies. A Woolly-head, free trade Wilmot is coming.

Humbug—the Horn-town, Nigger meeting. A warning of false charges against the Democratic candidates.

Keep your eye open light, for the hypocritical Democrats. To get teeth inserted, pay a visit to Valentini's pear tree.

Great Cry and Little Wool—An Ethiopian infant, just born. Shugert's Virginia Bay travels in the dust of nobody's team.

Several buildings were recently lost by fire at Montoursville, Pa. The Texan papers abound with statements of Indian hostilities.

The Stroudsburg Bank commenced operations on the 31st ult. Cool around the edges—The morning's and evening's, just now.

As supposed Hazlehurst will beat Wilmot some thousands in the State. A lion and cartload from starvation on the Island of Galveston, Texas.

We are again indebted to the late Missouri paper, Send us a shanghai next time. The majority in this County for the State and County Ticket, will be about one thousand.

Mr. Martin Dolan, Esq., has our thanks for the interest he has taken in our behalf. A Lecture of Mrs. Cunningham is now confined in the jail at Riverhead.

The Memorial.

OF PROFESSOR SILLIMAN, AND THE REPLY OF PRESIDENT BUCHANAN.

WASHINGTON, September 2.—The following is the memorial of Professor Silliman, addressed to his Excellency, James Buchanan, President of the United States.

The undersigned Professors of the United States, and clerics of the State of Connecticut, respectfully ally to your Excellency, this, their memorial. The fundamental principle of the Constitution of the United States and of our political institutions is, that the people shall make their own laws, and elect their own rulers.

It is our earnest prayer that you will, by your Executive authority, veto the bill which has been passed by the Congress of the United States, for the purpose of extending the Territory of Kansas.

Slavery existed at that period, and still exists in Kansas, under the Constitution of the United States. This point has at last been finally decided, by the highest tribunal known to our laws.

verted the existing Government, prescribed and recognized by Congress, and substituted a republican Government in its stead.

Slavery existed at that period, and still exists in Kansas, under the Constitution of the United States. This point has at last been finally decided, by the highest tribunal known to our laws.

The Convention will soon assemble to perform the solemn duty of framing a Constitution for themselves and their posterity, and in the state of our national relations, still exists in Kansas.

These are heavy charges, proceeding from good will and a high character, and if well founded ought to consign my name to many.

I thank you for the assurance that you will not permit from your private that the Almighty God will make my Administration an example of justice and benevolence.
