The Markets.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 8, 1857.

BREADSTUFFS. There has been rather more done in Flour this week, but the market at the close is dull and drooping, and prices merely nominal—the sales include some 7,000 bbls. at $5.25a$5,75a$5,81, common to good choice and extras, and $6a$6,75 per bbl. for fancy lots; standard brands were held at $5,12½a$5,25 per bbl, but the transactions are limited to 800 bbls, better brands only at the latter rate; the demand for shipping being almost entirely suspended. By the news from abroad, the home sales have been moderate within the same range of prices for common to choice, retailing brands and extras, and fancy lots at the higher rates, according to quality. Rye Flour is lower, with sales of 200 bbls., at $4,25a$4,37½ per bbl. Corn Meal has also declined, and 1,800 bbls. Pennsylvania Meal have been disposed of, mostly at $3 per bbl. Wheats are dull and unsettled, and prices are fully 5cts. per bushel lower, with sales of about 25,000 bushels at $1,15a$1,20 for reds, and $1,30a $1,33 for white, of fair to prime quality, closing at $1,18a1,20 for the former and $1,28a$1,30 for the latter, including very choice lots of Kentucky white at $1,40—Rye is wanted at 75c. for Southern, and 77a 80c. for Pennsylvania, and not much offering. Corn has been in fair request, and 35,000 bushels have been disposed of at 80a81c for old yellow and white, and 60a65c for new; we note the market dull to-day in our lowest figures. Oats have been in better demand and all offered, about 24,000 bushels have been sold at 36a37c. for Delaware and Pennsylvania, the closing sales were at the former rate.

☞ When Du Vall's, Galvanic Oil was first introduced into the market, it never was thought of being applied by the proprietor, to Lung Diseases, but its being applicable to almost every other disease, the afflicted have used this preparation in Consumption, and, although it has never cured a purely consumptive patient, yet it has saved many who have been prone to the disease from an early grave
