A Christian's Reflections on Beath.

I would not give one moment's enjoyment of the calm security, which pervades my mind when thinking of death, for lives spent dwell in the bright, peaceful land above .free my sad spirit, and let it go to be with God and the Lumb forever. Ah! sweet and soothing thought, that I will soon see toy Saviour! Look up my soul to heaven; no longer tarry; the angels are calling thee away. Bend my knee once more ere my spirit wings forever its homoward flight Hark ! that angelic sound, whence comes it ? It summons thee my soul, to tune thy golden lyre to hymns of praise. The bour has come and now one long farowell till we meet in the courts duove.
