THE DEMOCRATIC WATCHMAN.

WHEELING, NOVEMBER 26, 1857.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

WE ARE INFORMED that a very large catamount was killed a few days ago, by Mr. John Gates, in the barn near the residence of John Hoy. There has been several of these animals prowling about the neighborhood for weeks back, and committing depredations but until very recently no one knew of their predatory neighbors. We hope the people in the vicinity will be vigilant and soon rid themselves of any annoyance which the presence of such "rampants" in their midst may have created.

CONRAD HOUSE.—This public house has been recently refitted, and is now one of the most comfortably arranged hotels in the State. Under the supervision of Mr. Jeremiah Putz, persons patronizing the establishment will find their wants not only amply provided for, but in a gentlemanly and fine social qualities, who thoroughly understand the requirements of the business. This table is always spread with viands that would satisfy the most scrupulous epicure. We wish him that success which his liberality and genuine hospitality deservedly merit.

WE RECEIVED a letter from Rev. J. M. Janes, Sr., informing us that a Mr. James S. Brewster was using out on horse back to visit the Farmers' High School, on the 21st inst. A horse became frightened, ran away, and threw him off, severely bruising one of his knees. We are sorry to learn of Mr. Brewster's injury.

WE WOULD suggest to the Commissioners, the propriety of deferring to lay the pavement around the Court House yard, until 1858, and to remove the stone out of the way so that pedestrians can have the full use of the sidewalk. What say you gentlemen?

WE ARE indebted to Mr. Austin Cortin, formerly of Bald Eagle Valley, but now of Philadelphia, Pa., for a copy of the "Mormon Rebellion." We hope he may prosper in the home of his adoption among the people of Illinois.

THE ASSASSINATIONS.—We are informed there will be a Thanksgiving Season 1857, to be held by the Rev. Mr. Linn, in the Presbyterian Church in this place on Thursday this morning. Services to commence at 11 o'clock, A. M.

WE HAVE frequently been asked by persons to notice their business in our editorial columns when they are too penurious to send a line for advertising. Such persons should know better than to ask such favors.

men butchered while under the pledge of faith of the Government, for their safety, and our families driven from their homes to find that shelter in the barren wilderness, and that protection among hostile savages, which we demanded them in the boasted Abodes of Christianity and civilization.

The Constitution of our common country guarantees to us all that we are entitled to have. If the constitutional rights which pertain to us as American citizens were extended to Utah according to the spirit and meaning thereof, and fairly and impartially administered, it is all that we could ask—all that we have ever asked.

Our opponents have availed themselves of the rights of the press, and by means of their newspapers, to send forth a formidable host to accomplish our destruction. We have had no privilege or opportunity of defending ourselves from the false, foul, and unjust aspersions against us before the nation. The Government has not only refused to employ its agents, but has even refused to employ its agents to inquire into and ascertain the truth, as is customary in such cases. We know those aspersions to be false, but that avails us nothing. We are condemned unheard, and forced to issue with an annual necessary note, which has been sent against us, and which we are obliged to answer, and which we are obliged to answer, and which we are obliged to answer.

The issue which has thus been forced upon us, compels us to resort to the great first law of self-preservation, and stand in our own defense—a right guaranteed to us by the genius of the institutions of our country, and upon which the Government is bound to protect us. We are not only bound to stand in our own defense, but we are bound to stand in our own defense, and we are bound to stand in our own defense.
